TRIP NEWS

REAGAN RETURNS TO IRISH ROOTS

BALLYPOREEN, Ireland (Ronald Thomson, Reuter) -- President Reagan returns to his Irish roots today as he pays his first visit to this quiet village of 300 people that his ancestors were forced to quit during a famine in the last century.

PRESIDENT ASSAILS SOVIETS IN ADDRESS AT IRISH COLLEGE

GALWAY, Ireland (Steven Weisman, New York Times, A1) -- President Reagan, defending his policies as protesters demonstrated nearby, assailed the Soviet Union for mounting "a strong and aggressive military machine that prohibits fundamental freedoms."

Ireland Honors Reagan with Degree

GALWAY, Ireland (Hal Piper, Baltimore Sun, A2) -- Resplendent in a blue and red academic gown, Mr. Reagan received an honorary doctor of law degree from the National University of Ireland and was proclaimed a freeman of the City of Galway, which is celebrating its 500th anniversary.

Galway's Mood for Reagan Subdued

GALWAY, Ireland (R.W. Apple, New York Times, A12) -- At some places along the route followed by President Reagan's motorcade, there were more policemen than spectators. At most points the police had not even bothered to put up metal barricades to hold the crowds back.

U.S. FISCAL POLICIES UNDERLIE SUMMIT AGENDA

(Peter Kilborn, New York Times, A1) -- When the seven leaders of the industrial democracies meet, their agenda will include a host of problems that many people blame on the federal deficits. But the deficits themselves will not be among them.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Excerpts from the President's speech in Galway are printed on page A13 of The New York Times.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

NICARAGUA OUTLINES CONDITIONS FOR IMPROVED RELATIONS

MANAGUA (Oswaldo Bonilla, UPI) -- Nicaragua said its position in talks with the United States to ease tensions in Central America would be aimed at halting U.S. military maneuvers and CIA backing of anti-Sandinista rebels.

(Stephen Kinzer, New York Times, A23) -- The Nicaraguan government has described the meeting between Daniel Ortega and Secretary Shultz as "frank and constructive." But it suggested the United States show its good will by altering its policies in Central America.

(Francis Clines, New York Times, A1) -- President Reagan will pursue his request for more military aid for Nicaraguan rebels even as he plans additional talks with the Nicaraguan government, according to Secretary Shultz.

Nicaraguan Rebels Attacks Provincial Capital

MANAGUA (Agustin Fuentes, Reuter) -- About 600 Honduran-based guerrillas attacked the northern Nicaraguan town of Ocotal but were driven out with the loss of 45 dead, the Defense Ministry said.

MEXICO IS SAID TO MODIFY ITS POLICY ON EL SALVADOR

MEXICO CITY (Richard Meislin, New York Times, A21) -- Secretary Shultz's surprise visit to Nicaragua was linked to a similarly dramatic shift in Mexico's foreign policy toward El Salvador, Mexican officials said.

IRAN ON ALERT FOR NEW IRANIAN OFFENSIVE

MANAMA, Bahrain (Reuter) -- Iraq has put its armed forces on full alert and sent hundreds of tanks to the southern front in preparation for another Iranian military offensive.

Gulf Tensions Rise as Iran Rejects U.N. Criticism

KUWAIT (Judith Miller, New York Times, A6) -- Iran and Iraq exchanged threats and insults after the approval of the U.N. Security Council resolution condemning air attacks on Gulf shipping.

KARAMI CONFIRMS REQUEST THAT ISRAELIS CLOSE OFFICE

BEIRUT (Jonathan Wright, Reuter) -- Lebanon has asked for the closure of Israel's liaison office in Christian-held territory north of Beirut, Prime Minister Karami confirmed. Karami, whose anti-Israeli stance has been one of the main features of his first month in office, was quoted as saying he made the request because the office was no longer legitimate.

SAKHAROV REPORTED DEAD

LONDON (UPI) -- The Sunday Times of London, citing "reliable but unofficial sources in Moscow," said that Nobel Peace Prize winner Andrei Sakharov died Thursday night in a hospital in Gorky.

(New York Times, A12) -- The State Department said that it was investigating rumors, prompted by an Italian newspaper report, that Sakharov had died.

Russian Dissident Is Reported Ailing

(New York Times, A11) -- The Soviet physicist and human rights activist Yuri Orlov is in "very poor health" after serving a seven-year sentence in a labor camp in the Urals, according to officials of Helsinki Watch.

U.S. SAYS SOVIETS KEPT DRONE

SAN DIEGO (New York Times, A12) -- An advanced drone aircraft that was recovered by the crew of a Soviet intelligence ship early last month was held for two days before being dismantled and dumped into the ocean, the U.S. Navy said.

CHINA AND FRANCE NEAR NUCLEAR ACCORD

PARIS (E.J. Dionne, New York Times, A3) -- Prime Minister Zhao said that France and China were close to agreement on a contract for the construction of a nuclear power plant in Canton.

NATIONAL NEWS

JACKSON ACCEPTS INVITATION TO MEET FIDEL CASTRO

(Reuter) -- Jesse Jackson announced in Washington he had accepted an invitation to meet Cuban President Castro in Havana later this month.

(Gerald Boyd, New York Times, A32) -- Jackson disclosed the travel plans after a 90-minute meeting with Cuban diplomats.

Mondale Camp Accuses Hart of 'Dirty Tricks'

(Arnold Sawislak, UPI) -- Walter Mondale's California campaign accused Gary Hart of using "dirty tricks of the Nixon era." Art Torres, a co-chairman of the California Mondale campaign, made the charge against Hart at a "Hispanics for Mondale" fund-raising reception as Mondale stood behind him.

DEMOCRATS ACT TO FOIL MOVE BY WHITE HOUSE

(Jane Perlez, New York Times, A33) -- The Democratic Party has asked Democratic governors to snub a White House request for information on changes in state laws that discriminated on the basis of sex.

DOGGETT WINS; HANCE CALLS FOR RECOUNT

AUSTIN, Texas (Tim Sheehy, UPI) -- Spurred by late returns from his home town, state senator Lloyd Doggett came from behind to defeat Rep. Kent Hance in a runoff to choose the Texas Democrat who will battle to claim the seat Sen. John Tower has held for 23 years. Doggett, with 50.03% of the vote to Hance's 49.97%, claimed a probable victory and Hance immediately called for a recount.
