Dear Proctor:

Thank you very much for sending me your book. Nancy says thank you also. We are taking it to Camp David with us for the weekend, where we'll fight to see who gets to read it first.

You were more than kind and we're both most grateful.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Dear Mr. President:

It is with great pleasure that I send you my second book on the Soviet Union. This book, as you will see, contains interviews with a group of Russian people doing ordinary jobs. Many of these people are from Latvia, Lithuania, and the Asiatic republics, as well as from central Russia.

I was very pleased when Armand Hammer offered to write the introduction to it. I hope it will give you and Mrs. Reagan pleasure.

I hope next year we'll see you at the Grove.

With respect,

Dear Howard

What a happy surprise to get your good letter on this first day of snow in Wash. You made the day brighter in spite of the snow. Thanks for your generous words about my job here.

You mentioned memorabilia for Eureka, we've already sent a few things and will continue to do so. I have to ~~accept~~ recognize the priority of the "Library" of course but I've told Fred Ryan to see that Eureka gets a share of what we have. That will include also some official papers.

Well Howard thanks for a trip down memory lane, all the way to that 1st Red Devil uniform. All the best to you. Sincerely Ron

Dear Friends:

First of all, I would thank you for the very beautiful remembrance of me on my birthday. I have commented on it to many people even though I realize it's very repetitious of similar things you do for everyone, but it is appropriate. The warmth of your letter and the thoughtfulness of sending it are deeply treasured.

I take this opportunity to congratulate you both on the excellence of your leadership for fine things, like increased patriotism, dedication to the American way of life and confidence for the future. I am very grateful for this and all of my constituents are as well. I hope that you both have a very happy retirement in every respect, full of the good deeds which you have done and I am sure you are going to continue to do.

With warmest and kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely, your friend,

Charles E. Bennett

Dear Mr. President & Mrs. Reagan,

It was a thrill at Christmas to receive the "Reagan bowl." It is a beautiful memento of a great administration. Thanks for thinking of us.

It has been an honor to serve you, but equally important it has been fun. Marcia and I both wish you every happiness in 1989.

Paul
