Dear Mr. Bartlett:

Gift
This is to express my thanks for the specially created glass tumblers that you sent through Anne Higgins. I am deeply grateful to you and your staff for the generous concern and support that prompted your thoughtful remembrance. It is truly heartening to know that so many fine folks like you really care.

With my very best wishes,

Sincerely,

a
RONALD REAGAN

Mr. President:

Due to the recent tragic incident, many Americans were concerned about you and are now greatly relieved at the wonderful progress you have made. Concerned Americans are also pleased at the way you are working to get our country back where it should be.

As a token of our appreciation, we have sent to you seventy-two (72) special glass tumblers which we hope you will enjoy using. We have worked through Senator Don Nickles' office, and they have been very cooperative and helpful in this project.

As the inscription on the tumbler reads: "We think you are the greatest and our country needs you now more than ever."

Respectfully yours,

BARTLETT-COLLINS COMPANY
