Dear Light

Just time between chores for a line or two. It was nice of you to write and put our show on the back - of course I'm sure that it took a Helen Hanson to get your pen in hand. On the other hand I don't blame you she's a lot of gal.

Moan is doing fine - he's a V.P. of McLann S. Nicolson adv. agency. Nell is a victim of Time. Physically she's in good shape but gets confused now and has very little memory of places & people. It's strange to see some one who was always so active & aware of people & their problems now rather pleased to ~~know~~ know most people from day to day.

Time to go now and add a little electricity. It was good to hear from you and to start mentally re-living those Savell Park summers -

Best

Dante

Dear Light:

I've received your gift and must say it is a most unique piece of art work. I'm fascinated with it. Would you believe I opened it close up -- on my desk, and all I saw was the picture of the lady and her mirror. I'll confess that I wondered a little about it. I put it on the desk and went on looking at mail and happened to glance at it from a little distance away. Then for the first time I saw the skull. This is truly a conversation piece.

Thanks again, and I hope your holidays were all you wanted them to be.

Sincerely,

Dear President Ron:

This is a copy of the album we produced about the enshrinement ceremonies for your old Army Air Force overcoat at the U. S. Air Force Museum at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base. It is now being sold in the Gift Shop there, the moneys raised feeding into the endowment base of the U. S. Air Force Museum Foundation.

I hope you and Nancy enjoy it as it shows how much sentimental mileage can be pulled out of attic items, and what nostalgic and warming memories they can cause. The Museum was especially interested in getting across to people who visit there how many things of historical significance are probably denied us by accident or lack of the historical perspective.

We may be the cause of many a gorret's contents being re-assessed!

As the Museum lies in the district of Congressman Bud Brown, and he's announced for a run for Ohio Governor, he's asked for a block of them for giveaways. If you feel they'd serve any souvenir handout purpose for you, let me know how many you'd like.

May you both have a delightful and happy holiday season, that being a wish of Vada and myself ...

Thanks very much for sending me a copy of your speech. As the young people you were talking about say, "it was right on."

I'm convinced we must give them a legitimate cause to serve and one that will not require them to bleed their lives away on a battlefield.
At the same time, however, maybe making them understand that being willing to die for something could be the best guarantee they won't have to make that sacrifice.

Thanks again and best regards,

Dear Ron:

I'm asking Roy Brewer to enclose this with his to ensure its early receipt. You know that I don't do this kind of thing lightly. You'll remember Al Chamie-v.p. and general counsel for the Producers Association--Charlie Boren's right hand man.

Appointed to the American Battle Monuments Commission by Presidents Nixon, Ford and Carter. one of two Republicans on the commission, a fine, upstanding gentleman, I could not more heartily recommend anyone to you for your consideration of his reappointment. He was an active and articulate member of the Veterans For Reagan, also past National Commander of the American Legion, but most of all a totally trustworthy man.

Betty and I wish you and Nancy a glorious Christmas and the best New Year you've ever had. Obviously there is an element of selfishness in the latter.

Bless you

It is with deepest regret that I accept your resignation as Chief of Protocol for the White House, effective January 1, 1982.

This past year has been one of significant achievement in State diplomacy, no small part of which can be attributed to your efforts. Throughout the year you have displayed exceptional grace and wisdom, and your accomplished hand at the helm of protocol will be certainly missed in the days to come.

There, now I've done what is officially required. You know we'll miss you, so don't go too far away.

Honorable Ronald Reagan

Dear Mr. President:

As happened so often in the past, the time has again come for me to depart.

When I accepted your offer to serve as Assistant to the President for Political Affairs, it was with the understanding that I would stay for a year. That year will be up this month. Therefore, I would appreciate it if you would accept my resignation effective Friday, January 22, 1982.

Mr. President, it has been an honor and a privilege for me to work in your Administration and in your White House, and to be a part of the most successful and productive first year of any President in recent times. You have taken giant steps toward restoring fiscal sanity, reducing the size, scope and power of the federal government, and rebuilding both our national strength and our national resolve.

I am proud that the political office has been able to contribute in some small measure to the successes of this first year. I am confident that under the direction of Ed Rollins, it will continue to do so.

Though I am leaving government, please be assured that I will always be prepared to serve you personally or your Administration in any way you might ask, short, of course, of a full-time assignment.

With best wishes for your continued success and my warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Lyn Nofziger

Dear Ronald,

I am writing you as a mutual friend of Marion and Paul Miller, and to tell you that he died suddenly of a massive Heart attack last Sunday night a little after 11:PM.

Primarily, it was to send you this picture of him and Marion. It was taken the day before he passed away.

We were all having a great time at the Shrine Ceremonial and Party afterwards, when I was talking to them, and took this picture of them. I said to Marion, "How would you like me to send Ronny a picture of you and Paul, since you are such good friends". She said "Yes that would be nice, why don't you do it, that is, if it is a good one, I hope he gets it!" So I said I would.

After they returned from Palm Springs, they went over to Santa Monica to see their son, as it was his birthday, went to dinner, then went home. They were watching TV a little after 11 PM Paul said that he was not feeling so good, got up and started across the room when suddenly he collapsed on the floor. The Paramedics were called, but when they got there he was already gone. Marion said, "it all happened in one moment"

Sorry to have to tell you all this, when all I was going to do was send you the picture.

Wishing you and Nancy a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Successful year of 1982, and continue doing the great job you are doing now, just as you did for California.

Warmest personal regards,

G.E. Hap Lambert.

I am writing this on some of Pauls Stationary when he was President, and I was his Treas. In tribute to Paul.
