

FI005 Entire Category

Full description:

FI005Credit – Loans (1.6 l.ft;)

This secondary subject category contains material relating to the loan guarantee programs of the federal government and efforts to restrict their use and size during the Reagan administration; specific loan guarantees, especially for synthetic or alternate fuel programs such as the Tosco shale oil project and the coal gasification project; tight credit policies; under market-rate loan programs; loan guarantees for New York City and Chrysler Corporation; financial reform of the U.S. Budget and a possible accounting change in credit status; loan asset sales; credit protection for consumers; and credit market reports from the Department of the Treasury for 1986-1987; and numerous requests from individual citizens for direct government loans for personal or business difficulties