Dear Max:

As I was reviewing my files and correspondence, I discovered that I had forgotten to thank you for the effort you expended in making our UJA-Federation mission to Washington in April so successful. I know what a hectic day that was for you and for the Vice President; therefore, we were doubly pleased by his presence. I know that your effort on our behalf assured that he would be there.

You have my sincerest thanks and, again, my apologies for not thanking you sooner.

Sincerely,

Andrew H. Tisch
