Dear Bess and Moon:

I don't know when this will be seen by you globe trotters -- but you'll come home sometime. That fellow with the Eureka contribution in Japan must be in the automobile business. It sounds like quite a trip in every way.

I'm not surprised you saw the Pope. After all, I made it and I'm a Protestant. Maybe he didn't know that. I'm glad you met Nakasone (Prime Minister) in Japan. He's quite a guy and really wants to bring our two countries closer.

The package with the belt buckles arrived and we've sent a thank you.

Nancy sends her best. By the way, while you were gone you became a great Uncle and Aunt again. Mike and Colleen (if you haven't heard) had a baby girl -- Ashley Marie.

Love,

Dear Sir -

Don't know who this is but sent the enclosed to send on to you both.

Back from the big trip. Had sessions with Finance minister of Germany & Japan - Premier and ~~two~~ ^{two} ~~premiere~~ ^{premiere} of Japan and the Finance minister. Saw and had dinner with the Wilsons and Raabs in Rome and with Mike Mansfield & wife in Tokyo. Bert and I had private audience with the Pope.

Off tomorrow to Tucson for a week - then home - re pack and off to Eureka for board meeting and 50th class reunion then on to Des Moines for 10 days.

Back to Tokyo - the day we were to ^{over} an old boy flew in from the out-country to see me in the Hotel. He said he visited Calif. when you Gov. first time.

He spoke to a joint session of the Calif. Legislature during your first term as Gov. spoke highly of you. Said he learned of my being in Japan from news stories in paper and T.V. of my session with Japanese Prime Minister.

At end of visit the friend with him made a little presentation for him. It was $100,000.00 American in Yen for the college. The friend included in his presentation he said "I like American but since our meeting today I like America even more."

Will be available for any assignments

Dear Mr. President:

As many thousands of your countrymen must have let you know by this time, your speech to Congress last night was superb. It addressed eloquently one of the major issues facing the West. As you said, I cannot believe that there exists in the US Congress, let alone in the country at large, a majority prepared to ignore the truths you underscored.

Of course it goes without saying (but I'll say it anyway), your delivery was masterful. I can't wait to see you debate Mondale, (or Hart, or Cranston, or whoever. Would that it could be Kennedy!) Congratulations ...

... and thanks,

Just a line (somewhat tardy) to thank you for your letter and kind words. I'm most grateful. The battle goes on and there will be a struggle to win approval in the House of any meaningful help in Central America. We still have a few who can see no threat from the left -- only from the right and you don't have to be very far right.

Dear Mr. President:

Attached is another mailgram which I sent to all 535 members of Congress. I have received 20 or 30 responses to my first mailgram, and they are still coming in at a rate of five or ten per day. I hope to hear from most of them.

In many cases they say that they agree, and in many other cases they agree, "but" Some are suffering from the tax, spend and elect disease, and it's going to be very hard, if not impossible, to cure them. Hopefully, a little more than half can be cured, and then we can have a good, stable country once again.

Fran and I thoroughly enjoyed your speech in Houston at the Tower banquet. You looked great and you are great! We're looking forward to a vigorous campaign here in Texas for you in 1984. We want you to be our candidate and we are getting our organization ready right now.

I know you are busy, so please don't take time to answer this letter. I just wanted you to know what's going on in Texas

Best regards.

DEAR MEMBER OF CONGRESS:

FRONT PAGE HEADLINES IN THE HOUSTON POST FINAL EDITION, APRIL 26,
"FEDERAL DEFICIT HITS RECORD $129 BILLION IN JUST 6 MONTHS."

WALL STREET JOURNAL OF APRIL 12, HAD AN ARTICLE ON ITS EDITORIAL PAGE
ENTITLED "PIERRE TRUDEAU'S 15 YEARS OF FAILURE."

I'M SURE YOU KNOW VERY WELL THAT OUR BELOVED COUNTRY IS BEING CRUSHED BY AN EVER-INCREASING NATIONAL DEBT WHICH IS ABOUT TO REACH THE EXPLODING POINT. IF SOMETHING IS NOT DONE QUICKLY, THIS EXCESSIVE DEBT WILL CHANGE OUR POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC SYSTEM FROM ONE OF DEMOCRACY AND FREE ENTERPRISE, FREE MARKET, CAPITALISTIC SYSTEM TO AN OUT AND OUT SOCIALIST SYSTEM, SUCH AS PIERRE TRUDEAU'S CANADA, GREAT BRITAIN, MITTERRAND'S FRANCE AND THE MANY OTHER WESTERN EUROPEAN SOCIALIST COUNTRIES AND THE OTHER SOCIALIST COUNTRIES IN THE WORLD.

ALL MEMBERS OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS HAVE TAKEN A SOLEMN OATH TO PROTECT OUR FREEDOMS, PROTECT OUR CONSTITUTION, AND TO PROTECT OUR FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

- THIS IS NOT BEING DONE. I REPEAT -- THIS IS NOT BEING DONE.

THE TOTAL NATIONAL DEBT NOW STANDS AT $1.24 TRILLION AND RISING.
NATIONAL DEFICIT FOR FISCAL YEAR 1983, WHICH BEGAN IN OCTOBER, APPEARS TO BE APPROXIMATELY $210.2 BILLION, AND ESTIMATED FOR FISCAL YEAR 1984 IS $190 BILLION. FINANCING THE NATIONAL DEBT THIS YEAR IS ESTIMATED TO COST $128 BILLION, MAKING IT THE THIRD HIGHEST SPENDING CATEGORY IN THE FEDERAL BUDGET.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ABSOLUTELY AND POSITIVELY CANNOT AFFORD THIS EXPLOSIVE TYPE OF EXPENDITURE. TO QUOTE WILL ROGERS, "IT'S A GOOD THING WE'RE NOT GETTING ALL THE GOVERNMENT WE'RE PAYING FOR." IF WE WERE, IT WOULD BE AN IMMEDIATE DISASTER.

WHAT IS NEEDED? WE MUST BREAK THE CYCLE OF TAX, TAX, SPEND, SPEND,
AND ELECT, ELECT. MEMBERS OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS MUST VOTE
ONLY FOR WHAT IS GOOD FOR AMERICA AND ABSOLUTELY REJECT THE PRINCIPLE OF WHAT WILL SIMPLY GET THEM REELECTED. THIS IS NOT WHAT YOU WERE

SENT TO WASHINGTON TO DO. YOU WERE SENT THERE TO LOOK AFTER THE BEST INTEREST OF OUR BELOVED COUNTRY, AND WHETHER OR NOT YOU GET REELECTED IS SECONDARY. THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT ANY LONGER HAVE THE RESOURCES TO DEAL SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH EVERY CONCERN OR PROBLEM. WE MUST ESTABLISH PRIORITIES.

CONGRESS MUST DO THE FOLLOWING:

(1) PASS A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT MANDATING A BALANCED BUDGET, EXCEPT IN WAR TIME.

(2) AVOID ALL SORTS OF QUICK-FIX SOLUTIONS. MAKE LONG-RANGE PLANS TO SOLVE THE REAL PROBLEMS (STOP TRADING SHORT-TERM GAINS FOR LONG-TERM DISASTROUS LOSSES.)

(3) STOP PLAYING POLITICS WITH TAXPAYERS' DOLLARS.

(4) TAKE ALL THE ESCALATING FACTORS OUT OF THE FEDERAL BUDGET EXCEPT IN TIME OF DOUBLE-DIGIT INFLATION. (IF CONGRESS IS FISCALLY RESPONSIBLE AND BEHAVES PROPERLY, WE SHOULD NOT HAVE DOUBLE-DIGIT INFLATION FOR THE REST OF THIS CENTURY.)

A PROGRAM OF FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY SHOULD BE STARTED IMMEDIATELY:::::

- YOU CANNOT WAIT ANY LONGER.
- OVERSPENDING AND OVERTAXING ARE THE FAULT OF CONGRESS - - NOT THE PRESIDENT.
- MEMBERS OF CONGRESS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR OUR ENORMOUS DEBT, STAGGERING DEFICITS AND PAST INFLATION.
- NO PRESIDENT IS TO BLAME, THE PEOPLE ARE NOT TO BLAME --
- ONLY MEMBERS OF CONGRESS ARE TO BLAME.
- BITE THE BULLET. DO WHAT IS RIGHT.
- START BY FREEZING EXPENDITURES AND TAXES.

SINCERELY,

MEMORANDUM FOR KATHY OSBORNE
PERSONAL SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Palm Springs Desert Museum

There is no legal prohibition to complying with Mr. Marks' request to use the President's name "to head a list of Friends of William Holden." Because of the large number of similar requests (and the political downside risks inherent in accepting certain "causes" while rejecting others), White House policy has been to deny invitations to use the President's name in connection with charitable fundraising endeavors. Since the Palm Springs Desert Museum's request does not imply such activity, I see no harm in the President allowing his name to be used on a commemorative plaque as a "Friend of William Holden" should he desire to do so.

I don't know if the President missed Fred Fielding's note to me on the back of this letter. If you have no objection, we'll go ahead and tell Mr. Marks he can use RR's name.

Dear Mr. President:

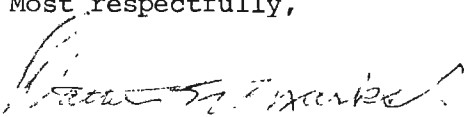

William Holden, the actor, and I were friends for twenty-five years. I have been told that you were his best man at his wedding.

We recently learned that he left his entire art collection to our Palm Springs Desert Museum. We are showing a portion of the collection now in the Museum and find that the interest is so great that our attendance since the opening of the show has increased so tremendously, that the Trustees of the Museum are planning a new area of approximately 5,000 square feet as a permanent home for his collection.

Would you allow us to use your name to head a list of Friends of William Holden? This plaque would be placed in one of the new galleries.

I look forward to hearing from you and appreciate your consideration of this matter.

May 17, 1983

Dear Mr. President:

I want to tell you how well my discussions went with Prime Minister Nakasone during my recent trip to Japan. When I gave him your letter about our new exchange program inviting the 47 Japanese Prefectures each to send an exchange student, as a response to Japan's program inviting each U.S. Senator to send a student to Japan, his reaction was especially positive. "This is most happy news!" he exclaimed. "Thank you very much; I completely agree with the President. I fully share his view. I hope the American students coming here will be warmly welcomed, and I am sure the students from each Japanese Prefecture will be welcomed in the United States." (A copy of your letter is enclosed for your convenience.)

Japanese business leaders also reacted very positively to proposed increases of exchanges of young people. I met with a number of top leaders to discuss how corporate support of youth exchange could be enhanced. They were very inspired by the leadership of your President's Council for International Youth Exchange. I think it likely that a Japanese counterpart will be established in the near future.

In my discussion with Prime Minister Nakasone, I related how the President's Council for International Youth Exchange comprises about 100 of America's top corporate chiefs who are matching the $10 million Government appropriation over three years. Prime Minister Nakasone expressed his desire to involve corporate leaders in Japan as we have done here.

I suggested to him that he consider a tax deduction for corporate support of international exchanges. My line of reasoning offered to him was a concept that the initial tax revenue loss arising from a deduction would in turn create tax revenues as the original deducted amount was spent on airfares, lodging, books, etc. Further, when American students come to Japan as part of the exchange program, it would be interesting to find out how much money they bring to be spent in Japan. Adding the tax revenues generated by the dollar expenditures in Japan together with tax revenues generated in implementing the exchanges, conceivably could offset the original loss of tax revenue.

The President
The White House

The Prime Minister was extremely intrigued with this idea. He said, "I have been personally thinking about this problem for a long time. Either the government could increase funds for exchanges which is not always easy to do, or we should rely on the private sector. I think we should rely on the private sector." He said that he would try to develop this.

The Prime Minister's support for exchanges reinforced in my own mind the importance of bringing up your President's Youth Initiative at the Williamsburg Summit. Nakasone's strong support of youth exchange follows the earlier endorsements by Chancellor Kohl and former Prime Minister Spadolini of Italy. Formal support of youth exchange by the seven leaders, recorded in the final statement, will be a significant step in developing national and international visibility for the program, as well as the needed financial support.

Our efforts to include the President's Youth Initiative at the Summit have borne fruit. We have received confirmation from Under Secretary Lawrence Eagleburger that youth exchange will be on the agenda at Williamsburg. Judge Clark has directed that a photo opportunity with the seven leaders and a group of young people also be scheduled during the course of the meeting. Both the group photograph and mention in the final statement will dramatize the importance we place on contact and understanding among future generations.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

WASHINGTON

April 11, 1983

Dear Yasu:

I am pleased that you are able to receive Charles Z. Wick, the Director of the United States Information Agency, and my personal representative on the President's International Youth Exchange Initiative because I know that you and I share the belief that the experiences of our young people indeed shape our future world. I was moved when you were here in January by your description of the experience which your own daughter had as an exchange student in the United States. That is what our initiative is all about -- the turning of nations into individuals.

Mr. Wick is visiting Japan to discuss with his counterparts in your Government various topics involving information and cultural exchange which are of interest to both our nations. None of them is more important than the Youth Exchange Initiative. From the United States side, and with our funding, we hope to be able to double the number of exchange students between the United States and Japan while maintaining the high quality which has been a hallmark of these programs. One of the most significant new programs being planned is intended to return the generous Japanese hospitality offered to American youth through your program involving the United States Senate. Our program would bring one young person from each of your prefectures to spend a year attending an American high school, while living with an American family. Mr. Wick will be discussing details of this program with Foreign Minister Abe and Minister of Education Setoyama.

Mrs. Reagan joins me in sending you and Mrs. Nakasone our very best wishes. We look forward to seeing you very soon.

Dear Brute:

Thanks very much for your columns. As usual you were right on target. I've circulated them among our top people here.

I'll be thinking about you the first week in June -- more when you are tidying up Owl's Nest than on the golf week-end. Give everyone my best and tell them I miss you all.

Sincerely,

Ron

on the instant dissection of Presidential speeches.
I'm reading more and enjoying it more.

Bill on your suggestion about a special emissary to the Vatican. I can't fault the suggestion but believe it would cause some problems. You know we have an envoy, Billy Wilson. He is a dedicated Catholic and is the first such envoy from our country to make the post literally full time. He and Betty have taken a house in Rome and he has established a very close relationship with the top echelon including His Holiness. I just don't see how I could send a special representative without causing a morale problem and probable resignation.

Your column was great and truly put things in focus.
I must say I have smarted under these instant ex-plantions that go on the air within minutes of the speech. There is an arrogance about them I find very offensive.

Nancy sends her love and from both of us to Pat.

Sincerely,

Ron
