Dear Mr. Gale,

Just a note to express the gratitude of all of us here at the Seminary for your efforts on our behalf. President Reagan's letter was read at the opening of our dedication ceremonies on Sunday, and warmly received. It was good of you to see that the letter reached us in time, and that the sentiments expressed were those our audience most wanted to hear. The original letter will have an honored place in the archives of the Ivan F. and Seema Boesky Family Library.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Wyler

Dear Max:

I have great pleasure in introducing to you Mr. Dan Jacob. He is a person of unusual ability; deep intelligence and understanding. He is also committed to our political point of view. Dan has an impressive resume' which you will find enclosed.

I would very much appreciate your doing for Mr. Jacob whatever you can to facilitate his entry into the service of the United States. I have known him for several years and had the pleasure of working with him on some important projects. Dan has most recently served as editor of my book, to be entitled Classical and Contemporary Jewish Perspectives: politics, ethics and theology. Dan's polished research and writing skills will make him an integral component to your staff.

Throughout his undergraduate experience at Columbia University and the Jewish Theological Seminary, Mr. Jacob has pursued a rigorous academic program aimed at sharpening his analytic and communicative skills. Having started his own business during college, he comes to you with a passion for both creating and implementing policy, as well as a poise for working with people. Most essentially, he brings the motivation to work through projects from inception to completion.

I hope that you can be of help to Mr. Jacob. Please feel free to contact me for any further information.

Very truly yours,

Seymour Siegel
