Dear Mr. Dicks:

On behalf of the President, thank you for your recent invitation.

You were very kind to extend this opportunity to the President. I regret to write that, due to an already heavily committed schedule, he will be unable to accept your invitation.

However, your request for a message has been noted and forwarded to the appropriate office for consideration.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear President Reagan,

- Previous RR's to Brown attached

You are cordially invited to attend "~~James Brown Day~~" in Augusta, Georgia on June 28th at 3:00 p.m.

The event is called PROJECT: Living in Augusta and it will be a salute to the "Godfather of Soul". This long overdue salute will be the first time in more than 15 years that James Brown has been honored by his own community. The salute will include musical entertainment, refreshments and proclamations from state and local leaders.

Your presence will be an honor and a welcome addition to this celebration.

James Brown day is open to the public and is free of charge. It is being held on the grounds of Augusta's new riverfront marina, along the banks of the beautiful Savannah River.

Recognition will be extended to visiting dignitaries, so please let us know if your schedule will allow you to attend this event.

Sincerely yours,

Terence A. Dicks
