GENERAL REFERENCE
GENERAL INCOMING

July 25, 1985

Dear Mr. Brown:

Thank you for your letter requesting an appointment with the President.

We appreciate knowing of your interest in meeting with him. Unfortunately, I regret to write that, due to the heavy commitments on his official calendar, we are unable to arrange for a meeting with you, Mr. Dick Clark and Mr. Kasey Kasem. However, please know that the President appreciates your taking the time to write and your willingness to share your thoughts.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

FREDERICK J. RYAN, JR.

Dear Mr. President and Cabinet Members:

As you know I started impact on World Hunger at the Lone Star Cafe in New York city, owned by Mr. Buddy Fox telephone number (212) 242-1664.

We can combat the job problem which is starting very sudden and getting from bad to worse. We can knock out the problem simply by having giant concerts around the United States and all major cities plus the A,B, and C cities and if you will have myself to come and have a audience with you along with Mr. Dick Clark and Mr. Kasey Kasem, we can use the FCC to program the records that we need.

We can use all the classic acts from the last thirty years. They are out of work and I know how urgent this is.

Thanks for getting well, we need you NOW, NOW, NOW.

Give my regards to Mrs. Reagan and Family. We love you,

Yours truly,

Mr. James Brown
