THE STATUE OF LIBERTY-ELLIS ISLAND
CENTENNIAL COMMISSION

November 24, 1982

The Honorable David R. Gergen
Assistant to the President for Communications
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Dave:

Attached is a suggested letter for which we would be most grateful to have the President sign.

We are submitting a proposal to the Ad Council to support the endeavors of the Statue of Liberty - Ellis Island Centennial Commission and feel that a letter of endorsement from the President could greatly enhance our opportunities for the Ad Council to select this project as one of its campaigns.

It is extremely important that, if approved, this letter be sent to Mr. Iacocca at our New York office by the end of November, since we must submit our application to the Ad Council by the first week in December.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Liz

SUGGESTED LETTER FOR PRESIDENT REAGAN'S SIGNATURE

Mr. Robert Keim
President
The Advertising Council
825 Third Avenue
New York, New York 10022

Dear Mr. Keim:

On May 18, 1982, I announced at the White House the formation of the Statue of Liberty - Ellis Island Centennial Commission. This announcement launched a 10-year program to restore and preserve the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island -- a national program at least as significant as our Nation's Bicentennial.

Our national mission is to restore these quintessential symbols of our country's freedom and opportunities and re-establish them for future generations.

There is no government funding for this immense task. Support must come exclusively from the nation's private sector and from all individual Americans, to whom the symbolism of liberty has both national and personal significance.

Lee Iacocca is Chairman of the Commission and has advised me of the urgent need for the support of the Advertising Council to help insure the success of this tremendous project.

I totally endorse this effort and intend to remain personally involved in the program which will afford all Americans an opportunity to share in the Centennial Celebrations of our two hallmarks of liberty.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

Mr. Michael Castine
Office of Private Sector Initiatives
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Michael:

Per our conversation today, I am enclosing a fact sheet and brochure in addition to copies of The President's and Mr. Iacocca's remarks delivered on May 18 when the Commission was announced at the White House.

I think this effort is a wonderful opportunity -- not only to restore and preserve the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island -- but to highlight The President's program on Private Initiatives. Any assistance you can provide us will be greatly appreciated; in turn, let us know if we can be of help to you.

It was good talking to you, and I am hopeful you will keep Jay Moorehead apprised of the Commission's endeavors regarding these two symbols of American greatness.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Elizabeth M. O'Neill
Director of Special Events

P.S. Any push you can give to our request for a letter from The President to the Ad Council will be most helpful.

"Dedicated to the Restoration and Preservation of the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island"

101 PARK AVENUE, NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10178 (212) 883-1986

Two of the most stirring American symbols — the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island — are about to reach their centennials.

In 1984, it will be one hundred years since the Statue of Liberty was given to the people of the United States by the people of France; in 1986, it will be one hundred years since "The Lady" took her place in New York harbor as a beacon of hope and freedom.

100

And, in 1992, it will be one hundred years since the opening of Ellis Island—entry point for over 17 million immigrants. Today, almost one-half of all Americans can trace their ancestry to family members whose first steps in America were on Ellis Island.

But before the celebrations begin...

The Statue is in serious need of repair. And to save Ellis Island from decay will require major restoration and rehabilitation.

To see that this is accomplished—in time for the centennial celebrations—is one of the goals of the Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Centennial Commission. To achieve this, we must start now.

Your time, contributions and talents are vital. Join us. Help ensure that these two great symbols of our past will continue to serve as living memorials—as inspirations for the future.

*T*he Commission is working with the Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, to raise funds to accomplish the Commission's three primary purposes:

- To restore and preserve the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island
- To establish a lasting memorial to the millions of immigrants who built the United States of America
- To plan and implement the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island centennial celebrations

REMARKS OF THE PRESIDENT
AT CEREMONY FOR
STATUE OF LIBERTY-ELLIS ISLAND COMMISSION

The Rose Garden

1:35 P.M. EDT

THE PRESIDENT: I'm very proud to accept that on behalf of the people of the United States, my landlords. (Laughter).

Good afternoon. And today we're launching, as you well know, a commission whose task will be the rehabilitation of one of our most cherished symbols of liberty.

Much has been said over the years about the diversity of the American people and the vitality and resilience of the American character.

Well, that character isn't centered around any one religious denomination for in our country there are many religions. Everyone has a right to worship God as he or she chooses. It isn't based on any one ethnic group or race for our people come in all shades and shapes and we remain dedicated to the proposition that all of them are created equal. And I've found out in my present capacity now that -- I love to tell jokes now and then but I -- almost restricted to Irish jokes. (Laughter). I can't stray for fear of some misunderstanding. (Laughter).

But our national character is based on a common identity with a single ideal, a shared value that overcomes our differences and unites us as a people. What has made us a nation is our love of liberty and our realization that we're part of a great historic venture, an experiment in freedom to test the ability of people to live together in freedom, respecting the rights of others and expecting that their rights, in turn, will be respected.

I've said on a number of occasions that I can't help but believe, you can call it mysticism if you will, that God must have placed this land here between the oceans to be found by a certain kind of people and a kind only in one thing, that whatever corner of the world they came from they had the courage and the desire for freedom that went with it to uproot themselves and come to this strange land beginning back when it was the most underdeveloped land in the world and come here leaving family and come to a strange language and everything that went with that kind of a move.

I think our vision of liberty is reinforced by shared symbols and experiences. Perhaps the strongest image of them all is the one that for millions of Americans was their first glimpse of America that Statue of Liberty.

At the turn of the century, America was blessed with an influx of new immigrants who became citizens and played a significant role in building our country and protecting our freedom. Most of them entered under the shadow of the Statue and were processed into the United States, as we know, through Ellis Island. Between 1892 and its closing in 1954, Ellis Island was the clearing house for millions of immigrants. Many who passed through the gates at Ellis Island had little more than what they carried with them. Yet they possessed a determination that with hard work and freedom, they would live a better life and their children even more so.

They were captured by the American dream and both they and their new country were the better for their efforts and their faith because they not only came here for something but just as they came from every corner of the world, they brought something from every corner of the world to this great melting pot. And maybe in so doing, they proved how artificial are the prejudices and the hatreds that exist in the world because we proved that we could all mix and, I don't know, to this day, one of the first questions you usually ask when you make friends with someone is, what is their ancestry, what country and it use to be that they'd say Irish or German or French or whatever and now they have to say three or four names because they've mixed. In fact, I've got three in mine -- Irish, English, and Scotch but -- and our children can add a fourth and have another country now. But today we declare that no longer functioning as it is, the Ellis Island as a processing center, its contribution is not over. It remains a unifying memory for millions of our citizens.

Our goal is to restore Ellis Island in time for the celebration of the centennial of the Statue of Liberty beginning on July 4th, 1984. I might add one note. The Statue of Liberty was built with funds contributed by people from all over France. Its base was constructed in part with contributions from American school children. And restoring Ellis Island, another monument to our freedom, is worthy of the same kind of heartfelt, voluntary effort. Both the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island can help us all remember how grateful we should be to live in this land of freedom and good will.

You know, I know that there's one here, or have you already told them? Lee's parents came to this country in search of that kind of opportunity and through Ellis Island. And he certainly has proven what America has to offer for those immigrants or for the sons and the daughters of them.

So, now I just thank you all for being here with us today to help launch this campaign. And God bless you all.

SECRETARY WATT: Thank you very much, Mr. President.
(Applause.)

When I introduced the other members of the commission, I failed to have them stand up. Would you stand up and -- I'm not sure where you are, the other members of the commission that have been appointed and if, Mr. President, I'd like -- if these men that have agreed to serve on the President's commission would come forward, I'd like to introduce the President to you and we'll catch him before he gets out, if I could ask you men to come over here. And Lee, if you'll join us.

(The Secretary introduces the commission members.)

THE PRESIDENT: I think we're all grateful to these gentlemen who that are going to take on this task and I know that we'll get it done. And they told me now that I have to leave and go back to work. (Laughter. Applause.)

L.A. IACOCCA
WHITE HOUSE CEREMONY
WASHINGTON, D.C.
MAY 18, 1982

THANK YOU, MR. SECRETARY.

SECRETARY WATT, DISTINGUISHED GUESTS. IT'S AN HONOR TO BE HERE, AND IT'S AN HONOR TO ACCEPT THIS APPOINTMENT AS CHAIRMAN OF THE STATUE OF LIBERTY - ELLIS ISLAND CENTENNIAL COMMISSION.

IN SPITE OF SOME VOICES IN THE LAND THAT WOULD HAVE US BELIEVE OTHERWISE, WE AMERICANS HAVE A GREAT HERITAGE OF PRIDE OF WORKMANSHIP, OF THE DIGNITY OF LABOR, AND OF THE VALUE OF HARD WORK.

WE STILL BELIEVE THAT INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE IS A MEANS OF PROVIDING EXPANDED OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALL PEOPLE.

THE RESTORATION OF THE STATUE OF LIBERTY
AND ELLIS ISLAND WILL SERVE AS A REAFFIRMATION OF THAT HERITAGE.

IT IS A HERITAGE THAT EXTENDS BACK THROUGH THE ENTRY GATES OF ELLIS ISLAND -- BACK ACROSS THE ATLANTIC TO ENGLAND AND IRELAND, TO FRANCE AND GERMANY, TO SPAIN AND ITALY, TO ALL OF THE COUNTRIES OF EUROPE AND BEYOND.

MANY OF US HAVE PARENTS OR GRANDPARENTS
WHO WERE AMONG THE 17 MILLION PEOPLE WHO CAME THROUGH ELLIS ISLAND ON THEIR WAY TO A NEW LIFE IN A NEW LAND.
IF THEY WERE LIKE MY PARENTS, THEY CAME TO THIS COUNTRY
WITH VERY LITTLE IN THE WAY OF MONEY OR POSSESSIONS.

BUT THOSE IMMIGRANTS BROUGHT WITH THEM
SOMETHING OF FAR GREATER IMPORTANCE. THEY CAME WITH A DREAM -- THEY WANTED TO WORK -- AND THEY TOOK PRIDE
IN THAT WORK! THEIR GOALS WERE REALLY VERY SIMPLE.
THEY WANTED ONLY TO PROVIDE AN OPPORTUNITY FOR THEIR FAMILIES AND THEIR CHILDREN TO IMPROVE THEMSELVES, AND IN DOING SO, THEY ESTABLISHED A FREEDOM OF SPIRIT THAT PREVAILS IN NO OTHER COUNTRY IN THE WORLD.

TOMORROW MORNING.

- 3A -

THEY ALSO CAME WITH DEEP TRADITIONS -- AND THEY LENT THOSE TRADITIONS TO THEIR NEW COUNTRY.

AND THEY CAME WITH SKILLS -- OLD-WORLD SKILLS
THAT THE NEW WORLD NEEDED.

THEY WERE AMBITIOUS IN A TIME WHEN AMBITION
WAS NOT A DIRTY WORD.

THEY WERE HARDWORKING IN A TIME WHEN HARD WORK WAS NOT SOMETHING TO BE AVOIDED.

THEY WERE BUILDERS.

AND THEY CAME TO BUILD ... BRIDGES, RAILROADS, SKYSCRAPERS, TUNNELS, MINES, FARMS AND FACTORIES.

THEY BUILT A COUNTRY.

AND THEY NURTURED IN THEIR CHILDREN A SENSE OF PRIDE AND DIGNITY. AND THEN THEY TURNED TO PROVIDING HELP TO OTHERS LESS FORTUNATE THAN THEY.

I THINK TODAY OUR PRESIDENT CALLS THAT THE SPIRIT OF VOLUNTARISM AND IT'S A SPIRIT THAT NEEDS TO BE ENCOURAGED.

OVER HALF OF THE CITIZENS OF THIS COUNTRY
CAN TRACE THEIR ROOTS DIRECTLY TO THOSE WHO FIRST SET FOOT IN AMERICA ON ELLIS ISLAND.

EACH AND EVERY IMMIGRANT WHO PASSED THROUGH ELLIS ISLAND, INCLUDING MY PARENTS, FIRST PASSED THE STATUE OF LIBERTY.

THE FIRST TIME MY FATHER SAW THIS SYMBOL
OF AMERICAN LIBERTY WAS IN 1902 AT AGE 12 WHEN HE CAME TO THIS COUNTRY AS AN IMMIGRANT. HE WENT TO WORK. HE EDUCATED HIMSELF AND HIS KIDS. HE SERVED
HIS NEW COUNTRY IN WORLD WAR I. AND HE BUILT A NEW LIFE HERE.

THE SECOND TIME HE PASSED THE STATUE WAS
AS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN, BRINGING WITH HIM HIS NEW BRIDE -- MY MOTHER -- WHO, THOUGH WRACKED BY TYPHOID FEVER THE ENTIRE THREE WEEKS OF HER STEERAGE CROSSING,
JUST HAD TO COME UP ON DECK TO SEE THE TORCH OF WELCOME
AS THEY ENTERED NEW YORK HARBOR. SHE KNOWS AT FIRST HAND ABOUT THE TIRED, THE POOR, AND THE HUDDLED MASSES.

AND SO DO MILLIONS OF OTHERS.

SINCE WORD OF THIS COMMISSION HAS SPREAD
ACROSS THE COUNTRY OVER THE PAST FEW WEEKS. I'VE BEEN AMAZED AT THE NUMBER OF LETTERS I'VE RECEIVED TELLING STORIES LIKE MINE. THESE SECOND, THIRD, AND EVEN FOURTH GENERATION AMERICANS ALL WANT TO HELP.

THEY SIMPLY WANT TO HONOR THE MEMORIES AND THE GREAT TRADITIONS ESTABLISHED BY THEIR PARENTS AND GRANDPARENTS.

SO, ALMOST A CENTURY LATER, WE BEGIN A DRAMATIC
NEW UNDERTAKING, WITH THE HOPE THAT IN 1986, THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE STATUE, AND IN 1992, ON THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE OPENING OF ELLIS ISLAND, WE CAN COMPLETE THE RESTORATION OF THESE SYMBOLS OF AMERICAN GREATNESS.

THIS PROJECT GIVES US THE CHANCE TO REDEDICATE
OURSELVES TO THE VALUES OF THOSE WHO CAME BEFORE US -- TO INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE, HARD WORK, AND PRIDE IN THAT WORK, WHICH ARE STILL THE BASIC STRENGTHS OF AMERICA.

OUR JOB NOW IS TO BRING NEW LIFE TO THESE
SYMBOLS OF AMERICA'S HERITAGE. IT IS ALSO OUR JOB
TO BRING NEW LIFE TO THE PRINCIPLES THAT SUSTAINED
OUR PARENTS AND GRANDPARENTS, AND GUIDED THIS COUNTRY TO GREATNESS.

THANK YOU.

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing in regard to a letter you received recently from one of my constituents, Eric James Allison. As Public Education Officer of the Wichita-Sedgwick County Emergency Medical Services, Lt. Allison was requesting your participation in a public service announcement to encourage people to become skilled in cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Mr. President, I am well aware of you time constraints. I wanted, however, to let you know of the good work that the Wichita-Sedgwick County Emergency Medical Service does. It is, indeed, a worthwhile organization and whatever you could do in helping them inform the public of the value of CPR would be greatly appreciated, not to mention the lives that might be saved.

With best regards,

Dan Glickman

Dear Mr. Hauptfuhrer:

On behalf of Mrs. Reagan, I am pleased to inform you that she is very honored to accept the kind invitation of Prince Rainier to serve as an Honorary Trustee of the Princess Grace Foundation.

Please know that her sympathies are with Prince Rainier and his family and that she will endeavor to do whatever possible to support this foundation established to commemorate the wonderful works of Princess Grace.

I should think that it would be appropriate for Prince Rainier to communicate with Mrs. Reagan about this matter at any time.

If I can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

MEMORANDUM FOR: JAMES S. ROSEBUSH
DEPUTY ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING Orig. signed by FFF
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Princess Grace Foundation

We have discussed the details of the Princess Grace Foundation with the Foundation's attorney, George Hauptfuhrer, and, based on his assertions, which are detailed below, we have no legal objections to Mrs. Reagan's acceptance of a position as an Honorary Trustee of the Princess Grace Foundation.

The Princess Grace Foundation will not be officially established until the first board meeting of its trustees on February 22, 1983. At this time the Foundation will be created as a tax exempt charitable organization, preferably one which will be recognized by the IRS as qualified under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3). Public announcements of the formation of the Foundation and its Honorary Trustees are anticipated to occur immediately after that initial meeting of the Foundation's trustees.

Mrs. Reagan's duties as an Honorary Trustee will not include personal involvement in any fundraising on behalf of the Foundation. In fact, the only personal involvement anticipated to be requested of Mrs. Reagan at this time would be for her to attend a concert sponsored by the Foundation at the Kennedy Center later this year.

The invitation to Mrs. Reagan to serve as an Honorary Trustee of the Foundation is personal and will not expire with the President's term of office; she may serve as long as she wishes.

At the appropriate time, Prince Rainier would like to write Mrs. Reagan personally to thank her for her acceptance of this position. Please coordinate the timing of such correspondence with Mr. Hauptfuhrer. Additionally, we recommend that in your correspondence to Hauptfuhrer you request a copy of the IRS approval letter once it is issued to the Foundation. We will retain this paper for our files. Of course, we will be happy to communicate to Hauptfuhrer on your behalf if you so desire.

ADMINISTRATIVELY SENSITIVE - not to be released

FOR: FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: SHERRIE M. COOKSEY smc

SUBJECT: Princess Grace Foundation

I have discussed our questions regarding the tax status of the Princess Grace Foundation and the duties of Mrs. Reagan as an Honorary Trustee with the attorney for the Foundation, George Hauptfuhrer.

Hauptfuhrer states that the Foundation has been organized as a § 501(c)(3) entity but that such organization will not be finalized until the first meeting of the Foundation's trustees. It is possible that a decision on the programs of the Foundation will result in its being a tax exempt charitable organization but not necessarily a § 501(c)(3) organization.

The first meeting of the trustees is set for February 22, 1983. The public announcement of the formation of the Foundation is expected to occur immediately following that meeting. A six month start-up period for any Foundation activities is expected.

Hauptfuhrer agrees "absolutely" that no personal involvement in fundraising of the Foundation will be expected of Mrs. Reagan; Prince Rainier and his family would not want that. The only personal involvement which he foresees being requested of Mrs. Reagan could be for her to attend a concert sponsored by the Foundation at the Kennedy Center; of course if she could not attend that would be understood.

As to the nature of Mrs. Reagan's position as an Honorary Trustee, Hauptfuhrer advised that this is a personal invitation which will not expire with the President's term of office; she may serve as long as wishes. In fact, Prince Rainier would like, at the appropriate time, to write Mrs. Reagan and thank her personally for her acceptance of this position.

Although I am somewhat concerned about the uncertainty of the tax status of the Foundation, I feel confident that it will be organized as a non-profit charitable organization. Nevertheless, I think it advisable to request that Rosebush, in his correspondence to Hauptfuhrer, request a copy of the Foundation's request to the IRS for qualification as a § 501(c)(3) organization and a copy of the IRS approval letter, once it is issued to the Foundation.

Attached for your review and approval is a memorandum to Rosebush advising that we have discussed the details of the Princess Grace Foundation with the Foundation's attorney, George Hauptfuhrer, and have no legal objections to Mrs. Reagan's acceptance of a position as Honorary Trustee of the Foundation. The memorandum sets forth our understanding of Mrs. Reagan's duties and responsibilities as a Trustee and the tax status of the Foundation. It further states that at the appropriate time Prince Rainier would like to write to Mrs. Reagan personally to thank her for agreeing to serve as an Honorary Trustee and Hauptfuhrer has requested that he be informed as to the appropriate timing of such a letter so that he may advise the Prince. As discussed above, Rosebush is requested to obtain verification of the Foundation's tax status as it is presented to and verified by the IRS.

MEMORANDUM FOR: JAMES ROSEBUSH
DEPUTY ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Princess Grace Foundation

We have reviewed the proposal for Mrs. Reagan to be an Honorary Trustee of the Princess Grace Foundation and, subject to the verification of the Foundation's status as a tax exempt charitable organization and agreement on the details of Mrs. Reagan's duties as an Honorary Trustee of the Foundation, we have no legal objections to Mrs. Reagan's participation in this project.

Specifically, we would seek verification from the Foundation's attorney of its tax exempt status and agreement from him that Mrs. Reagan's duties as an Honorary Trustee would not require her to participate personally, beyond the use of her name as an Honorary Trustee, in any of the Foundation's fundraising efforts.

As to the "appearance" aspects of Mrs. Reagan's participation, we note that she may wish to distinguish her position and support of the Princess Grace Foundation from her efforts on behalf of the President's Council on the Arts and Humanities, an organization which, ostensibly, may serve the same purposes as the Princess Grace Foundation.

Please advise as to whether Mrs. Reagan wishes to be an Honorary Trustee of the Princess Grace Foundation. Following that we will be happy to pursue these issues with the Foundation's attorney and give our final approval of her participation in this project.

Re: Princess Grace Foundation

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

We were introduced by Governor Thornburgh at the private reception following Princess Grace's funeral services. I mentioned then very briefly the ideas which were being put forth with regard to a foundation in her name to carry on her charitable works for the creative arts. You indicated that you would consider helping with this endeavor if it appeared appropriate in the light of your office, the many limitations on your time, and the manner in which the foundation developed.

The foundation is now in existence and duly qualified as a charitable tax-exempt organization. The founding trustees have been selected and will soon be meeting to define more precisely the foundation's mission and to establish its program. The twelve founding trustees were selected by Princess Grace's immediate family after careful reflection on persons of national stature who were friends of hers. You will undoubtedly recognize many of the names -

William P. Rogers (NYC) - Senior partner of law firm of Rogers & Wells and former U. S. Secretary of State

Dennis Stanfill (L.A.) - Former Chairman of the Board of Twentieth Century-Fox Corporation

Mrs. Ronald Reagan
Page 2
December 8, 1982

Vera Maxwell (NYC) - Internationally-known fashion designer

Cary Grant (L.A.) - actor

John F. Lehman, Jr. (DC) - Secretary of the Navy

John H. Johnson (Chicago) - President and Publisher of Johnson Publishing Company (Ebony Magazine)

Mary Wells Lawrence (NYC) - Chairman of the Board of Wells, Rich, Greene, Inc., national advertising agency

Roger S. Hillas (Phila.) - Chairman of the Board of Provident National Bank in Philadelphia

Lynn Sakowitz Wyatt (Mrs. Oscar Wyatt) (Houston) - involved in various charitable activities

F. Warren Hellman (San Francisco) - Lehman Brothers

William F. Thompson (Boston) - Executive Vice President of The First National Bank of Boston

George J. Hauptfuhrer, Jr. (Phila.) - Senior Partner of Dechert Price & Rhoads and former personal counsel to Princess Grace

Prince Rainier and Governor Thornburgh will serve as honorary trustees, and it is hoped very much that you too will serve as an honorary trustee. The time demands on the honorary trustees will be very minimal.

It is difficult at this time to describe the foundation's probable activities other than that they will be supportive of the creative arts (especially those in which Princess Grace was interested), they will endeavor to project a cultural bridge between the United States and Europe (as Princess Grace herself provided), and they will be done with the utmost dignity (consistent with the way in which Princess Grace conducted her own charitable efforts).

When the founding trustees meet with Prince Rainier and Prince Albert in late January or early February for the first trustees'

Mrs. Ronald Reagan
December 8, 1982

meeting, various suggestions will be under consideration. To illustrate, Rostropovich has offered to hold a memorial concert for Princess Grace and another foundation has expressed an interest in underwriting the costs thereof. Such a concert at the Kennedy Center - especially if you and the President could be present - would appear to be an appropriate vehicle for the foundation's first public exposure. Other somewhat similar events are also on the agenda for consideration. The foundation would probably not have more than one or two events a year, and they would probably be in different parts of the country.

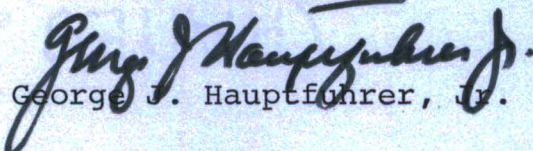

The awarding of the funds collected will also be decided by the trustees, but my guess at this time is that grants may be given to well-known charitable organizations to provide for international exchange students in the creative arts, or later perhaps, to help support a tour of the United States by the Ballet de Monte Carlo (which is now on the planning boards in Monaco in Princess Grace's name). Your suggestions as to program and use of the funds will be most welcome.

The names of the trustees have not yet been announced publicly. If your name as an honorary trustee could be included in the initial announcement, it would not only aid the work of the foundation but would indeed be a very significant tribute to Princess Grace. It would also mean a great deal to everyone who loved her, not the least of whom are her own family.

I am in Washington with some regularity. If it would be an aid to you for us to meet to discuss the foundation in greater depth, I would be pleased to do so. Of course, I will be happy to supply you with whatever additional information you might like to have. Because the foundation is still in its formative stage, however, I cannot be much more expansive than this.

In view of the fact that the first trustees' meeting will probably be in January or February, it would be most helpful if I could have an early response from you. I apologize for not writing to you earlier, but I wanted matters to be as definite as possible before writing. As I have been meeting personally with most of the trustees, it has taken some time.

Respectfully yours,

George J. Hauptfuhner, Jr.

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

I would like to extend to you my sincere appreciation for serving as Honorary Patron of the February 14, 1982, Veterans Administration National Salute to Hospitalized Veterans. Your presence and participation meant so very much to the successful celebrations held in Veterans Administration medical facilities throughout the country. The physical and emotional burdens borne by our Nation's hospitalized veterans were eased considerably by your graciousness during this occasion.

With due respect for your very busy calendar, I would be most privileged if you would again consider serving as Honorary Patron for the February 1983 program. Your acceptance would involve the use of your name on National Salute materials and, if your schedule permitted, a visit to a Veterans Administration medical facility on or around February 14, 1983.

Your support in the past has been most gratifying and your consideration of this present effort is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dear Marjorie:

Please extend my congratulations to participants in the Safe Rides for Teens program as they inaugurate this new program.

The efforts of these young people to safeguard the lives of their friends reflect the best in the American character, and both Nancy and I applaud them. We will be anxious to hear how they do.

As I noted in proclaiming National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week, more than 25,000 of our citizens, a large number of them young people, are killed each year as a result of alcohol or drug-related highway accidents. Seventy times a day, every 23 minutes, a life is taken somewhere on our streets and highways because driving skills and judgement were impaired by alcohol or drugs.

The promise of Safe Rides for Teens is that it will help us reduce these grim statistics and the heart-break they mean for people across this great land. Nancy and I wish these good neighbors Godspeed in this important project.

With warm personal regard,

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN A

Dear Marjorie:

Please extend my congratulations to participants in the Safe Rides for Teens program as they inaugurate this new program.

The efforts of these young people to safeguard the lives of their friends reflect the best in the American character, and both Nancy and I applaud them. We will be anxious to hear how they do.

As I noted in proclaiming National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week, more than 25,000 of our citizens, a large number of them young people, are killed each year as a result of alcohol or drug-related highway accidents. Seventy times a day, every 23 minutes, a life is taken somewhere on our streets and highways because driving skills and judgement were impaired by alcohol or drugs.

The promise of Safe Rides for Teens is that it will help us reduce these grim statistics and the heart-break they mean for people across this great land. Nancy and I wish these good neighbors Godspeed in this important project.

With warm personal regard,

Sincerely,

The Honorable
The President of the United States

Dear Mr. President:

This Friday, December 17, there will be an opening held in my district, marking the beginning of the Safe Rides For Teens program. As the enclosed material describes, this program will provide safe rides by teenagers for teenagers who feel that they are unable to drive. It is a program involving young people in taking care of their peers.

I believe that this program is an excellent example of the type of program that you feel is necessary to reduce the carnage of Americans, mostly young, that occurs in accidents involving drunk driving.

I would appreciate it if you would send a message in support of this program, which will be delivered to the Director and the volunteers at the Opening, this Friday.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

FUTURE

Beyond the basic concept of a safe ride home, the organization will be looking for ways to become involved in the overall alcohol and drug education programs in the schools. This could include presentations by SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS members to local organizations and underclassmen. The preparation of printed materials on this subject and the sponsoring of a drunk driving test program in conjunction with the appropriate State Agency will also be anticipated.

SUMMARY

The success of SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS will depend upon both the commitment of its members and the attitude toward it by the students. Although there will be adult involvement, the program's basic premise is that responsible young people can have a positive and meaningful impact on the problems of alcohol and drug abuse, particularly as it relates to the inevitable risks of driving while under their influence.

provide a safe ride home for friends who need it.

BACKGROUND/PURPOSE

Anne Arundel County has had its share of alcohol-related fatal automobile accidents involving young people over the last several years. Up until now, the high school students responded to the tragedies by driving more carefully—for awhile. However, continued anxiety about needless death has prompted the students to establish a program aimed at eliminating driving while intoxicated (DWI).

SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS is a program designed to provide a free and confidential safe ride home to any student who is not in a condition to drive safely, or to any student who wants to avoid being a passenger in such a situation. SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS is also a program which holds the potential for changing young people's attitudes about drinking while driving; the students' concern for each other's safety should lead to greater appreciation of both the risks and responsibilities associated with driving while impaired.

THE SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS PROGRAM

Every Friday and Saturday night from 10:00 p.m. - 3:00 a.m., students and adult volunteers will gather in the SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS headquarters as the team responsible for giving local young people a safe ride home if it is needed. One student is the dispatcher, handling all incoming telephone calls as well as maintaining contact via CB with each of the SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS cars out on call. The other students are paired into coed driving teams. Each driver uses his or her family car, and is accompanied by a rider who is responsible for CB contact with the base, and the maintenance of minimal information on departure times, pickup times, addresses, and passenger names, which is required for insurance purposes. (SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS team members have agreed to keep confidential all details of their service activities.) The adult volunteers are on duty for the students to consult if they need help. If any further assistance is desired, the crew may contact the SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS' advisor or the Police Department.

We will attempt to have this service publicized via PA announcements in the high school, posters, buttons, and bumper stickers which will advertise SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS' operating times and phone number.

MEMBERSHIP

SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS is primarily a student organized and operated program—created and developed by responsible students who care about the health and safety of their peers. The program is open to any student in grades 10-12 who is willing to take the training course, attend monthly meetings, serve periodically on Friday or Saturday nights, and evidence a commitment to help prevent tragedies associated with alcohol and drug abuse. In addition to the adult on-duty volunteers, adults on the Advisory Committee help in basic organization, soliciting funds, and setting up training. Each SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS member joins SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS EXPLORER POST, which is associated with the Boy Scouts of America.

SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS TRAINING

Each student member of SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS must complete a 12 hour training program set up by the SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS Advisory Committee in conjunction with the Police Department and the Explorer Post. This training program includes:

- examining motivation for joining SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS, (e.g., commitment to help peers avoid accidents and attitudes toward drunkenness and drunk driving;
- development of communication skills, particularly those designed to facilitate ability to help, without being judgemental;
- program procedures (including use of telephone, CB radios, log books, etc.);
- special situation preparation, designed to encourage clear thinking in unexpected situations;
- interfacing with other local services, e.g., Police Department and Explorer Post; discussion of insurance questions; referral procedures for problems beyond the scope of SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS.

Adult members have a shorter training program, dealing with the same subjects.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Initial funding will be provided by local service organizations and interested individuals. Fund raising will be an activity of the student members. Expenses include telephone, gasoline reimbursement, mailing costs, and the purchase of CB equipment.

INSURANCE

In addition to each car owner's private insurance, group liability insurance is available to SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS and its members through its designation as an Explorer Post of the Boy Scouts of America.

SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS is a student program designed to provide a free and confidential safe ride home to any student who is not in a condition to drive safely, or to any student who wants to avoid being a passenger in such a situation. SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS is also a program which holds the potential for changing young people's attitudes about driving while drinking; the student's concern for each other's safety should lead to greater appreciation of both risks and responsibilities associated with driving while impaired.

SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS is patterned after a similar program in Darien, Connecticut, currently in operation since April 1982. We anticipate beginning our operation by the Christmas break of this year. Our program will work in the following manner:

- Every Friday and Saturday night between 10:00 p.m. - 3:00 a.m., five trained student volunteers and one adult volunteer will take duty at our SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS Center.
- One student is the dispatcher, handling all incoming telephone calls as well as maintaining contact via CB with each of the SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS cars out on call. The other students will be paired into co-ed driving teams. Each driver will use his or her family car, and is accompanied by a rider who is responsible for keeping CB contact with the Center.

- Each student member, as well as adult members, must complete a 12 hour training program set up by the SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS Advisory Board.
- SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS is an Explorer Post of the Boy Scouts of America.

In addition to each car owner's private insurance, group liability insurance is available to SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS and its members through its designation as an Explorer Post.

The success of SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS will depend upon both the commitment of its members and the attitude toward it by the other students. SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS Center is located in the Holy Family Church Parish Center, Davidsonville, Maryland. We are a non-profit organization and will be financed solely as such. We welcome any financial support whatsoever. Our mailing address is: SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS, P. O. Box 151, Davidsonville, MD 21035.

At this time I would like to bring everyone here tonight up to date as to how far our program "SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS" has progressed under the leadership and advice of Mr. Rick Carberry and the Adult Advisory Board.

* Out of their concern for young people and interest in our program, Holy Family Catholic Church in Davidsonville, Maryland, has donated the use of their phones and a room in the Parish Hall to be used as our "CENTER" on Friday and Saturday nights.

* On Wednesday, November 3rd, we held our first meeting at this "CENTER". Present at this meeting were seven members of the Adult Advisory Board and 26 volunteer students. These 26 students are now known as our Founding Members. A great deal of discussion took place and the response and eagerness shown by everyone present was overwhelming. At the close of that meeting, nominations were made for officers. At our next meeting we are going to set up our by-laws and set up our training schedule.

* Mr. Bob Bramhall, a member of our Adult Advisory Board, along with the Maryland Safety Council have arranged a "Defensive Driving Course" for the students and Adult Advisors of this program. It will be held at the Millersville Police Academy and this course will take place on Tuesday, November 16th from 7:30 to 9:30 PM and will continue for the following three Tuesdays, a total of 8 hours of training. There will be no charge to the students other than the cost of a book.

- * Each student will also receive 12 hours of training from various professional people in how to deal with the different situations that they may come up against.

Our biggest need at this point is financial support. We need to buy two communication units to be used in our cars and a base unit to have in the "CENTER". We also need to have pamphlets printed to be handed out to inform other students and adults of our program. We also will need funds to cover car operating expenses. We have discussed ways of raising money, such as having a 50-50 raffle or maybe a dance. At our next meeting we will make a decision. In the meantime, we would greatly appreciate any contributions that could be made.

We the students and Adult Advisors of "SAFE RIDES FOR TEENS" would like to thank all of you for taking the time to come tonight and would like to now open the floor for discussion.

THANK YOU

THE MARYLAND WEEKLY

Comics / Md. 1

By ROBERT H. MELTON

Special to The Washington Post

Kristin Otero, a 16-year-old senior at South River High School in Edgewater, has quit her job at the Roy Rogers restaurant. She could have used the money, she says, but she figures her time is better spent helping teen-agers who drink and drive.

"Every weekend after games, and sometimes on school nights till 10, people are out partying—you know, drinking beer," said Otero, who lives in Davidsonville, Md., a rural community in southern Anne Arundel County. "We're not telling the other kids not to drink. All we're saying is: 'That's OK. If you need our help, don't hesitate to call.'"

Otero and 30 other South River students have formed Safe Rides For Teens, a program modeled after one in Connecticut offering free transportation to students too drunk to drive or passengers unwilling to travel with a drunk driver.

Safe Rides, which supporters plan to launch Dec. 17, would be Maryland's first anti-drunken driving campaign organized and run entirely by students.

Around Davidsonville teen-age drinking and driving "has been a problem for quite a while, but it's also been growing lately," said Jim Smith Jr., a 16-year-old junior at South River. Davidsonville and Edgewater have no local taxi or bus service and many teen-agers get a car while still in high school.

"Drinking is a pretty big thing around here. I've seen it: the kids who go out drinking and then drive home," Smith said.

Maryland State Police report that of the 572 traffic deaths statewide between the first of the year and last Monday, 270 of those were alcohol-related. In the first six months of this year, police say, 32 of the 96 drivers killed in alcohol-related accidents were between 16 and 21 years old; nine of the 32 who died were 16, 17, or 18 years old. Authorities said that although high, the number of drunken-driving deaths is still about 10 percent lower than in past years.

But the trauma remains for South River students: a year after two of their classmates died in a car accident that some of their friends say may have been alcohol-related, and that's why, four months after the state raised the drinking age from 18 to 21, they're fighting the young drunk driver by offering to do the driving for him or her.

And the Chesapeake Bay-area county is not alone. In Bowie, officials started a Dial-a-Ride program two years ago that helped dozens of people during the holiday season.

According to John Gibbons, the Youth Service Bureau counselor who started the program, Dial-a-Ride will resume around Thanksgiving and run through the Christmas season.

This week, Bowie ninth graders will take part in a special two-part program on alcohol, drugs and driving, and similar programs will mark the week of Dec. 12-16, which the Prince George's County Board of Education has designated Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week.

In Montgomery County, whose "Scared Stiff" slide program on drunken driving has drawn regional attention, a group of businessmen, county officials and students offered free rides during the spring prom and graduation season. A county spokesman said the program will be revived again next year.

While Bowie's ride program uses parent-student teams to chauffeur others safely home, South River will use pairs of students. Those volunteers must complete an eight-hour defensive driving course taught by Anne Arundel police at their training facility in Millersville, Md.

"This idea is fantastic," said Cody Godman, executive director of the Safety Council of Maryland, sponsor of the driving course. Six adult supervisors and 22 teen-agers will give up four consecutive Tuesday nights for the training.

Several groups have climbed aboard the Safe Rides bandwagon. The Safety Council decided not to charge its usual fee for the course. A national firm with a factory in Anne Arundel has contributed $350 for the program and another $325 has been donated. Rep. Marjorie S. Holt (R-Md.), several House of Delegate members and leaders of other campaigns against drunken driving have also endorsed Safe Rides for Teens.

But among South River pupils, enthusiasm is only lukewarm, the students say. "The kids aren't behind it," Otero said. "From their point of view, I think, they don't feel it's important. They think it's a parents' group, and students just don't listen to what parents say about drinking and driving. But kids formed it. Maybe their attitude will change.

"You can tell teen-agers as many times as you like, but there's no way to tell them to stop drinking," said Smith, who also lives in Davidsonville. "And we may not be able to stop it, either, but at least we can save some lives in the long run."

Some South River students said their principal, Martin J. Eichhorn, was less than thrilled with the idea of teen-aged drivers carting their peers home on Friday and Saturday nights. "At first, I thought the program was condoning drinking—and that should not be the school's message," Eichhorn said last week. "Our message to students is 'Don't drink—and certainly don't drink and drive.'"

In a fall term already plagued by a number of student driving accidents, Safe Rides "offers our kids and young people the option of being driven home," Eichhorn said. "And that's very useful."

"You can tell teen-agers as many times as you like, but there's no way to tell them to stop drinking. And we may not be able to stop it, either, but at least we can save some lives in the long run."

This is how the program will work: Students needing a ride can call one of two telephone numbers to reach a communications center in the parish hall of Davidsonville's Holy Family Catholic Church. Radio dispatched teams—coed pairs who provide their own cars and are reimbursed for gasoline—would then pick up the person and drive him home. The passengers' identities will be kept confidential; an adult will supervise operations from the church during the Friday and Saturday night shifts, which start at 10 p.m. and end at 3 in the morning.

The drivers, who will be affiliated with a local Boy Scout Explorer's Post, will be covered by the organization's liability insurance.

"It's time for some good news about teens," said Smith's mother, Pat. "The kids are behind this idea. They're the ones getting it off the ground."

Honorable Anthony M. Villane, Jr.
State Representative
New Jersey General Assembly
20 Lincoln Avenue
Long Beach, New Jersey 07740

Dear Mr. Villane:

Thank you for your letter of December 11 to President Reagan on behalf of Miss Stephanie A. Santanello.

As much as he would like to, the President cannot reply personally to every communication that he receives. Therefore, he has asked the departments and agencies of the Federal Government to reply on his behalf in those instances where they have special knowledge or special authority under the law. For this reason, your correspondence was forwarded to officials of the Department of the Army.

I am pleased to inform you that Miss Santanello has been nominated to West Point by Congressman James J. Howard, the United States Representative for the Third Congressional District of New Jersey. Her receipt of a Congressional nomination in addition to the service-connected nomination she already had by virtue of attending the Preparatory School, will afford Miss Santanello the opportunity to compete for an appointment in two separate areas. Based on Miss Santanello's overall qualifications, I believe she has a good chance to receive an appointment. If she is selected for an appointment, West Point will notify her prior to her graduation from the Preparatory School.

Your interest in recommending young people for the Military Academy is commendable. I hope Miss Santanello will be successful in her pursuit of an appointment to the Corps of Cadets.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Ronald Reagan
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20006

Dear President Reagan:

I am a State Legislator in the Third Congressional District in New Jersey. I find it difficult to find a sponsor for a candidate to West Point Academy in this district because of partisan representation.

The candidate for which I am writing, Miss Stephanie A. Santanello has an outstanding record of accomplishments in her academic performance. She has demonstrated to me that she is an industrious, honest, reliable and creative young woman.

I would consider it as a personal favor if you could some way advise me in which direction I can go to assist Stephanie. She and her family have been strong supporters of our Republican Party.

Sincerely,

Anthony M. Villane Jr., D.D.S.

Cadet Candidate Stephanie A. Santanello
Company C
USMA Preparatory School
Fort Monmouth, NJ 07703

1. Congratulations on your academic achievement in Unit II. You have been placed on the Dean's List, an honor very few members of the USMAPS Class of 1982-1983 will receive. Academically, you ranked in the top five percent of all Cadet Candidates at the conclusion of Unit II, this is particularly noteworthy at the Prep School because of our very strict grading standards.
2. Your academic performance is indicative of your interest to succeed. We encourage you not only to continue dedicating yourself to academic success but also to strive for equally outstanding results in our military and physical training programs.
