PERSONAL

Dear Friends:

Thank you very much for the beautiful cashmere sportcoat and handsome complementary slacks that you sent to me following my hospitalization. The concern that prompted your remembrance is truly appreciated, and I shall be reminded of special friends in San Francisco each time I wear your generous gifts.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank you in advance for the western suit that you mentioned in your letter. You are indeed thoughtful to do this, and I am grateful for your kindness.

With my warm best wishes,

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN ^a

President Ronald Reagan

Dear Mr. President:

We heard about your getting a "hole" in your coat, so all hands scurried around and hand-tailored a cashmere sportcoat especially for you. We can't have our President walking around with a "hole" in his coat! We also included a pair of slacks as a bonus.

We are making a western suit for you which will be coming along a little later. After all, we western folks have a reputation to uphold, as far as helping our neighbors in times of stress.

All of us at MARMAN wish you a speedy recovery and send our very best wishes.

Sincerely,

Your friends at MARMAN of San Francisco
