President & Mrs. Ronald Reagan
White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Sir Mr. President & Mrs. Reagan:

I had a very nice tour through out the European countries. I see a lot of problems in Greece but that doesn't disturb me as much as the problems I see here at home.

Mr. President, it is very urgent that we move immediately. When I say immediately, I mean immediately. It's terrible that we are being envaded by ignorance and communism. It may not be coming from Russia but it's coming from somewhere. I'm very much afraid of the people coming from India. They disturb me. They may not have America's interest at heart. This is serious, Mr. President. You are a man I have loved and admired all of my life as a child hero, and a hero for humanity since I've grown up. You have not disappointed me yet.

We as American people have a great great responsibility to keep it cool and calm. Please, Sir Mr. President make this priority over most of your agenda. I urge you to move rapidly.

Thank you very very much for a good presidency. I wish you could stay in office forever. You have my support as long as you're in office. And thanks to Mrs. Reagan for being the best First Lady in a long time.

Senator Strom Thurmond is like a father to me, and I admire Vice President Bush very much. God bless you and my prayers are with you.

From the desk of Becky Blanchard as dictated by James Brown.

Becky Blanchard
Secretary for James Brown

cc: Vice President George Bush
Senator Strom Thurmond
