PERSONAL

Dear Mr. Lipic:

Gift-
Thank you for the generous supply of personalized pens which I received through Senator John Danforth. I appreciate this special gesture of friendship, and your prayerful support encourages me daily. From the bottom of my heart, I am grateful for the concern that prompted your gift.

With my best wishes,

Sincerely,

A

My dear Mr. President:

One of the first things we heard on the news after your operation was that you were writing notes, so we here at the Joseph Lipic Pen Company thought our President should have his personal pens to sign notes, and a few extra to hand out to the special people who are giving you such wonderful service.

We would like to thank our Senator, John Danforth from Missouri and his staff for expediting the fast delivery of these pens.

We are continuing our prayers for your speedy recovery and the others that were injured in the unfortunate mishap.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH LIPIC PEN CO.

Dear President Reagan,

My family and I sincerely hope that this letter finds you in improved health and spirits. The manner in which you have conducted yourself through extremely trying circumstances is an inspiration to all Americans. We are indeed fortunate to have you as our President.

Enclosed please find some delicious jelly beans to help you during your recuperation period. And may Our Lady always watch over and protect you.

Warmest personal regards,

To Delene,

Here are a couple of letters we were given to give to Michael's Dad. One is from the little girl he held up on primary night.
And the other one is from the guy, where one of our (S.S.) agents gets his cigars. A box of cigars was with it but Michael passed them out on one of our campaign flights we didn't think his dad would mind. Anyway, I think all he was after was maybe a picture of the president and a word of Thanks.

Thanks Delene,
Sincerely
Colleen R.
