Dear President Reagan:

This is to express our appreciation for the splendid presentation made to our members on U.S.-Israel relations and U.S. policy in the Middle East. Geoffrey Kemp's presentation on July 9 at the White House was both candid and analytical. And our Jewish elected officials came out of the discussion much better informed.

We want to thank Mrs. Elizabeth Dole and her aides for their cooperation in arranging the meeting. They were most cooperative. We look forward to a continuation of these occasional meetings when we can of help.

Sincerely yours,

Albert J. Abrams

Dear Mike:

As incoming president of the National Association of Jewish Legislators, I want to thank you personally for helping to organize our informative and constructive meeting at the White House this past Friday, July 9.

I will be assuming office at the end of the month and invite you to communicate with me whenever our organization may be helpful on matters of mutual concern.

Warm regards.

Sincerely,

Steven V. Sklar
