Dear Dwayne:

Three years ago, I announced the formation of The President's International Youth Exchange Initiative, a joint effort of the private and public sectors to promote mutual understanding among our young people and the young people of our closest allies: the United Kingdom, the Federal Republic of Germany, Japan, France, Canada and Italy. The original "trial effort" has since been expanded and now includes 30 countries worldwide.

The President's Council has been instrumental in promoting the Initiative. I would like to extend my personal thanks to you for your generosity in supporting this worthwhile program. The four million dollars pledged by Members of the President's Council have permitted over 12,000 young people to benefit from an international experience. Giving these young people the opportunity to visit a foreign country and live with a host family is one of the most effective ways to build bridges of understanding among future generations.

Thank you for all you have done for the Initiative over the past three years.

Sincerely,

Mr. Dwayne ^x Andreas

Dear Dr. Allaway:

Three years ago, I announced the formation of The President's International Youth Exchange Initiative, a joint effort of the private and public sectors to promote mutual understanding among our young people and the young people of our closest allies: the United Kingdom, the Federal Republic of Germany, Japan, France, Canada and Italy. The original "trial effort" has since been expanded and now includes 30 countries worldwide.

The President's Council has been instrumental in promoting the Initiative. I would like to extend my personal thanks to you for your generosity in supporting this worthwhile program. The four million dollars pledged by Members of the President's Council have permitted over 12,000 young people to benefit from an international experience. Giving these young people the opportunity to visit a foreign country and live with a host family is one of the most effective ways to build bridges of understanding among future generations.

Thank you for all you have done for the Initiative over the past three years.

Sincerely,

Dear Coy:

Three years ago I announced the formation of The President's International Youth Exchange Initiative, a joint effort of the public and private sectors to promote mutual understanding among our young people and the young people of our closest allies. At that time, the Initiative focused on increasing exchanges of young people between the United States and our Economic Summit partners, the United Kingdom, France, the Federal Republic of Germany, Japan, Italy and Canada. The original "trial effort" has since been expanded and now includes 30 countries worldwide.

Your special efforts as Chairman of the President's Council have greatly contributed to the success of the program. The four million dollars pledged by Members of the Council have permitted over 13,000 young people, who would not otherwise have had the opportunity, to benefit from an international experience. Your personal commitment, as well as that of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, has helped allow young people to come to the United States to live with an American family, and, in turn, allowed our youth to go abroad. This experience is one of the best ways to build bridges of understanding among future generations.

Coy, thank you for your untiring efforts during the last three years. Under your leadership, The President's Council for International Youth Exchange achieved a goal never before undertaken by the United States Government, that of a joint fund-raising effort with the private sector.

Please accept my best wishes for a healthy and rewarding retirement.

The President's Council has been instrumental in promoting the Initiative. I would like to extend my personal thanks to you for your generosity in supporting this worthwhile program. The four million dollars pledged by Members of the President's Council have permitted over 12,000 young people to benefit from an international experience. Giving these young people the opportunity to visit a foreign country and live with a host family is one of the most effective ways to build bridges of understanding among future generations.

Thank you for all you have done for the Initiative over the past three years.

Sincerely,

Mr. James M. Furman

Dear Mr. Gendron:

Three years ago, I announced the formation of The President's International Youth Exchange Initiative, a joint effort of the private and public sectors to promote mutual understanding among our young people and the young people of our closest allies: the United Kingdom, the Federal Republic of Germany, Japan, France, Canada and Italy. The original "trial effort" has since been expanded and now includes 30 countries worldwide.

The President's Council has been instrumental in promoting the Initiative. I would like to extend my personal thanks to you for your generosity in supporting this worthwhile program. The four million dollars pledged by Members of the President's Council have permitted over 12,000 young people to benefit from an international experience.
