Dear Bill:

Have your letter in hand and hasten to reply before you get lost somewhere in the Pacific. Robert Bork has been on the Circuit Court since February of 1982 which, as you know, is as high as you can go except for the Supreme Court. I know of no change with regard to him, but the top court is not on the front burner because no one seems inclined to retire as yet.

I think whatever rumor you heard has to do with general conversation quite awhile back regarding the fact that, to our knowledge, no Italian-American has ever been on the Court. But all of that was in the context of possibly having a number of appointments open up before I ride off into the sunset.

Now the important thing is a sailing trip to New Guinea! I know you've been holed up in Kabul for a long time -- don't you know we have ships that don't need sails anymore? It all started with a fellow named Fulton. You can get to New Guinea several times as fast lolling in a deck chair -- without pulling and hauling on a lot of ropes. Just a thought for you to conjure with.

Love to Pat.

Sincerely,

Ron

Dear Mrs. Nuese:

Well, it was good to hear from you after too long a time. I remember broadcasting a few football games at Iowa State in Ames in my sports announcing days. Dare I admit -- that was 50 years ago? I don't believe it.

Now about Jennie's trip -- and, yes, I'd like very much to meet her and so would Nancy. We will be away from Washington on that final July weekend but not leaving until around mid-afternoon on Friday. If Jennie's schedule is such that she'll be here and free on Friday afternoon, we can meet. Or if she's still here on Monday the 29th it can be arranged then. Keep in touch with my secretary, Kathy Osborne, who will be able to arrange a visit if Jennie's schedule permits. Kathy can also schedule in a White House tour Saturday morning if Jennie would be interested.

Again, it's good to hear from you. Wait 'til I tell Nancy I'm corresponding with a coed.

Best regards,

RONALD REAGAN

Your Eminence:

Thank you for your very kind, warm letter of June 26. You make me very proud. I appreciate, too, the message from The Holy Father. Nancy was privileged to meet with His Holiness during our trip to Bonn. While I was involved in the Economic Summit meetings, she journeyed to Rome on an errand having to do with the problem of drug abuse throughout the world. She sends her warmest regard to you as do I and, again, thank you for your letter -- and more importantly for your prayers.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

It was a great honor for me to receive your gracious handwritten undated note concerning your recent trip to Germany, and I shall keep it among my valued possessions.

I particularly appreciate your note and copy of your poignant and prayerful remarks, in view of the telegram I sent you prior to your trip. If that telegram reached you, you may recall that the intense feeling and concern transmitted to me by so many people, coupled with specific requests from unexpected sources, prompted me to propose that you consider revising your itinerary. At the same time I expressed my conviction that you would do what you thought to be right. It is quite obvious, I believe, that you did precisely that.

It is my pleasure to convey to you the prayerful best wishes of the Holy Father, with whom I was privileged to meet while in Rome for the recent Consistory, and to add my own sentiments of highest esteem, together with a promise of continuing prayers for you and Mrs. Reagan.

Faithfully,

Thank you very much for your kind letter of June 27. It was good of you to write as you did and I'm most grateful. I'm grateful, too, for so many who prayed, and to God for answering those prayers. Now we must go on until we have secured the freedom of the seven kidnap victims. They, too, must be brought home.

Again, my thanks to you.

Dear Mr. President,

As a governor of a state of nearly eighteen million Americans all of them anguished over the plight of the hostages, I want to commend your handling of the situation and urge your continued restraint with firmness. We know that nothing you are charged with is more important than your expiring responsibility here. We know how hard is the challenge to secure the safe return of our Americans without creating invitations to further terrorism. And you should know that the entire family of New York prays with you and for you.

Respectfully,
Mario Cuomo

Dear President Reagan -

Two weeks ago I returned from a sailing vacation in the West Indies. We visited Barbados and sailed amongst the islands from St. Vincent to Grenada. While there, we were extremely touched by the warmth and sentiments toward the USA and toward us, as Americans. Our cab drivers and individuals we met along the way were eager to talk and express to us the details of events leading to American intervention in Grenada and it's importance to them and their future.

The enclosed photo was taken in Prickly Bay in Georgetown, Grenada. I could not resist asking to take the photo and now would like to share it with you. Hope you enjoy it.

Dear Mr. Coolidge:

Thank you very much. I have just received the book about your father, delivered by Clem Conger, and look forward to reading it.

Thanks, too, for your inscription and please give my thanks to Jane and Will Curtis and Frank Lieberman for their inscriptions, but more importantly, for writing the book. The longer I'm in this job the more I appreciate your father.

Dear Mrs. Donald:

We were delighted to receive your letter of June 19, received June 28, enclosing the new book Return to these Hills, The Vermont Years of Calvin Coolidge as a gift to President Reagan. We note that it is autographed by John Coolidge, the President's son as well the authors Jane Curtis, Will Curtis, and Frank Lieberman.

I am sure the President will enjoy reading this book. The President will probably wish to retain it for the Reagan Library. I hope that you will be able to send us another copy for the White House Library. I am sending this volume on to the President. I am sure Mr. John Coolidge will receive a thank you letter in due course.

Very sincerely,

RR*

Dear President Reagan,

If anyone questioned Pat Buchanan's loyalty, I'd like to meet him face-to-face and give him a good piece of my mind. I've known Pat for almost 20 years and the hard-working newspapermen (I was one for 37 years) who knew and admire him are legend. Jimmy Kilgallen and Bob Considine and myself would bend an elbow over a brew in a 3rd Ave. saloon years ago and talk about Pat and what the future holds for him. His devotion and allegiance to the United States and whomever he works for is well known. He can spot a phony a mile away.

Having Pat on your staff is a privilege, Mr. President.
He speaks your language.

*Respectfully
Pat Doyle*
