Dear Mr. Williams:

Thank you for your candid and inspiring message. I want you to know how much hearing from proud Americans like you means to me.

In the past several months, this Administration has sought to develop and implement policies which recognize and encourage the unique spirit of self-reliance that has made our nation great. Sometimes the most important things we do as citizens are not those at which we immediately succeed, but those in which we ultimately prevail.

Thank you for your perseverance and your warm words of encouragement. With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Emerson:

With sincere regret for the delay, I would like to thank you for your May 5 letter to President Reagan enclosing correspondence to him from Mr. Frank M. Williams.

Your thoughtfulness in bringing this message to my attention is certainly appreciated. You may be assured that it has been brought to the attention of the appropriate White House staff members so that a response can be sent on the President's behalf.

With cordial regard, I am

Dear Mr. President:

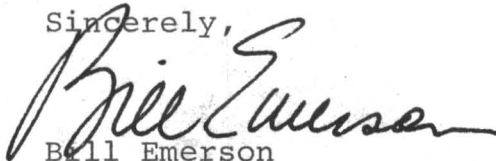

I recently has the honor to speak at the Jefferson County, Missouri, Lincoln Day Dinner and to introduce Senator Jack Danforth on that occasion. All of the folks assembled in Jefferson County for the dinner were very solicitous about your welfare; and, of course, they are deeply committed to your program.

In the course of the evening, I had a conversation with Mr. Frank M. Williams of Arnold, Missouri, who suffers very extensive physical difficulties. He is, however, very self-sufficient and has worked all of his life to support himself and his family. He is most concerned about those who are out for a "free ride" and feels that if he can carry the freight for himself, then many, many others could do the same.

Mr. Williams has written a letter to you, which I am enclosing. He was afraid that if he sent it through the regular mail it would not reach your attention, and I told him that I would make every effort to see that you had the opportunity to personally read his letter.

I hope, Mr. President, that upon reading Mr. Williams' letter you will see one more indication of how the people are with you in what you are trying to do to put this country back on track.

Sincerely,

Bill Emerson
Member of Congress

Dear President Reagan,

April 12, 1981

May I first congratulate you for being the President of our country. You are the much needed hope for all of us. The purpose of this letter is to inform you that this American believes in what you are doing, to solve our economic problems. I truly believe that there are many other citizens who believe the same as I. Perhaps these people need to be motivated, and by someone like myself. You see, I am thirty one years old, and for the past thirteen years I have been battling a form of muscular dystrophy. Four years ago I lost my right leg, and last June my left leg was amputated. The point of this is for the past fourteen years I have worked to support myself and my family. I am a dental technician, and I have never been supported by the State or Federal Government. Perhaps if the people see someone who has the courage to stand tall and not depend on a FREE RIDE, they will understand you are not taking anything they could not provide for themselves.

Your remarkable election as President, played an important role in getting me involved in local politics. I filed for a council position in our last election. After a great deal of advice and hard work I came within ninety votes of beating an incumbant. As an unknown, first time candidate, I am very proud of the results. Please understand this is not intended to be a political venture. Instead I merely wish for you to know, I am very active and do not seek any sympathy. Perhaps there is a portion of my life which will motivate people to help themselves as I have done.

There is no excuse for anyone to expect a FREE RIDE. Sometimes the best medicine does not always taste so good when it is going down. In conclusion, I wish for you to know that I am willing to make myself available to assist you in any and all your endeavors.

Respectfully,

Frank M. Williams

Dear Mr President:

I am writing to extend my sincere Congratulations to you upon your gratifying land-slide election to the Presidency of our Great Free Nation!

Being cognizant that you have received thousands, yea, millions of such greetings from this country and abroad, I feel compelled from a deeper and inner feeling to convey mine to you.

Strangely, perhaps, I have a feeling as though I know you personally. That is, because I have heard so much about you from someone with whom you worked in the Film Industry, and in a Very Special Documentary Film, "The Ultimate Weapon", written, produced and directed by Charles W. Cromer, and based upon Dr.
William E. Mayer, acting then as Chief of Neurophysiology in the U.S. Navy and the only officer on a special intelligence board set up in Japan to supervise and study American soldiers released from Chinese Communist prisoner-of-war camps/

I have seen the very moving film and am proud to say, have a copy of it, as well as stills. YOU, Mr Reagan, were the Narrator, of that film.

I now want to take this occasion to inform you, most sadly, that Charles W. Cromer, my

the past eleven years, passed away last July.
Mr Cromer held you in such high regard for your intellect, character, patriotism and courage that I repeat, fell compelled to write this letter.

I am not sure if you were aware that Charles W. Cromer was nominated for an Academy Award for "The Ultimate Weapon", and did receive the "Valley Forge Freedom's Foundation Award" for it, which is in my possession.

Again--"Congratulations" upon your Victory,

Mottl's vote for GOP budget could cost him seat

By William Carlson
PD BUREAU

COLUMBUS — Rep. Ronald M. Mottl might become a casualty of congressional redistricting for supporting the President Reagan-backed budget yesterday.

Cuyahoga County Democratic Chairman Timothy F. Hagan had told Cuyahoga County legislators

here that Mottl's party loyalty would be questioned if he sided with the GOP.

"It would not be beneficial to his cause in redistricting," Hagan said.

Mottl, D-23, of Parma, was one of 63 House Democrats who joined GOP members yesterday in passing the Gramm-Latta substitute budget bill backed by Reagan.

Later this year, the legislature, after conferring with party leaders and the governor's office, will redraw district boundaries to reflect the 1980 census.

Population shifts will force Ohio to give up two of its 23 congressional seats, most likely those of a Greater Cleveland Democrat and a downstate Republican.

Although he is a former state senator, Mottl has few friends here who would protect his seat.

The ill will stems partly from his maverick record and partly from what veteran lawmakers say was Mottl's misrepresentation of the Ohio Lottery as a cure-all for school financing. Mottl's promise is remembered by the public and still bedevils state officials.

Hagan said he will set up a meeting within the next month between Cuyahoga County Democratic legislators and the county's four congressmen — Mottl, M. Rose Oakar, D-20, of Cleveland; Louis Stokes, D-21, of Cleveland; and Dennis E. Eckart, D-22, of Lorain — for a free and frank discussion on redistricting.

Dear Mr. President:

I thought it was just about time I sent off a note to you to express one American's thoughts about your accomplishments thus far as the leader of our country.

More important, judging from a vast number of my associates and friends in and out of business, I am not alone in my thoughts.

You have done everything you have said you would do and more. There isn't one step you have taken nor decision made that hasn't benefited our people and our country. Even during your traumatic experience and the duress of convalescence there was not the slightest departure from your objectives and your leadership has been truly inspirational.

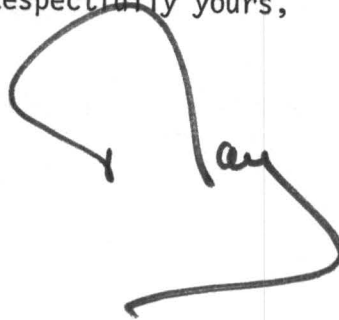

Though there will be more "hard calls" and many obstacles to overcome, I believe you will indeed turn our economy around which is of paramount importance to every American. Of equal importance to every American, however, is the course you are taking to re-instate American prestige and respect at home and around the world.

I congratulate you, Mr. President.

I would also hope you can make the Grove this year. I am again a guest of Ralph Edwards at Camp Sahara. A Lakeside Address by you would make this year's encampment even more of a treat and a privilege.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. Reagan,

I am an American born in Illinois, like you, of Irish decent (Grandmother Horrigan came over from Canada) went to Girls Latin School in Chicago, the same as your wife, and my late Mother and Stepfather, Sally and Stan Rowe, knew your father-in-law Dr. Davis. After studying Opera, in Chicago, I went to California, where in 1950 I signed a contract with Republic Studios and my last film Allan Dwan's "I Dream of Jeannie" appears occasionally on T.V. down here, much to my amusement. It was at this time I met you and still have my Screen Actors Guild Card, as a fond souvenir. I interrupted my career when I married a Brazilian Ambassador's son, who was doing a post-graduate course in Public Administration at U.S.C. We came to Rio in 1954, have a daughter and my husband's last Government job was Secretary of Commerce. I maintain contact with the American Community, which is quite large, and partake in the various homages to our country. I receive visitors from the States, constantly, and enjoy showing them Brazilian-American hospitality. The most outstanding couple to come our way were the Charlton Hestons and their special success I dare say, should preserve U.S.-Brazil relations for a Century. Because of the above coincidences and affinities you can understand my extra enthusiasm to see you win the elections. I therefore want to take this opportunity to send along heartfelt wishes for continued personal happiness, with your Nancy and family, and feel confident that our country, in your hands, will gain in greatness, dignity and win deeper respect.

Most Sincerely,

Muriel Lawrence de Upcodo-Soares

Dear Mr. President

I've been wanting to drop you a line, ever since you were in the Hospital, to let you know you have been in our prayers.

I certainly commend you in the way you rallied & soon were back on the job, I'm sure all the American people were behind you in wishing you a speedy recovery & you proved to them what a great American you are.

I've been involved in politics for a good many yrs. & have served in the No. Dak. State legislature now for ten yrs. & I want you to know, if ever at any time I can be of any service to you, I'm standing ready.

I commend you on your accomplishments you have already done, & we the people of this great country, do believe you are the one person that can really get this country back on the right track.

I do not want to take a lot of your time, But only wanted to drop a line, and commend you on what you have already done & what you plan to do. - You have a great task before you being this country has went the wrong way these past yrs. So keep up the good work. & I'm wishing you nothing but the best. Sincerely, Wilbur Vander Vorst Rep. No. Dak.

A True Hero Steps Forward

I would like to go on record as recognizing the only true hero our country has had since Teddy Roosevelt. Frankly, we have been seeking a person of this stature for decades.

Now he is here — he is none other than our president, Ronald Reagan. But it took virtually a national tragedy to bring this reality to light.

Yes, thank heavens, his life was spared. Where else in the world could you find a man who would joke about his condition with remarks such as "I should have ducked," or "I hope all of you doctors are Republicans,"?

Here is a man who didn't have to show his valor on the battlefield, but

Mr. Reagan: Valor under pressure by his words and courage has conquered the world's greatest army. These acts have endeared him to everyone, and I am sure he is the most respected and admired man in the world today.

AMBITIOUS VEEP

About two weeks ago, I saw Alec Waugh over the Public Broadcasting System being interviewed by Dick Cavett. It was about 7:15 pm. I heard him say that George Bush would have President Reagan assassinated. He said that Bush—a former CIA chief—had the means to do it and that he was ambitious and hated Reagan. Cavett changed the subject quickly.

Just thought I'd let you know.

President Reagan

I received the thank you card & yes I have written hundreds of letters to traitors or marxists in the House against your cuts. The many of us are with you all the way & I give to what I can these organizations to help you get elected.

I hated to hear very sad news you were an assassin attempt. I Pray always for your get well & have health such as you had & your safe recovery.

However I am sending this letter with Dan Lickman & I believe he is a good man & one you can trust to give it to you. I had heard such bureaucrats as Kennedy, Jones, Tip O'Neil, Herb Hollings, Mitterbaum & many others I do not trust for them to get & tear up. They are spend trust marxists traitors to me. I say someone told me here that you do not receive our letters.

I also am very sceptical of traitor too faced George Bush & as I send this clippings, hope you take notice & watch out again for your life because he Bush wants to be President more than anything in the world. You was good enough to choose him or he certainly wouldn't make it to first base. I traitor & dictator to me he is & will take us down the road to dictatorship & Communism. He is a deathly bilateral David Rockefeller man & certainly wouldn't ever get my vote or thousands Christians around the world. So hope you & Nancy your wife see you are guarded in every way with a bullet proof vest & any other protection.

I am also writing a red hot letter to Bush & let him know I know this & will tell all I see your supporters & ones that doesn't like the Spotlight you are doing a good job up there & too bad America has so many traitors & beasts caused by marxists hand out Democrats & spend thefts until not safe to go out at nite any more. We can make America Great again & a New Beginning if traitors are watched & guarded from assassinating you. My Prayers go out always & thousands of others are. Hope for your recovery soon. I hear about the poor & not to cut food stamps, welfare & lunches for kids until it makes me sick at my stomach. Why don't they work same as I do per time? Just want hand out Violet Lake
