Joshua the son of Nun went up from Shittim two men to spy secretly, to view the land, even Jericho. And they went, came into an habitation of a house, named Rahab, lodged there.

And it was told the king of Jericho. And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, and said, Bring forth the men that are come unto thee, whom ye have lodged; for whither they are gone I know not.

And Rahab said, I have hid the two men; but whither they are gone I know not: so please you, swear unto me, that I also may save my life with them.

And she said, The thing which I spake of to the men that came unto my house, the same I shall do.

And she let the men go; she sent them over Jordan eastward. And they went, and came into the house of a father of spies, of the habitation of a harlot, whose name was Shiloh; and they spied Jordan eastward.

And when they were come into the land of Canaan, and the head of the house of God spake unto Joshua, saying, Joshua rose early in the morning, and removed from Shittim, and came to Jordan, and all the children of Israel, and lodged by Jordan, eastward.

Joshua rose early in the morning, and went out from Shittim, and came to Jordan, and all the children of Israel, and lodged by Jordan, eastward.

14 Your wives, your children, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you, and ye shall pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them.

15 Until the Lord have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the Lord your God giveth them on this side Jordan; from the desert of Ziph, even as far over Jordan eastward.

16 And they answered Joshua, saying, That will the Lord do for the man that is as wise and understanding in heart as thou art.

17 According as we heard it said, so will we do; we will go up, and fight our battle before the Lord, according to all things that he shall say unto us.

18 And they rose early in the morning, and went up out of the place, as the Lord had commanded; and they came to the place of which the Lord spake unto Moses.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you.

19 Then Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you.

20 And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, Speak ye before the Lord, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There shall there be no man among the congregation of Israel, when ye come again to the land.

21 And if ye utter this our business, then we will smite you with the plagues of Egypt, and none shall be left among you.

22 Therefore they said unto Joshua, It is well spoken.

23 And Joshua spake unto the five men, saying, Go hitherinto, and bring wood out of the fir-trees that are on the other side Jordan, even of the waters of Jericho.

24 And they went and came into the Jonathan's house, and they compassed the city, going about it.

25 And it came to pass, when they made an end of compassing the city, that they lighted the brasen trumpets.

26 And it came to pass, as Joshua had formerly commanded, that Joshua said unto the two men that had spied out the land, Go into the harlot's house, and bring forth out of her hand her token, which she shall give you for a token.

27 And Joshua said, She shall be mine; she shall be my wife instead of the death of these that were come unto death, because they were good in mine eyes.

28 And it came to pass, as they went out of the city, that Joshua said unto Rahab, Give ye me two Shibboleths; and she gave him two Shibboleths. Then he said unto her, Take, and go to the men; say, Your friends come unto us; and bring forth such a token as it is.

29 And she went to the men; and she said, See here, he cometh. And she shewed those things to the men, and they gave her two Shibboleths, and she brought them forth to Joshua.

30 And it came to pass, when the men were come into the city, that they said unto the guard of the gate, Rahab dwelleth within; take her not away: for according to every word that proceeded out of the mouth of the men of Israel, so was it done.

31 And they let Rahab and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had, go away: and they destroyed not those that belonged to her; she being in peace, according to all that she had done.

32 And it came to pass the day of Joshua's death, that he gave commandment, and they buried him in the valley in the plain of Anathoth, which is by Jericho.

33 And Israel wept for Joshua six months.

34 And Joshua the son of Nun was full and strong grown; for until that time Joshua the son of Nun had served Moses in all his service.

35 And there was no one like unto Moses, whom all the people of Israel knew; after him was not a prophet among all the people of Israel.

36 And the Lord said unto Joshua, Fear not thou, neither be troublesome; for I am with thee, and will make the people, and the land, and the hill, and the valley, and the rivers, over against thee.

37 And the Lord took Joshua, and made him as the head of all the people of Israel.

38 And these are the words of the covenant, which the Lord commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel, in the plain of Moab, beyond Jordan eastward, over against the sun rising.
