The message is OK with me, except it goes too far in talking about "friendship" between the U.S. and Hungary, a Communist country. I think "cooperation" or "positive cooperation" would be enough.

CENTRAL ORGANIZATION FOR JEWISH EDUCATION

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington

Dear Mr. President,

Merkos L'Inyonei Chinuch, the Central Organization for Jewish Education, is the educational arm of the Lubavitch Movement.

Merkos L'Inyonei Chinuch will be host during November 19 - 24 to more than five hundred emissaries of the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson שליט"א, from some forty countries, who will convene here at Lubavitch World Headquarters in New York, to deliberate on issues and matters of vital import to millions of people around the world.

This august body is the most dynamic and influential force in the Jewish world today. These ambassadors represent thousands of communities on all continents. The Rebbe's world-wide network of schools, variegated institutions and activities, manned by these emissaries, have succeeded in creating a veritable marked resurgence to uplift the standards of education on the local levels as well as a resurgence to spiritual values.

As such, much good is contingent upon the deliberations and resolutions of this forthcoming convention.

The participants would each be deely gratified if you, Mr. President, were to honor their gathering with your message.

With every good wish,

Respectfully,
MERKOS L'INYONEI CHINUCH

November 18, 1987

It is a pleasure to send greetings to Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson and the Merkos L'Inyonei Chinuch. The fact that the Lubavitch movement is represented in so many countries is testimony to the power of Rabbi Schneerson's ideas and to the strength of his personality.

I recently had the honor of signing the International Scroll of Honor that pays tribute to Rabbi Schneerson and which affirms the fundamental ethical values upon which all civilized societies must be based. I know that much of the work of those gathered this week at Lubavitch World Headquarters is devoted to promoting the acceptance of these values, which are commandments from G-d to all mankind. In so doing, you combat the anti-religious forces which have caused so much misery in our lifetimes. I applaud you for your work.

You have my best wishes for a very successful meeting.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

Tonight is a special evening for the friends and the members of Pacific Jewish Center. Not only is this the culmination of a massive effort to save your landmark synagogue, it also marks your tenth anniversary. I am pleased to be able to greet you and acknowledge you on this occasion.

You all know how much I admire the values that America is built on: the encouragement of a local community spirit; people volunteering to help their neighbors, and the strengthening of basic family values. In all these areas, Pacific Jewish Center has been exemplary. I commend you for your efforts.

Congratulations also for all that you have done in helping develop a sense of Jewish pride and connection to your heritage among the thousands of people your educational programs have touched.

Keep up the good work!

Dear Mr. Green,

On Tuesday, January 26, 1988, the Sephardic Hebrew Academy will hold its annual Scholarship Banquet at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. Our honorees are one of our community's most distinguished couples, Robert and Beverly Cohen.

The Banquet theme is "Only in America", and it will be a celebration of everything that is good and beautiful about our wonderful country. Master of Ceremonies will be Chevy Chase, and over 1000 people are expected to attend. This event promises to be our biggest and most exciting star filled evening ever.

Bob and Beverly Cohen have been active in numerous causes, ranging from the Boy Scouts of America to the Ben Gurion University, and are known far and wide for their charitable deeds and communal involvement. We feel fortunate in having this opportunity to pay tribute to them.

We would be most honored if the President of the United States would be so kind to send a letter of congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Robert Cohen and the Academy on this joyous occasion. The magnitude of the entire event would be greatly enhanced by this kind gesture. The deadline of our Dinner Journal is January 6th, 1988, and it would be wonderful if we could print a copy of the letter in this journal for all to see. Enclosed please find a biographical sketch about the Cohens for your information.

Thanking you for your cooperation, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

RESPONSE:

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 13, 1988

Dear Mr. Abram:

I appreciated your recent Wall Street Journal op-ed on Soviet Jewry. The United States and the Soviet Union entered into an important arms reduction agreement at the recent Summit. However, as you write, there has not yet been a meeting of minds on the crucial issue of human rights. While there are positive aspects of glasnost, the Soviet Union remains a fundamentally closed society. It still denies citizens the free exercise of religion and the right to free emigration and many other basic liberties, not to mention the right to choose who shall lead them.

I agree with you that these are not just internal matters. They should concern all who are committed to the cause of freedom and peace. This is why I began my recent meetings with General Secretary Gorbachev by pointing out the necessity of further progress in the area of human rights. I especially emphasized the cause of Soviet Jewry, stressing how much this concerns all Americans. I also made certain he realizes that progress in human rights is just as vital as progress in arms reductions -- that further improvements in our relations are related to appreciably improved Soviet human rights performance.

My message to the General Secretary was unmistakably clear. I hope and pray for a positive response. In any case, this administration will continue to press the human rights question until the day we leave office. As far as I am concerned, it will always be a front-burner issue.

Finally, I want to extend my congratulations to you and your colleagues on your extraordinarily successful demonstration on December 6. It deserved and received great attention throughout the world -- from the White House to the Kremlin.

Sincerely,

Mr. Morris B. Abram

Proposed Letter for Presidential Signature
Retired Officers Association Biennial Convention
Honolulu, HI., December 11-14, 1988

It is a great pleasure for me to greet the members of The Retired Officers Association as you convene in Honolulu for your 29th Biennial Convention, and to express appreciation for your organization's contributions to the security of our country.

In just two more months, TROA will celebrate six decades of dedicated service to our country and your members. Your advocacy of military forces adequate to the defense of our country and your efforts on behalf of the entire uniformed community have contributed significantly to the American way of life. I commend your members for their dedication and commitment, both through their lives of service during their active duty years and as key opinion leaders in the community during their retired days.

I am confident that your organization will continue to give full support to the national effort to seek peace and understanding among all nations. Your support in this task is greatly appreciated.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful and memorable convention.

God bless you all.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 27, 1984

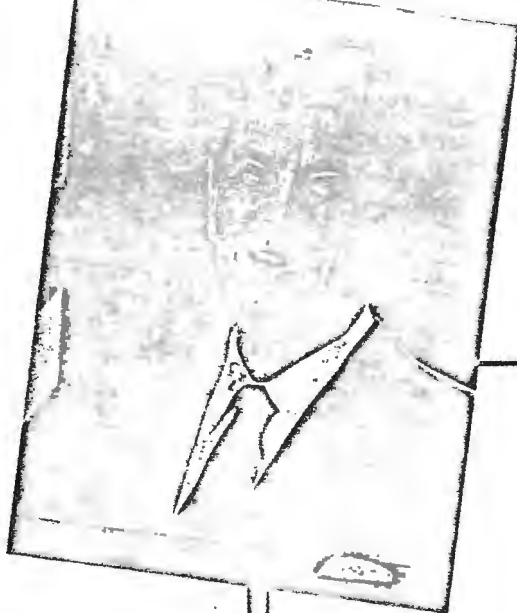

I am pleased to extend warm greetings to all those gathered for the Retired Officers Association's biannual convention.

For many years, you have carried the burden of defending freedom around the world, and your families have sacrificed as well to meet the demands of serving this great country of ours. Today, the Retired Officers Association, through its support of our nation's defenses and its vigilance on behalf of veterans' rights, maintains an active role in sustaining our strong consensus to preserve freedom and the American way of life. You have my utmost respect and admiration for your dedication to the cause of preserving peace for the generations that follow us. I am honored to have this opportunity to salute you.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful and memorable convention.

God bless you all.

Ronald Reagan

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 26, 1986

It gives me great pleasure to greet the members of the Retired Officers Association as you gather for your 28th Biennial Convention.

After years of doubt and ambivalence, service in the Armed Forces is once again seen in America as a vital and honorable profession. Much of the credit for this change in attitude must go to our military retirees. Through your activities and leadership in communities across America, you have demonstrated the patriotism, responsibility, and professionalism that are the hallmarks of those who serve in the defense of liberty. Your countrymen draw strength and inspiration from the example you have set in both military and civilian life.

I salute you and send my gratitude for your help in restoring the military strength we need to maintain peace in a dangerous world. I look forward to your continued support for this vital task. You have my best wishes, and God bless you.

I am happy to greet everyone gathered in New York City with ~~State of~~ ~~Israel Bonds~~, and to congratulate the 16 American, Canadian, European, and Latin American recipients of your Israel 40th Anniversary Gold Medal.

As I have said before, the 40th anniversary of the founding of Israel is a most appropriate time for reflection on the lessons of Jewish history and for rededication to the ideals of freedom. That history truly symbolizes mankind's unceasing quest for liberty. Those whom you now honor have achieved much in this quest; their dedication and leadership have enabled them to make countless contributions to the well-being of their fellowman. The same can surely be said of all of you, and that is a tribute to you and an inspiration to friends of Israel around the world.

Nancy joins me in saying Mazel Tov to your honorees and to each of you. May every blessing be yours.

I am happy to greet and congratulate everyone gathered at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts as the Greater Washington Committee for Israel's 40th Anniversary holds a gala, and I extend a special welcome to all of our distinguished visitors from abroad.

The milestone you now celebrate through the special beauty of the arts reminds all of us that Jewish history holds many lessons about lasting spiritual values, about the meaning of freedom and respect for the dignity of every individual, and about humanity's unquenchable desire for these most precious of treasures. Your commemoration recalls as well the great sacrifices so many have willingly made in the cause of liberty -- a cause we pray will one day give all mankind the permanent peace and security only freedom and brotherhood can provide.

The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear President Reagan:

The enclosed information is for a special request to honor Dale S. Gribow, who will be stepping down as Chairman of the Board of The Scopus Society of the American Friends of the Hebrew University at a special fund raising event in June.

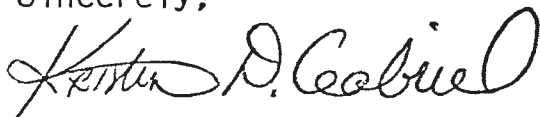

As the invitation indicates the event is scheduled for Saturday, June 4, 1988. We have included all background information on Dale S. Any correspondence regarding this matter can be mailed directly to Mr. Dan Pearlman at PWOM, 1901 Avenue of the Stars Suite 680, Los Angeles, CA 90067.

I will be in touch shortly to determine if this request is possible, given our time constraints. If there are any questions, don't hesitate to contact me, Kristin Gabriel at (213) 277-9397 or Mr. Dan Pearlman at (213) 277-4684.

Thank you in advance for your efforts.

BIOGRAPHY

Prominent Beverly Hills-based attorney, Dale S. Gribow is a member of at least a dozen local bar associations, and Judge Pro Tem of the Los Angeles and Beverly Hills courts. Gribow's practice, Dale S. Gribow, A Professional Corporation, consists largely of personal injury and criminal cases in addition to corporate law. Gribow is also one of the most civically active members of the California community.

Gribow's highly acclaimed legal work has been commended by Mayor Bradley, California's Governor Brown, U.S. Senator Cranston, Councilman Wachs and Congressman Waxman. Perhaps the highest honor he has received was when the Mayor of Beverly Hills proclaimed a day in his honor.

After receiving a B.A. in History from USC, Gribow received his law degree at Loyola, where he held several student offices, including Vice President of the legal fraternity Phi Alpha Delta. Gribow went on to study advanced legal studies at UCLA and USC and was admitted to the California Bar Association in 1970.

A Los Angeles deputy Public Defender from 1970-1974, Gribow holds the longest win record to date. In 1974 he went into private practice with an associate attorney and in 1976 he started his own legal practice where he has handled some of the most intricate trial cases in the area, including the tragic Chicago airline crash.

Additionally, Gribow has been listed in the Who's Who in American Law, Who's Who in California, Who's Who in Business and Finance, in addition to Who's Who in the World. He has also been named to the Who's Who in Contemporary Achievement and Outstanding Young Men in America. Further, he is one of 75 Americans in 1987 to receive the American Biographer Institute's Medal of Honor.

Gribow has also been very involved with civic and charitable organizations and has served on the Boards of The Variety Club, The American Friends of the Hebrew University, Guardians, Boys and Girls Club of Los Angeles, SCOPUS and the Dubnoff Center. He was Chairman of the 1987 Thalian's Ball.

Gribow has also been an active member of the Friars, City of Hope, Vista Del Mar, Simon Weisenthal Center for Holocaust Studies. He is also a member of the Society of Founders of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. His affiliation with other Los Angeles organizations include the Zoo Association, County Museum, Boosters, Toastmasters, Junior Chamber, World Affairs Council and various USC Alumni Associations. Gribow is also a member of the City Attorney's Advisory, the LAPD Crime Prevention Council Committees and is on the U.S. Congressional Advisory Board.

Gribow often lectures and authors articles on legal subjects and has been interviewed on numerous television and radio shows on the subject of drunk driving laws and personal injury matters.

Born in Chicago, Illinois, Gribow was raised in Toluca Lake and Brentwood, CA. He is married to Patti Gribow, a professional actress and singer. The Gribows have a twenty-month old daughter, Gina, and they divide their time between homes in Beverly Hills and Palm Springs, CA, with extended excursions abroad.

CHARITABLE is the perfect adjective to describe Dale Gribow, Attorney at Law. His office is located at 9777 Wilshire Boulevard in Beverly Hills. It surprised me to find a photo of him with his gorgeous wife Patti on page 23 in Club & Sport, March issue. They were amongst celebrities that included Debbie Reynolds, Jerry Dunphy, Connie Stevens and Lew Sherril who attended the Las Hadas Holiday.

Dale's law practice includes criminal, business and personal injury. He particularly likes personal injury because it awards monies to injured persons who without his legal assistance could fall through the gaps of our existence. Dale has an intellectual approach in settling his cases. He will litigate the case always when necessary. He would rather spend his energy and acquire an appropriate cash settlement for his client than to accept a few dollars for a quickie settlement. Mr. Gribow hires only trial lawyers. He hires only professionals in his organization. It's truly a class operation that speaks for itself.

I asked Dale why he thought he was a better lawyer. He responded "I have a background in medicine, I was a public defender for five years and didn't lose a case for a two year span". "I've been practicing for 18 or 19 years and I'm sensitive to the victim, because I was the victim of a rear-end collision."

Dale Gribow is active in many private clubs, community groups and professional organizations. Some include: Friars, Pips, Cellar, Vikings, Variety, Los Angeles Bar Association, Los Angeles Trial Lawyers Association, The Beverly Hills Mens Charity and the American Friends of the Hebrew University in Israel. The list is so voluminous respectfully space does not allow a complete listing. He has been and in some is still President, Vice President, Chairman of the Board and in some cases founder of the charity itself. One incident in particular describes the heart of the man. Dale read in the Los Angeles Times an article about gang violence. A man who was working with juvenile gang members was the victim of a gang robbery. The man's Christmas gifts for his family were stolen. Dale did research to locate the gentleman, had him to come to his office and give to him the dollar value of the stolen Christmas gifts. CHARITABLE!

Mr. Gribow has been recognized in 17 Who's Who and received numerous awards and plaques, some of which were presented by government officials including the U.S. Senate.

In 1983 the City of Beverly Hills honored Dale with a Dale Gribow day, celebrated annually on January the 8th. He's made his contribution to the City of Beverly Hills and obviously is held in high regard. Dale states he's in to the FUN d RAISING. Meeting interesting people, having fun and helping people in need is how he likes to spend his time.

The SCOPUS Society was founded by Dale Gribow. Jan Murray, Vidal Sassoon and Dale Gribow were conversing as they cruised the Nile in Egypt. They came up with the idea of an under 50's age group to participate in fund raising for charities. Dale stated most charity age groups are over 50 with a lot of time and money to donate. He hopes to add needed energy to all charitable organizations.

INTERESTING CASE

I asked Dale what he considered his most interesting case. He responded, "their all interesting." He did say he represented an elderly couple who had been hit in a parking lot. This couple is from Europe and survived the holocaust. Dale said he handed them a fifty thousand dollar settlement two months after their accident. He states the smiles were enough. He declined his percentage of the settlement..

Dale recently married a true beauty and someone he's very proud of. Patti (Pivarr) Gribow has her own career and still keeps a smile on Dale's face when he speaks of her. Patti was captain of the Gold Diggers with Deal Martin for twelve years, she's been on over 100 television sitcoms and she sang at the second presidential inauguration for President Reagan. This month she will open for Joan Rivers at Carlos and Charlie's. check your listings!

This award winning attorney takes a stand in the no-fault insurance initiative.

TAKE NOTE: Dale comments that if the insurance companies would negotiate in good faith there would be no problem. He told me of an instance where a client turned down a settlement offer and within a couple of days decided she would accept the offer.

The insurance company stated the offer was withdrawn. Dale proceeded to file a "bad faith" suit against the insurance company. He won a forty-two thousand dollar award for his client. This would have cost the insurance company originally fifteen thousand dollars had they negotiated in good faith. the no-fault system will eliminate monies awarded for a victim's pain and suffering. It will allot monies for loss of earnings and medical bills only. Should accident victims suffer the politics and monetary stock losses of the insurance companies?

Thousands,
dedication,

* The West Point Jewish Chapel, which opened in 1984, marked the culmination of twenty years of planning and dedication by a group of prominent civic and communal leaders who worked tirelessly to create a Jewish house of worship at West Point.

* This magnificent Chapel - built with funds raised privately - is now a dynamic inspirational monument to the contributions the Jewish community has made to military history and to the defense of our nation for over 200 years.

* The immense historical and political significance of the new Jewish Chapel, taking its place alongside the Protestant Catholic Chapels, emphasizes to all the world of greatness of our Democracy: the three major religions standing together on a hilltop overlooking the historic "Plain" at West Point and serving our nation.

* The Chapel serves many important purposes. It is a center for religious worship, Judaic studies and holiday observances for the Jewish community at West Point, which includes Jewish cadets, instructors and post personnel and their families.

* In addition, the Chapel familiarizes cadets of other faiths with Jewish customs and traditions, thereby helping to produce future leaders who will have a better understanding of their fellow officers and comrades in arms.

* The Chapel, which received the Defense Department's Excellence in Design Award in 1985, features exhibits in the gallery-museum that depict in vivid fashion the role the Jewish community has played for two centuries in protecting freedom in America.

* Perhaps most important, the West Point Jewish Chapel helps to strengthen educational and interfaith relations among the Corps of Cadets.

The Chapel Is Presented to the U.S.

The United States Government received a special gift on September 23, 1986—a Jewish chapel—as ownership of the West Point Jewish Chapel was formally transferred as a gift from the private, non-profit group that funded its construction.

A colorful military ceremony was held to mark the occasion, in which the U.S. Military Academy's Cadet Honor Guard and U.S. Military Academy Band participated. Cadets, faculty and staff attended the festivities, held on the grounds of the Jewish Chapel. Lt. General Dave R. Palmer, Superintendent of the Military Academy, accepted the gift on behalf of Secretary of the Army John O. Marsh, Jr.

A Message to the World

"The Jewish Chapel, taking its place alongside the Protestant and Catholic Chapels, emphasizes, for the world to witness, the source of strength and greatness of our democracy," Herbert M. Ames, President of the West Point Jewish Chapel Fund, stated.

The gift of the chapel to the U.S. Government is the culmination of a nearly 20-year-long effort. The Chapel was first opened for baccalaureate graduation services in the spring of 1984. Additional details of the building, including the Sanctuary's "Ten Commandment Windows," and the Ark Curtain have recently been completed and installed.

The honored speaker at the ceremonies was Marty Silverman. Mr. Silverman, an officer of the West Point Jewish Chapel Fund, is President and founder of North American Corporation, a private, New York-based computer leasing organization.

"There would be no Jewish Chapel today at West Point were it not for the genius and generosity of Marty Silverman," Mr. Ames noted.

Fund Raising Continues

The West Point Jewish Chapel Fund presented the Chapel to the government free and clear of any debts. The Fund, however, is still obligated for less than $1-million of the $7.5-million cost to build and furnish the Chapel. It will continue its fund raising efforts, which it expects to complete this year.

"To the Jewish community at West Point, the Chapel serves a wide number of religious and community functions; to new Jewish Cadets it serves as an inviting welcome; and it serves to enlighten the wider public as to the role Jewish Americans have played and continue to play in this great country's defense and statesmanship," Mr. Ames told the audience.

It is a pleasure to send greetings to everyone gathered with Rabbi Menachem Schneerson and the Merkos L'Inyonei Chinuch. The representation of the Lubavitch movement in so many countries is testimony to the power and strength of its ideas.

I recently had the honor of signing the International Scroll of Honor that pays tribute to Rabbi Schneerson and affirms fundamental ethical values upon which all civilized societies must be based. I know that those of you gathered this week at Lubavitch World Headquarters promote the acceptance of the Almighty's commandments to all mankind. In doing so, you combat the antireligious forces that have caused so much misery in our lifetimes. I applaud your work.

You have my best wishes for a successful meeting and for the future.

Merkos L'inyonei Chinuch, the Central Organization for Jewish Education, is the educational arm of the Lubavitch Movement.

Merkos L'inyonei Chinuch will be host during November 19 - 24 to more than five hundred emissaries of the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson שליט"א, from some forty countries, who will convene here at Lubavitch World Headquarters in New York, to deliberate on issues and matters of vital import to millions of people around the world.

This august body is the most dynamic and influential force in the Jewish world today. These ambassadors represent thousands of communities on all continents. The Rebbe's world-wide network of schools, variegated institutions and activities, manned by these emissaries, have succeeded in creating a veritable marked resurgence to uplift the standards of education on the local levels as well as a resurgence to spiritual values.

As such, much good is contingent upon the deliberations and resolutions of this forthcoming convention.

The participants would each be deeply gratified if you, Mr. President, were to honor their gathering with your message.

With every good wish,

Respectfully,
