RE: RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL.

*Call completed -

TO: Liles Williams
Republican Candidate, Special Election
Mississippi 4, Runoff, July 7, 1981

Telephone number: 601-969-2141 (Ramada Room 1)

Address: Coliseum Ramada Inn, Jackson MS
(400 Greymont Avenue)

DATE: July 6, 1981 10:45-11:00 AM EDT

RECOMMENDED
BY: Lyn Nofziger, Lee Atwater

PURPOSE: Congressman Trent Lott will be in the 4th District on 7/6/81 campaigning for Williams. A press conference will be held at the Coliseum Ramada Inn from 9:45-10:15am. A telephone call from the President would afford the opportunity to maximize the benefits of the election-eve press conference as well as serve as a tool urging voters to the poll.

BACKGROUND: Liles Williams received 45% of the vote in the 6/23/81 non-partisan primary. He is highly likely to win.

A letter from the President expressing his support for Williams was sent April 25, 1981.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION:

1. Williams and his wife, Ruth Ann, met with the President in the Oval Office on June 12, 1981.
2. Williams shares the Administration's interest in getting the economy back on its feet and he has pledged his support of Administration proposals on lower tax rates and increased national security.
3. In a special election turnout is the key, it is of paramount importance that all supporters vote on Tuesday, July 7.

TO: Lyn Nofziger

FROM: Lee Atwater LA

SUBJECT: 4th DISTRICT CONGRESSIONAL RACE

As you know, the special election for the Fourth District of Mississippi is on Tuesday, July 7. It looks very good for Republican candidate Liles B. Williams, but in a special election, turnout is the key. With this in mind, the National Republican Congressional Committee and the Williams campaign have asked if the President could make a telephone call to Williams Headquarters on Monday to urge voters to go to the polls. Congressman Trent Lott will be in the Fourth District Monday campaigning for Williams, so a call with public-address hook-up capabilities could be made the centerpiece of election-eve activities.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 29, 1981

Lyn,

The attached memo is a rundown on the political situation in the 4th Congressional District of Mississippi.

In a nutshell: The result of Tuesday's Primary causes me to strongly recommend a visit by the President to the district.

I feel that there is an 80% or better chance that Republican Liles Williams will win the July 7th runoff and win big (more than 55%) regardless of a visit by the President. However, a Presidential visit should insure a near landslide win for Williams, more importantly, it would serve the President's interest because it could dramatically counter recent drops in the polls. (I believe there will be several other less than favorable polls released in the next few weeks.) A big win in the Deep-South could be subtle but positive proof to "Boll Weevils" that regardless of national polls the President still packs a mean wallop down in their turf and could serve as more than ample proof of what may happen in 1982 if the President decides to go "visiting around" in various congressional districts.

Due to the short amount of time remaining before the runoff, I would like to recommend the 3rd, 5th and 6th of July as possible dates for a Presidential visit to Mississippi.

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 29, 1981

To: Lyn Nofziger

Re: Mississippi 4

Because of the results of yesterday's special election, I am now convinced that a victory of potential national importance to the Administration is now within reach.

Basically, the situation is this: our candidate, Liles Williams, will be in the run-off on Tuesday, July 7, with the 2nd-place finisher, Democrat Wayne Dowdy. The final results from yesterday's "non-partisan" primary are as follows:

|                      |        |       |
|----------------------|--------|-------|
| Liles Williams (R)   | 39,557 | (45%) |
| Wayne Dowdy (D)      | 22,170 | (25%) |
| Britt Singletary (D) | 12,535 | (14%) |
| Ed Ellington (D)     | 11,886 | (14%) |

Though we feel we're in the driver's seat now, Dowdy will continue to run a strong campaign, and much of the divided Democratic electorate will coalesce behind him.

Dowdy, who is part owner of several radio stations, is pouring his considerable family fortune into the race (his investment is now over $50,000). As Mayor of McComb, he has a political base in the rural southern part of the district, but this is expected to turn out less than 20 percent of the run-off vote. He has made a fairly good impression in public appearances, and has been advertising on television, radio, and billboards.

Dowdy is vulnerable on several issues that give the GOP an opportunity to press an effective ideological attack. This is safer than trying to garner support along traditional party lines, as this district has a pronounced Democratic registration edge. The race is going to be a classic liberal-conservative confrontation, and current plans are for the new media themes to indicate this.

Dowdy is vulnerable on many issues and has been campaigning more on national than local themes. He has been the only candidate to support the Democratic/Ways and Means Committee proposal that calls for a tax cut for only one year. He also supports food stamps for strikers, and has the endorsement of the AFL-CIO, as well as the Mississippi Education Association.

Lyn Nofziger
June 29, 1981
Page Two

In another respect, this will be a contest between the strengths of the Jackson metropolitan area and the rural portions of the district. Williams most significant win was in the city of Jackson:

Hinds County Results (Jackson)

|            |        |
|------------|--------|
| Williams   | 20,437 |
| Ellington  | 8,318  |
| Dowdy      | 8,184  |
| Singletary | 5,451. |

Democratic State Senator Ed Ellington represents the Republican area of North Jackson. We need to do well in this area to win the run-off, and with Ellington out of the race, his voters are a prime target for garnering additional support.

Clearly, the President -- his personal popularity and his program -- is a major issue here.

Republican strategists expect to win this one, but a tough fight still is before us. You can be sure the "Boll Weevils" are watching this one; if Williams can pull this one off on the basis of his support for the President and his policies, they won't fail to get the message.

For these reasons, we urgently need the President to make a personal appearance in Mississippi on behalf of Liles Williams. Now, more than ever, the result of the July 7 election will be viewed as a referendum on the President's program and his personal effectiveness. National media attention is already focused on this race, and a Reagan appearance there would make for a national news story of considerable magnitude.

Due to the short amount of time remaining before the July 7 runoff, I would like to recommend the 3rd, 5th and 6th of July as possible dates for a Presidential visit to Mississippi.

Recommended Telephone Call
Long. Dan Glickman

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

See memo

TO: Representative Dan Glickman, Democrat, 4th District of Kansas (central part of state, including Wichita), 3rd term; member of the Agriculture Committee, the Judiciary Committee and the Science and Technology Committee; Chairman of the Science and Technology Subcommittee on Transportation, Aviation and Materials.

DATE: July 6, 1981.

RECOMMENDED BY: Max L. Friedersdorf MLF
Kenneth M. Duberstein

PURPOSE: To request Dan's support for the Conable-Hance bipartisan tax proposal.

BACKGROUND: Dan has not supported the Administration's position on the three most important House Floor votes on the Budget which have occurred thus far in the 97th Congress: (1) the Gramm-Latta amendment to the First Budget Resolution on May 7, 1981, (2) the procedural move on June 25, 1981 to have a single vote on Gramm-Latta II (reconciliation), and (3) the Gramm-Latta II amendment when it was formally considered on June 26, 1981. However, Dan has supported Administration positions on the Budget on three occasions: (1) final House passage of the bipartisan Budget Resolution on May 7, 1981, (2) the Conference Report on the First Budget Resolution on May 20, 1981, and (3) a procedural motion following final House passage of the reconciliation bill on June 26, 1981.

Dan has co-sponsored legislation calling for personal tax rate reductions in 1981 and 1982, with a third year "trigger" tied to overall performance of the nation's economy. Under this proposal, personal tax rate reductions would be "triggered" in the third year if all of the following conditions are met: (1) the Fiscal Year 1982 Budget deficit does not exceed $37.7 billion, (2) the third quarter 1982 Consumer Price Index does not exceed 300 percent of its 1967 base (the CPI stood at 266.8 of the base in April, 1981), and (3) interest rates do not exceed Administration forecasts of Treasury Bill rates (the Gramm-Latta bipartisan Budget Resolution assumed that Treasury Bill rates would average 8.9 percent during Fiscal Year 1982).

During a June 9, 1981 phone conversation with White House staff, Dan indicated that he remained concerned about an unrestricted three-year personal tax cut (as evidenced by his own proposal); but he also said that he was keeping an open mind on the tax issue. During a July 1, 1981 phone conversation with Treasury Secretary Regan, Dan reportedly said he was leaning in favor of the Conable-Hance bipartisan tax proposal and wanted to vote with the President on this issue. Representative Kent Hance (D-Texas) also has had a very positive conversation with Dan.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION: See Attachment.

DATE OF SUBMISSION: July 6, 1981.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR
TELEPHONE CALL TO REPRESENTATIVE
DAN GLICKMAN (D-KANSAS)

- Acknowledge that Members of Congress have varied ideas about what should be included in this first tax bill. Indicate that you and Secretary Regan have listened to and worked with Members of Congress and a wide range of experts in the private sector in order to develop a balanced package.
- Indicate awareness of the proposal Dan has sponsored for personal tax rate reductions (two years with a third year trigger); and emphasize that you are convinced a full 25 percent tax cut along the lines of the Conable-Hance proposal (5-10-10) is essential just to offset the higher taxes the American people otherwise would have to pay under existing law.
- Note that the Conable-Hance bipartisan tax proposal will shrink the Fiscal Year 1982 deficit about $17 billion from the $38.9 billion originally assumed in the Budget Resolution, that it contains the largest single tax cut for business in history aimed at the creation of private sector jobs, and that tax relief for individuals is calculated to spur savings and investment.
- Note also that some of the more targeted tax relief provisions, such as the estate and gift tax proposals, should be particularly beneficial in agricultural areas.
- Ask Dan for his support of the Conable-Hance bipartisan tax proposal, stressing that you are convinced that it is the right thing to do if we are serious about America's economic recovery.

RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

OK

TO: Senator Roger Jepsen (Iowa)

DATE: Thursday, July 16, 1981

RECOMMENDED BY: Max L. Friedersdorf M-L
Powell A. Moore PM

PURPOSE: To dispel any misgivings which Senator Jepsen may have regarding Judge Sandra O'Connor in the wake of his visit with her Wednesday. To urge him to support her nomination.

BACKGROUND: Senator Jepsen, who was one of the 7 Senators to support your nomination before the New Hampshire primary, requested an opportunity to visit with Judge Sandra O'Connor. Although he is not a member of the Senate Judiciary Committee, we complied with his request.

During the course of that meeting, Senator Jepsen seemed to have difficulty comprehending that nominees to the Supreme Court cannot express approval or disapproval in connection with past Supreme Court decisions, and cannot express opinion on current public policy issues which they may be called to rule upon on the Court, if confirmed. This difficulty arose in connection with his concerns regarding the Supreme Court's decision in Roe v. Wade (the landmark abortion decision of 1973). As a result, Judge O'Connor's visit with Senator Jepsen was cool and not very satisfactory.

Senator Jepsen met with Judge O'Connor immediately following his luncheon with Mrs. Carolyn F. Gerster of Phoenix, Arizona. Mrs. Gerster is Vice President in charge of International Affairs of the National Right to Life Committee, Inc.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

TO: Mrs. Susie DeConcini (wife of Senator Dennis DeConcini, D-Arizona)

DATE: July 17, 1981

RECOMMENDED BY: Max L. Friedersdorf M.L.F.
Powell A. Moore P.A.M.

PURPOSE: To thank Susie DeConcini for her special efforts in hosting a luncheon and a tea for all the Senate wives to meet Judge O'Connor.

BACKGROUND: Mrs. DeConcini, on her own initiative, held a luncheon and a tea for all the Senate wives (and several Congressional wives) to meet and visit with Judge O'Connor. All the wives of the Members of the Senate Judiciary Committee were invited to the luncheon as were the wives of the Senate leadership. Both the luncheon and the tea were well attended, with Judge O'Connor being well received and applauded by all. These meetings were particularly useful to Judge O'Connor's confirmation process since, as you know, a good rapport with the wife of a Senator often impacts on the Senator's views.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION: 1. Thank Mrs. DeConcini for her gracious and successful efforts on behalf of Judge O'Connor.

2. State that Judge O'Connor would not have had such an excellent opportunity to make an impression on the people closest to every Senators' thoughts without her help.

3. Tell her that you understand that both the luncheon and the tea were great successes.

Recommended Telephone Call
Cong. Mario Biaggi

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

TO: Congressman Mario Biaggi (D-NY), who represents the 10th district that includes southeast Bronx and north Queens. Biaggi serves on the Education and Labor committee and is the second ranking Democrat on the Merchant Marine and Fisheries committee.

DATE: July 22, 23, or 24

RECOMMENDED BY: Max L. Friedersdorf MLF
Kenneth M. Duberstein

PURPOSE: To encourage Biaggi to support the Conable-Hance bipartisan tax package.

BACKGROUND: Biaggi did not support Gramm-Latta and he has opposed Kemp-Roth in the past, but, recently he has indicated some preference for the President's bipartisan tax package.

Biaggi serves as the chairman of the Ad Hoc Congressional Committee for Irish Affairs, an informal group of approximately 130 representatives who work through the Congress and with the President to seek peace and justice in Ireland.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION:

1. Acknowledge that every Member of Congress has different views as to what should be included in spending reductions and taxes.
2. Stress that the Conable-Hance proposal is a consensus package aimed at stimulating savings, investment, productivity and economic growth.
3. Note that the full three year 25% tax cut is needed to offset the higher taxes facing the American people. Anything less is a vote for a tax increase.

4. Emphasize that the bipartisan tax rate cut is fair and equitable. It cuts taxes for the people who pay taxes. People earning between $5,000-$50,000 now pay 67 percent of all income taxes and they will receive 70 percent of the tax cut.
5. Point out that the Ways and Means proposal will result in higher tax rates for most working families by 1984. Rather than helping the working people by creating new jobs, the Ways and Means alternative will result in continued economic stress for the working people of this country.
6. Ask Congressman Biaggi for his support for the Conable-Hance bipartisan tax package.

DATE OF SUBMISSION: Tuesday, July 21, 1981

Mrs. Janis Dodge

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Call made

RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

TO: Mrs. Janis Dodge, widow of Navy Commander Ronald W. Dodge, whose recently returned remains from Vietnam were identified on Monday, July 20.

DATE: Before Friday, July 24, afternoon. The funeral will take place in Arlington Cemetery at 2 PM on Friday, July 24.

RECOMMENDED BY: Elizabeth H. Dole; ~~END~~ Morton Blackwell

PURPOSE: To offer condolences.

BACKGROUND: See accompanying article and picture of Mrs. Dodge with the President.

Navy Commander Dodge had been an MIA since he was shot down over North Vietnam in 1967. His picture, with the head bandage, was on the cover of Life magazine and became a symbol of thousands of servicemen who were then missing in action in Vietnam. He had been a young pilot with hopes of a career in professional baseball.

His widow has been very active in the League of Families of POW/MIA's in Southeast Asia and served on the National Board of Directors for the past three years. She has two children - Brad, 17 years and Wendy, 20 years. (Brad was 3 years old when his father was shot down.)

No letter has been sent by Correspondence for this purpose.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION: 1. Offer condolences.
2. Praise her husband for all he did for our country.
3. Compliment her for the work she has done for the POW/MIA cause.

DATE OF SUBMISSION: Wednesday, July 22.

POW/MIA Recognition Day

June 12, 1981

By Frank Johnston -- The Washington Post
At a Rose Garden ceremony for National POW/MIA Recognition Day, President Reagan hands signing pen to Sen. Dennis DeConcini (D-Ariz.). Looking on are Nancy Reagan and Sens. Harold Hollenbeck (R-N.J.), center, and Jeremiah Denton (R-Ala.).

Brad Dodge, like members of the families of Air Force Capt. Richard H. Van Dyke and Lt. Stephen O. Musselman, grieved. But, he said, in a way he was relieved.

The Vietnamese returned the remains, incomplete and packed in separate small wooden boxes, on July 7, after repeated inquiries about those missing in action, military officials said. Laboratory technicians identified the remains Monday, and officials notified the families.

Cdr. Dodge, who had been a young pilot with hopes for a career in professional baseball, became a symbol of the 2,500 servicemen MIAs. A photo of him, after capture and escorted by North Vietnamese soldiers, was published in Paris Match, a French magazine, and later reprinted on the cover of Life and in 5 million brochures urging that more attention be paid to the missing.

Dodge, who was flying an F8 Crusader jet when he was shot down on May 17, 1967, was 31. Paris Match published the photo on Sept. 9, 1967, and nothing had been seen or heard of him since.

Capt. Van Dyke, of Salt Lake City, was shot down over North Vietnam on Sept. 11, 1968, at age 24. Lt. Musselman was shot down over North Vietnam on Sept. 10, 1972, when he was 26.

Officials said they were certain of the identifications, which were made at an Army laboratory in Honolulu after the remains were flown there.

Identifications were made by comparing the characteristics of the bones with medical information of missing servicemen, especially those considered to be most likely because of when and where they disappeared, said Maj. Cliff Purcell, an Army spokesman in Honolulu.

"We definitely won't know when they died," said Lt. Col. Jerry Grohowski in Washington. "We probably won't know how they died, but that is a remote possibility."

Yesterday the survivors sorted through their memories. Brad Dodge said his father attended high school in Olympia, Wash., and then attended the University of Oregon, where he played football and baseball.

Ronald Dodge was a fine catcher who had played for the Seattle Rainiers and who might have played for the Cincinnati Reds if he had not been shot down, his son said.

Long Wait Ends For 3 Families Of Missing GIs

By Nicholas D. Kristof
Washington Post Staff Writer

Brad Dodge was 4 when his father was shot down over North Vietnam in 1967. He's grown up wondering about his father, trying to learn more about this baseball-loving pilot whose picture was on the cover of Life magazine, a symbol of thousands of servicemen who were then missing in action in Vietnam.

Brad barely remembers his dad, and he has long doubted whether he would see him again. Now it is over. Yesterday the Pentagon announced the names of three servicemen, among them Navy Cdr. Ronald W. Dodge, Brad's father, whose remains Hanoi returned to the United States two weeks ago.

Ronald W. Dodge on the flight line, inset, and after capture by North Vietnamese.

Steve Musselman had been very proud, one week before he was shot down, when his name was painted on the outside of his bomber in recognition of his successful missions, his mother, Ethel Musselman recalled yesterday from her home in Texarkana, Tex. But on the day of his last mission, his plane was being repaired, so he took another.

"He was bombing a missile site and got a few hits in," she said. Then he was hit by a missile, and "his plane went in an uncontrolled dive. He radioed, 'My altitude is ...,' and he was cut off. He landed in a rice paddy 14 miles from Hanoi."

Ethel Musselman said Navy officials told her that Steve probably had been shot to death, perhaps as he floated to earth by parachute. "I'm more fortunate than many mothers," she said. "I still have four sons."

Kay Van Dyke said from her home in Salt Lake City that her son, Richard, attended Wakefield High School in Arlington, Va., and then joined the Air Force after attending the University of Colorado.

"He was a personable young man, a large man," she said. "He loved everything. He was just a fun-loving, living, man."

Her son's plane was hit by a missile and he ejected safely, she said. "He was seen to land, to stow his parachute and to go into the woods."

Her husband, Milton, added that prisoners of war later released said their son was in the same camp, with a broken leg apparently resulting from his bail-out. The North Vietnamese "took him from the camp and said, 'your buddy has to have his leg amputated.' Then one of the guards came back and said, 'Your buddy didn't make it.'"

Dear Bill:

This is to thank you for your recent letter on behalf of the Cincinnati City-Wide Learning Community, which has requested a telephone conversation with the President.

In checking with the President's Scheduling Office, I have learned that President Reagan is unable to comply with this request. However, he appreciates your interest in writing and sends his best wishes to these Cincinnati students.

With cordial regard, I am

Sincerely,

Max L. Friedersdorf

CINCINNATI AS A CLASSROOM

CITY-WIDE SETTING OFFERS BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

The 150 City-Wide students enjoy the benefits of a small program in which people work closely together. It includes the benefits of both a large urban high school [Hughes High School] and the nearby University of Cincinnati.

Students of varying cultures and backgrounds work together in this comfortable environment.

Hands-on experience is an integral part of the City-Wide program.

“At City-Wide, we learn by doing. We’ve learned about animals at the zoo, government at City Hall, art at art museums, and history at historic sites.”

STUDENTS LEARN BY DOING AT CITY-WIDE

Students study government by pushing legislation through the Cincinnati City Council, and journalism by writing newspaper articles for publication. They also learn from on-the-job training through apprenticeships.

ACADEMICS ARE ALSO STRESSED

City-Wide boasts a first-rate academic program that complements its unique approach. Students have been accepted by such colleges as Harvard, Cornell, and the University of California.

A visit with Cincinnati Mayor David Mann yields insight into the workings of city government.

CITY-WIDE PREPARES STUDENTS FOR LIFE

Cincinnati serves as an ideal classroom for students enrolled in the City-Wide Learning Community, one of the Cincinnati Public School District's most exciting alternative programs. Through first-hand experience of real-life situations, students in this program gain a vast store of knowledge they may use for many years to come.

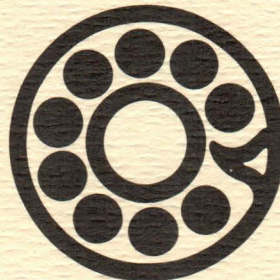

Classes include information on how to make a living, manage a family, and take care of health needs.

Responsibility is the key component of the program, since these students must be motivated to complete their work, display good behavior, and maintain good attendance. In addition, many of these students are also responsible for their own transportation to classes around the city.

Dear Max:

Enclosed is a letter from the Cincinnati City-Wide Learning Community, an inner-city high school, requesting a brief "amplified telephone conversation" with the President. I would appreciate your bringing their letter to the President's attention.

The City-Wide learning program offers an alternate high school curriculum that teaches students through first-hand experiences throughout the Cincinnati community. They have been enormously successful and would be a well-informed and stimulating audience for the President. Included is the school's brochure for your inspection.

I would appreciate your consideration of their invitation and look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Dear Congressman Gradison:

I am the coordinator of a unique, inner-city high school program of the Cincinnati Public Schools. As the enclosed brochure indicates, we constantly use community resources to enrich the educational projects of our students.

Thus far, we have used only local government, business and cultural resources. However, we are currently exploring the technology that would allow for amplified telephone calls to national figures so that properly prepared high school students could conduct a short dialogue with the issue-makers of the day.

On behalf of our Government In Action class, I would like to ask your help in arranging the initial "telephone speaker," President Ronald Reagan. We are respectful of his pressing schedule, but if he could set aside 15 minutes, we could arrange the needed technology in our classroom for a group of our students to have a short question and answer session with him.

We know that getting even 15 minutes of the President's time would be a long shot. However, we have learned through the past eight years of conducting community-based education that adults in this country, from various walks of life, are surprisingly willing to contribute help in educating America's young people. Obviously, for a government class to be able to talk to the president of the United States would be not only educational but also very inspiring.

Knowing from local news coverage that you have access to the President, we are asking you to carry our request to him.

Should this phone call be possible, we are prepared to work our normal class schedule around it. Therefore, the following days and times would be workable: between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and 3:00 P.M. on May 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 26, 27, 28, or 29.

We thank you in advance for your consideration in this matter.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

TO: Senator Charles Percy (R-Illinois)
Chairman, Senate Foreign Relations Committee

DATE: As soon as possible

RECOMMENDED BY: Max Friedersdorf M. 6
Powell Moore

PURPOSE: To urge that Senator Percy and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee expeditiously approve the nomination of Ernest W. LeFever to be Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs.

BACKGROUND: The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today began two days of hearings on the nomination of Ernest W. LeFever to be Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs. Dr. LeFever is founder and President of the Ethics and Public Policy Center of Washington, D.C., an independent research organization. He has been active in civil rights causes in the United States and has been involved in a number of humanitarian activities abroad. He is an ordained clergyman and has written and lectured extensively on the interplay of ethics and public policy. Since he is not a human rights purist willing to subordinate arbitrary standards of human rights to every other foreign policy consideration his nomination has been criticized.

In opening the hearing this morning, Chairman Percy said that he is uncommitted.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION:

1. Tell Chairman Percy that LeFever is your choice for Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs and you hope he is confirmed as expeditiously as possible.

2. Point out that Dr. LeFever's views on human rights are compatible with your own. Point out that his credentials as a humanitarian and human rights advocate are unquestioned. His record in this area extends back to 1942 when he helped in the relocation of the first Japanese-Americans from a California internment center and have been consistent since then.
3. Mention that LeFever is a person of deeds rather than words in the field of human rights, but his commitment to human rights is tempered by the realities of the world in which we live.

DATE OF SUBMISSION:

ACTION

Well I didn't get a confirmation but he said he'd keep in mind my feelings etc. Says he's uncommitted but very concerned about the perception everyone has of the man. He feels that LeFever doesn't believe the files should exist. I really put in a pitch and can only hope it'll move him when he has to decide.

Dear Mr. DeNardis:

Max Friedersdorf has forwarded your letter on behalf of Mr. Robert Norman to our office, as he informed you he would in his letter of July 19.

Please understand that hundreds of local broadcasters have made similar requests, and the demands for the President's time are such that we have not been able to accommodate them.

However, in the months ahead, we hope to implement a communications plan, whereby at least some of these local reporters will get to interview the President. Mr. Norman's request is on file and will get fair consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear Max:

I am enclosing a copy of a letter sent to Deputy Press Secretary Larry Speakes by Bob Norman of WTNH-TV in New Haven.

Mr. Norman certainly has come up with an unusual suggestion, and one that I believe would be exciting for Channel 8's viewing public as well as interesting for the President.

Bob Norman, I might mention, is a long time television personality with WTNH-TV, as well as a personal friend of mine. Both he and his station have been extraordinarily cooperative with me in my efforts to keep my Congressional District fully informed. Channel 8 is the major television station serving my District, and the only one that serves the entire District.

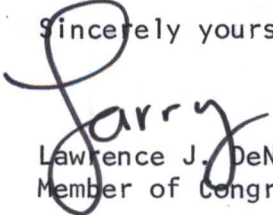

Mr. Norman has done an exceptional job with the early morning news shows he initiated, and certainly the few minute telephone interviews he seeks with the President would be a major accomplishment for him and for his station.

Anything you can do to expedite his request would certainly be appreciated.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

DEAR MR. SPEAKES,

I AM THE PRODUCER/CO-ANCHOR OF A MORNING NEWS PROGRAM ON WTNH-TV IN NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT AND I HAVE A FAR OUT IDEA I'D LIKE TO THROW OUT. WHAT ARE THE CHANCES OF INTERVIEWING THE PRESIDENT SOME MORNING ON THE TELEPHONE IN WHAT WOULD BE A "PERSONAL" AND NOT A "POLITICAL" INTERVIEW. I REALIZE THE NETWORKS HAVE TO FIGHT TO GO ONE ON ONE WITH MR. REAGAN BUT I THINK IT WOULD BE A NEAT THING FOR HIM TO DO; JUST SPEND A MINUTE OR SO ON THE PHONE TALKING ABOUT HIS UPCOMING DAY AND WHAT HE WILL OR HAS HAD FOR BREAKFAST, ETC. I REALIZE IF SUCH AN INTERVIEW COULD BE WORKED OUT, IT WOULD OPEN THE FLOODGATES FROM OTHER STATIONS BUT THIS WOULD BE A ONE TIME THING. IT'S SOMETHING NO OTHER PRESIDENT HAS EVER DONE; JUST LIKE LOWERING TAXES AND CUTTING SPENDING AND WOULD CERTAINLY FIT INTO MR. REAGAN'S IMAGE OF BEING DIFFERENT AND LIKE A BREATH OF FRESH AIR.

I HAD THE HONOR OF MEETING MR. REAGAN WHEN HE CAMPAIGNED IN CONNECTICUT AND AT THAT TIME WISHED HIM SUCCESS IN THE ELECTION BECAUSE I FELT HE WAS THE PERSON THE COUNTRY NEEDED. I OBVIOUSLY FEEL THE SAME WAY.

REGARDS,

TALKING POINTS:

1. As you are aware, our bi-partisan tax compromise has been set forth, the details of which are now being worked out between Don Regan and a number of the Washington Reps of the business community.
2. Your support on Gramm-Latta made the difference and that support is even more crucial to the success of the Conable-Hance bill, which I wholeheartedly endorse.
3. The importance of this tax struggle transcends the bill itself, since it is only one element of our greater overall economic recovery program. The success of each element is crucial -- spending cuts, tax rate cuts, regulatory relief and stable monetary growth.
4. If you have some differences with our tax proposals, I request you give careful consideration before making your decision to support the opposition bill. Remember this tax proposal is only one element of a wide range of common interests shared by both the community and administration. The Conable-Hance bill will provide the business community with its largest tax cut in American history.
5. Our proposal does satisfy the administration's central concern -- fostering the creation of an environment which encourages business investment and expansion.

TALKING POINTS:

1. As you are aware, our bi-partisan tax compromise has been set forth, the details of which are now being worked out between Don Regan and a number of the Washington Reps of the business community.
2. Your support on Gramm-Latta made the difference and that support is even more crucial to the success of the Conable-Hance bill, which I wholeheartedly endorse.
3. The importance of this tax struggle transcends the bill itself, since it is only one element of our greater overall economic recovery program. The success of each element is crucial -- spending cuts, tax rate cuts, regulatory relief and stable monetary growth.
4. If you have some differences with our tax proposals, I request you give careful consideration before making your decision to support the opposition bill. Remember this tax proposal is only one element of a wide range of common interests shared by both the community and administration. The Conable-Hance bill will provide the business community with its largest tax cut in American history.
5. Our proposal does satisfy the administration's central concern -- fostering the creation of an environment which encourages business investment and expansion.
6. I hope I can count on your support and cooperation in working with members of my administration in support of Conable-Hance.
