PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: DROPBY BRIEFING FOR CONFERENCE OF,
PRESIDENTS OF MAJOR JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 1986

Good afternoon and welcome to the White House Complex. That's what we call these buildings -- "the White House Complex" -- it's also what you get when you've been working here too long.

I'm glad to have this chance to meet with you today. There is a vote coming up in Congress of utmost importance and I need your support. I'm talking about our request for $100 million in humanitarian and military aid to the democratic resistance forces in Nicaragua.

To some Americans, Nicaragua may seem a small country, far away. Why, they wonder, should we care what happens there. Why should we spend $100 million on someone else's fight. Well, today I want to talk about why we must care; why the United States has not only a moral but a vital strategic interest in supporting freedom in Central America. There are many things at stake in this vote -- the hopes of the Nicaraguan people to live in freedom and democracy; the hopes of the people of Central and South America to live in peace, free from Communist subversion.

But there is another issue that overrides all the others -- the national security of the United States. Let there be no mistake -- if we fail to provide timely assistance now, if we abandon our allies in freedom and allow the Communists to establish a permanent beachhead on the American mainland, we will be living with the consequences for a long time to come.

There's been a lot of misinformation floating around about the true character of the Nicaraguan Communists. Perhaps, it would be more accurate to call it disinformation. I sometimes wonder why people don't just listen to what the Communists themselves say because, when they're not up here in Washington lobbying Congress, they are quite open about their true intentions.

For instance, take their ties to fanatical terrorist groups in the Middle East. Those ties go back decades. Tomas Borge, Nicaragua's Minister of Interior, was one of many Sandinista Communists to train in PLO camps in Lebanon and Libya. To quote Borge's own words: "We say to our brother Arafat that Nicaragua is his land and the PLO cause is the cause of the Sandinistas." Yassar Arafat returned the compliment, saying, "The triumph of the Nicaraguans is the PLO's triumph."

Or listen to what the Sandinista Communists say about Qadhafi whom they call, quote, "...our great friend..." Borge again: "Our friendship with Libya is eternal.... Libya is a people which, in accordance with our experience, has developed solidarity without frontiers." Remember that: "solidarity without frontiers." Qadhafi, meanwhile, has been openly sending them millions of dollars of arms, because, he says, the Nicaraguan Communists fight with Libya. "They fight America on its own ground."

The Nicaraguan Communists have also drawn close to the Iranians. Just last year, the Iranian Prime Minister, who is thought to control Iran's terrorist apparatus, said to Daniel

Ortega, quote, "We consider your revolutionary country as our home."

The Sandinista Communists have matched their words with actions, joining the PLO in many terrorist assaults in the Middle East, including the attempted overthrow of the Hussein Government and the hijacking of an El Al airliner. The Sandinista terrorist who was killed in that El Al hijacking, Arguello Ryan, is now revered as a hero by the Nicaraguan Government. So much so that they recently named a large power dam after him.

The Nicaraguan Communists claim that they are not anti-semitic, just anti-Zionist. As anti-Zionists, they painted swastikas on the doors of Managua's synagogue and drove the small Jewish community into exile. Isaac Stavisky, who was there, tells of the anti-Jewish Sandinista graffiti: "Death to the Jewish Pigs," with large FSLN initials next to it, and "Beware Sandinista Justice." What was the official Sandinista response when questioned about this persecution of the Jewish community? The Jews, they said, had a, quote, "bourgeois mentality" that prevented them from adjusting to communism.

The Communists have also rolled out the welcome mat for terrorists from around the world -- not just Cubans, Bulgarians, Libyans, PLO, and Iranians, but members of the infamous Baader-Mienhoff gang, the Basque ETA, and the Italian Red Brigade. These are the thugs and lunatics who now camp out on the doorstep of the United States.

Let's not kid ourselves, the Sandinistas are self-avowed, committed Communists, and Communists since the days of Lenin have openly advocated the use of terrorism to attain political ends. If the Sandinistas are allowed to consolidate their hold on Nicaragua, we'll have a permanent staging ground for terrorism -- a home away from home for Qadhafi, Arafat and the Ayatollah Khomeini -- just 3 hours by air from the United States border. The recent terrorist attack on the Palace of Justice in Colombia, in which the Sandinista Communists were seriously implicated, is just the beginning -- the first rumblings of a Communist earthquake that could sweep Latin America.

Some still insist that the Sandinistas are "nationalists." They laugh at the idea. They are true "international Communists," who talk about a "revolution without borders" and have willingly, even eagerly, put their country at the disposal of the Cubans and the Soviet Union. Everyone who is thinking about this aid package should ask themselves one question. The Sandinista Communists have shown themselves intent on subversion throughout Latin America. If they succeed in throwing the whole area into turmoil; if the United States must contend with a growing number of hostile, aggressive Communist states close to its borders, how willing, or able, will we be to meet our commitments to other allies? Our supply lines to Israel and our NATO allies run through the Caribbean. The Soviets are already banking on this fact -- even if some in Congress would rather ignore it.

Recently, there has been an intensive effort to discredit the democratic opposition in Nicaragua. Let me say a few words about "disinformation." Some of us have been around long enough to know that disinformation has a long history. I remember the reports of Walter Duranty from Stalin's Russia, who denied the existence of the gulags and forced famine -- even though he had witnessed, first hand, Stalin's massive genocide. I remember Lincoln Steffens' famous statement when he returned from that land of slaughter and said, "I have been over into the future, and it works." I remember Herbert Matthews' reports on Castro before he came to power, calling him a "Jeffersonian democrat." Those reports helped shape the climate in Washington that allowed us to cut off aid to Batista and facilitate Castro's march into Havana.

Likewise, we were told Ho Chi Mihn and Pol Pot were just nationalists -- this before the mass exodus of boat people and the murder of a third of the entire population of Cambodia. History moves on, the smoke screen of lies and disinformation vanishes, and the brutal reality of communism is always laid bare. But by then it is too late.

So today we see an orchestrated effort to slander the freedom fighters. But who shall we believe -- dedicated Communists, who call their supporters in this country "useful fools"? Or lifelong democrats like Arturo Cruz, Alfonso Rebelo, Adolfo Calero, who opposed the Somoza dictatorship just as they fight the Communist tyranny today? Shall we believe Communists, whose definition of "truth" is anything that furthers their political ends, who have systematically attacked every religious denomination, extinguished all civil liberties, and waged a genocidal war against the Miskito Indians? Or believe the people putting their lives on the line for the same values we hold sacred -- democracy, freedom, pluralism and human rights..

On national television the other night, Jim Wright said that at one time the revolutionaries in Latin America -- men such as Bolivar and San Martin -- emulated our democratic revolution. Well, Representative Wright, some still do. The freedom fighters in Nicaragua fight for democracy, too. They, too, are the moral descendants of Washington and Jefferson, though the tyranny they fight against is much more brutal than anything our forefathers could have imagined.

Soon, the Congress will be making the historic decision whether or not to help these brave men and women. The ranks of the freedom fighters continue to swell. If we give them the aid they need, the Nicaraguan people can win this battle for freedom on their own. American troops have not been asked for and are not needed. We must make sure that they never are needed. We must send money and material now, so we never have to send our American boys.

But if we hide our heads in the sand and pretend the Communist/terrorist threat in Nicaragua will go away, we are courting disaster and we will have no one to blame but ourselves. If we don't want to see the map of Latin America covered in a sea of red, lapping at our borders, we must act now. With your help and the help of other freedom-loving Americans, we can succeed in turning the tide to democracy in Nicaragua. We must succeed. Nothing less than the national security of the United States is at stake.

Thank you all and God bless you.

MEMORANDUM FOR LINAS KOJELIS

FROM MAX GREEN

SUBJECT Reception for Conference of Presidents of Major
American Jewish Organizations, March 5

Our office will be holding a high level briefing for the Conference, an umbrella organization of 38 national major Jewish organizations, representing the top leadership of American Jewish policy makers and opinion shapers. I believe it would be beneficial if we could arrange to host a modest reception for the 100 attendees. The group has offered to pay for the event through its 501 c-3 foundation--although I am aware of the current ruling that prevents OPL from doing so.

Due to the Conference's need to make alternate plans if we can not host them, I would be grateful to you if you could advise me of your decision at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

MEMORANDUM FOR LINAS KOJELIS

FROM MAX GREEN

SUBJECT President's Comments at March 5 Dropby Briefing for Conference of Presidents of Major Jewish Organizations

I would suggest that this much needed speech close differently. To wit, I believe the President should make even more explicit the connections between support for the Contras and support for Israel. He might say, for example, that freedom is indivisible; that freedom's loss in Central America would impact on the Middle East. And vice verse.

Moreover, he might go on to make the related point that this is one important reason why this Administrations has been so supportive of Israel, the much maligned outpost for democracy in the Middle East . Also that because this Administration takes its commitment so seriously it would take no action-e.g. arms sales to Saudi Arabia- that it believed would in anyway endanger the security of Israel.
