April 6, 1983

Edward C. Schmults, Esq.
Deputy Attorney General
Department of Justice
10th Street & Constitution Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear Ed,

Thank you for your letter of April 1, 1983, for having never doubted my qualifications to serve as a federal judge, and for continuing to believe that I would be a credit to the bench. My wife also appreciated your letter to her of the same date in which you stated that you do not doubt my integrity, intelligence or personal commitment to equal justice for all Americans. We are complimented that you have concluded that "the civil rights opposition which has formed against Ben's nomination" is unfair. Fielding, Rose and others have also written letters to us and our friends expressing the same beliefs.

Because I have had some spare time for scholarship and research during recent months, I have devoted some time to the study of Eunuchry. My prior knowledge of the subject was sketchy at best. Essentially, I was only familiar with the employment of eunuchs as harem attendants and was unaware of their historical involvement in important affairs of state.

Eunuchs functioned as political advisers in China as early as the Chou dynasty (1122-221 B.C.) and continued almost until the end of the Imperial regime. During Yüan Ti's reign (48-33 B.C.), several eunuchs succeeded in reaching powerful, political positions. When Hsien Tsung, who reigned from 806-820, was murdered by some of his eunuch attendants, eunuch influence in politics increased. The chief eunuchs of the palace council and the palace armies intervened in nearly every succession to the throne until the accession of Wu Tsung in 840. He and his successors continued to rely upon the eunuchs but seem to have been comparatively little influenced by them.

Eunuchs also functioned as powerful, political advisers in the Persian, Roman, Byzantine and Muslim empires. Eunuchs were always completely dependent upon their rulers whom they served as bodyguards, generals, admirals, diplomats and counselors.

In Italy, boys were castrated in order that they could retain their soprano voices into adulthood. That practice of creating castrati continued as late as 1878 when it was ended by Pope Leo XIII. Lord Lansdowne, in 1732, chastised certain "modern writers" when he said that they "... like Eunuchs ... sacrifice their manhood for a Voice and reduce Poetry, like Echo to be nothing but Sound." Surely, that analogy would apply to all who sacrifice their manhood for a voice.

St. Matthew (19:12) said that there are three types of eunuchs, those who are so born from their mother's womb, those which were made eunuchs of men, and those who made eunuchs of themselves. Other authors have referred to eunuchs as "that third Species of Mankind" and have refused to commend them for their chastity. Generally, eunuchs have not been a greatly admired class throughout the ages but have been considered warblers and squallers filling a licensed stage.

You have expressed the hope that I will understand the Administration's position regarding me. Since I have not to date been relieved of my masculinity, I intend to take certain actions. I hope that you and the Administration will show the same understanding of those actions as I have been requested to show for those which you have already taken.

Sincerely,

Ben C. Tolodano

P.S. Please feel free to show this letter to anyone, including Meese, Fielding and even Rose.
