Dear President Reagan, March 30, 1981

Me Julie Herron and Ricky
Lochhart live in Ventura Calif.
When we heard about what happend to you we got scared.
We were almost in tears our favorite person had been hurt.
So this Candy Kiss + Cherry Pie
we got for you will cheer you up. The candy kiss was made out of clay that Ricky and Julie made. We have saved it in case some thing happend and someone was hurt. It came to this day that it happend
and were giving it to our president that we voted for in our minds.
We hope your surgery
went ok because we were worried.

P. We hope that sometime we could see you because you are very special to us.

When I came home from school Ricky and I got right to work. When you got out of surgery and you were ok
we jumped up for joy.

We hope you liked the gift we have to go.

Ricky and Julie

Dear President Reagen:

We are praying not only for your physical health but for your mental and spiritual health as well.

It seems that in times like these we must struggle for love and truth and non-violence. We must know that we are brothers and sisters and care for each other. We cannot condone assassins - be they single individuals or highly placed leaders. If our leaders would work to disavow nuclear weapons and lead a crusade for justice, disarmament and peace surely there would be a lessening of madness among people.

President Reagen please reconsider the budget cuts - lets have money for food not weapons - especially weapons that can destroy all life on earth.

3/ We sincerely hope that during your recovery that you will think of others less fortunate - our prayers are with you. Our prayers are with the people.

Your daughter Nancy used to shop in Rainbow Grocery in Malibu, California where I worked - her love and concern for you was evident - I pray we can live in love and peace.

Stay Strong

Talicia Sklarowsky

I am fasting for Lent & have since the Sunday before you were shot - I've had just juice - it helps keep the spirit of forgiveness alive.

Best wishes
