Dear Mr. Block:

Thank you very much for my birthday gift. I should say gifts -- those handsome neckties. I'm wearing one now as I do this letter. I'm having a very happy 35th anniversary of my 39th birthday thanks to you. You were very kind and I'm most grateful.

Again, my thanks and very best regards.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Dear Mr. Garry:

Thank you very much for your February 6, 1911 radio script. I'm overwhelmed by the extent of your research and truly grateful to you for a most unique birthday greeting.

I share your interest in the past and fancy myself to be something of a history buff but will confess I never would have thought of an undertaking such as yours. Again, my heartfelt thanks.

Best regards,

DONALD SEABAL A

Honorable Kathleen Osborne
Personal Secretary to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ms. Osborne,

I was about to mail the enclosed radio news script to the President when a mutual friend, Mr. Ward Quaal, graciously suggested I address it to your attention.

The accompanying letter to the President gives the rationale for a radio news report of events the day Mr. Reagan was born.

Since time immemorial, the past has held a fascination for mankind. It just seemed to me that the President might be intrigued by this particular page from history.

I hope the President's 74th birthday is both a happy and memorable one.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Frederick:

Thank you for brightening a drab, rainy day in Washington. I'm sorry I have just completed the Cabinet re-do here. Otherwise I would have availed myself of your services. I'm trying to think of some way I could apply an appropriate title to Congress that would make that body a fit object for your remodeling.

Please know that Nancy and I are truly grateful and will be showing your letter around for quite a while. We wish you all the best and, again, thanks.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN A

President and Mrs. Ronald Reagan
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Reagan:

As per the recent newspaper articles I have read, I understand you are in the process of a major cabinet remodeling project.

As you can see by the enclosed flyer, cabinet remodeling is our business. Being a young and aggressive company, we offer our expertise and vast experience in cabinet remodeling, whenever and wherever the opportunity arises.

(Cabinet remodeling is a major decision and I would be happy to meet with you at your convenience to discuss the many possibilities.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at any time. I feel we could successfully work together as our attitudes seem to run parallel; i.e., reface--don't replace.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Barry

Thank you very much for your Feb. 6 1911 radio script. I'm overwhelmed by the extent of your research and truly grateful to you for a most unique birthday greeting.

I share your interest in the past and fancy myself to be something of a history buff but will confess I never would have thought of such an undertaking such as yours. Again my heartfelt thanks.

Best Regards
RR

To Mr. Dan Frederick - Doors & Drawers of Ellahart

Dear Mr. Frederick 3510 S. Main - Ellahart Ind. 46517

Thank you for brightening a drab rainy day in Wash.
I'm sorry I have just completed the cabinet re-do here. Otherwise I would have availed myself of your services. I'm trying to think of some way I could apply an appropriate title to Congress that would make that body a fit object for your remodeling.

Please know that Nancy & I are truly grateful & will be showing your letter around for quite a while.

We wish you all the best and again thanks.

Sincerely RR

Dear Jean:

Thank you for your message and for writing as you did, and thank you for your prayers. I believe in such intercessory prayers and know I have received help because of them -- help without which I could not meet the demands of this task. My own prayer is that I can carry out the duties of this job so as to serve Him.

Thank you again and God bless you.

Sincerely,

My dear Mr. President,
I am sitting here in this magnificent new court, watching "Christened" and looking upon, Colorado, and my friends and your & the Holy Spirit have spoken very clearly to me to write you what is in my heart - as He says in His word "out of the abundant heart the mouth speaketh" my heart is over flowing with great gratitude appreciation, respect and constant daily prayerful love & protection for you, Mary & your family, that I much approve my feelings
I have no words to be able to do this holidays, but my feelings were too spiritual & deep to say what I felt at a social function, the timing was incorrect - I thank you Mr. President for being His instrument & doing His mighty work for His beautiful, magnificent and precious Nation, The United States of America. He elected you Mr. President, because He knew you well and have followed His every direction and His decisions every step of your ways - you have proven that to His and to His people - Psalms 18, 1-5 - 16-55

My prayers, my friendship (we have so few) and my love in Christ Jesus are with you & His people.

Dear Irene and Pete:

Thank you very much for my birthday gift. I'm delighted to have this Frederic Remington book. Some people are turned on by Rembrandt but my Rembrandt is Remington.

You were more than kind and I'm more grateful than I can say. Bless you.

Dear Mrs. Weinberg:

My "roommate" and I thank you and Mr. Weinberg very much for the peanut brittle. We're addicted and most grateful to you for nourishing our habit. I'm sorry about the movies; we'll try to run some "Golden Oldies" instead of the current crop so Mark can see one now and then with you. To tell you the truth, I'd like an excuse to do that because I'm partial to the ones we used to make. I got carried away one weekend and made them look at Bedtime for Bonzo.

Again, our heartfelt thanks for the candy. Nancy sends her best.

Dear Mr. President,

My husband and I thought you and your "roommate" might enjoy this peanut brittle at Camp David.

By the way, when Mark was recently home we tried to find a movie to take him to, but no luck; he had seen them all with you!

Best wishes for a successful second term.

Dear Mr. Watkins:

It was good to see you the other day although the visit was entirely too brief. I've had time to really look at that most handsome album and all the photos and want to thank you again. I'm pleased and proud to have it. You'd be surprised how the RR buff in me has risen to the surface. If they don't watch me, I may do with Air Force One what my predecessor did with the "Sequoia."

Again, a heartfelt thanks in which Nancy joins me.

Dear Mr. President:

On the eve of your inauguration, we at CSX Corporation thought you might enjoy the enclosed album of photographs taken during the trip of the "Heartland Special" through Ohio on our Chessie System Railroad.

For many of us, your trip prompted fond memories of earlier Presidential specials, but, in our recollection, none have resulted in grander or more supportive crowds.

Operating the "Special" was a great honor. In fact, it clearly was the highlight of Chessie's year. Our only regret is that the Constitution will keep us from running another campaign train for you in 1988!

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Hays Watkins

Dear Brute:

Thanks for your letter and the item I can hang on my jacket. I keep looking down the road to the time I can wear it at Owl's Nest.

But once again my biggest thank you is for that "open letter column." I'm most grateful for what I know will be helpful. I like your title for our strategic defense initiative. I bristle every time our media friends (?) call it "Star Wars."

I enjoyed your book but was amazed to learn of the extent of the effort that was made to do away with the Marine Corps. Thank the Lord they failed.

Best regards,

RON

Dear Mr. President:

Enclosed is a current column in the form of an Open Letter to the President. I hope it may help your immense constituency to see the magnitude of our problems and the great need to give you their active support.

You will note that I use the term "Shield in Space" as preferable to "Star Wars" (lacking in realism) or "Strategic Defense Initiative (a little elevated)".

At an Owl's Nest meeting last week the first toast was to your health and success.

Enclosed is something to put on the pocket of your corduroy jacket.

Sincerely,
