Max Green Assoc. Director, Office of Public Liaison The White House Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Green,

Thank you for agreeing to participate in the Regional Biennial of the New Jerse -- West Hudson Valley Council of the Union of American Heblew Congregations. This letter confirms our recent telephone conversation. The Convention will be held in Princeton, New Jersey at the Hyatt Regency Hotel from Friday, November 14 through Sunday, November 1986.

All workshops will take place at the Hyatt. I am enclosing a copy of the program for the weekend. Information about the other participants in your workshop, as well as the description and time it is taking place, are included on the attached form.

Since each workshop spans a period of one hour and twentyfive minutes, you should plan on speaking for 15-20 minutes, leaving time for each participant's presentation, questions, and discussion. You can expect 30-50 people in attendance at yo'r workshop. Distribute any materials you wish. You should also feel free to contact the other workshop participants. I would appreciate it if you would send me a short personal biography, so that the chairperson can give you an appropriate introduction.

Also enclosed is a Biennial Registration Packet. you will try to attend as much of the weekend as possible. Further confirmation and driving directions to the Convention will be sent out in late October.

I look forward to seeing you at Biennial. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call me.

Very truly yours,

Cantor Nancy S. Hausman Administrative Intern

Please call us with your transportation arrangements.
Thanks.

SAUL I. STERN

A vigorous, dynamic leader, Saul I. Stern has a record of service to the community - locally and nationally - that is highlighted by commitment and accomplishment.

As a co-founder of JINSA, and President since 1981, Saul has been instrumental in transforming the organization from a smallscale effort to a national group with 15,000 members. Under his leadership, the annual JINSA "Fly-In" has become recognized as a high level forum to foster dialogue between the Pentagon and the American Jewish community.

Saul's civic, charitable and governmental activities are legion and include: Board and Executive Committee, Council of Jewish Federations; Chairman, Public Social Policy Committee; Executive Board, American Jewish Committee; Director, Greater Washington Jewish Community Foundation; Visiting Committee, University of Chicago Law School; Board Member, University of Maryland Medical Systems; and Board of Advisors, University of Maryland School of Public Affairs.

He has served in the past as President, Jewish Council for the Aging and Jewish Social Service Agency; V.P. and member of the Executive Committee and Board, United Jewish Appeal Federation of Greater Washington; Secretary, Jewish Community Council; and Chairman, Maryland State Planning Commission. He has been a member of President Kennedy's Appalachian Regional Council, the Small Business Administration National Advisory Council, and the Montgomery County Ethics Commission.

Saul has been active in the local, state and national Democratic Party and was a delegate to the 1984 Democratic National Convention.

The Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs is fortunate to have had Saul Stern as its leader and is privileged to extend to him the recognition he so richly deserves.

ALAN LEE KEYES

In October 1986, Ambassador Alan Lee Keyes, Assistant Secretary of State for International Organization Affairs, was honored by the Government of Israel for his role in the United Nations conference on the decade of women held last year in Nairobi. As a member of the U.S. delegation to the conference, Ambassador Keyes assumed a leading role in producing the first major U.N. conference final report since 1975 that did not contain the infamous "Zionism is Racism" formulation. When the PLO delegation protested the final report, Keyes took the floor. In ringing terms, he emphasized the strength of the U.S. commitment to Israel in the United Nations and elsewhere.

It is this decisive and effective leadership that has characterized the illustrious career of 36 year-old Alan Keyes.

Prior to his current post, Alan Lee Keyes served as the U.S. Representative to the United Nations Economic and Social Council, with the rank of Ambassador. While in the position, he represented the United States at the U.N. General Assembly and at numerous international meetings and conferences.

He has held positions as: a consultant with the National Security Council; a member of the State Department's Policy Planning Staff; desk officer in the State Department's Office of Southern African Affairs; Vice-Consul at the U.S. Consulate General in Bombay, Ambassador Keyes received his Ph.D. in Government from Harvard University. Alan Keyes' commitment to the ideals on which our country is founded is exemplified by his distinguished record of performance.

Dear Mr. Green:

Washington, D.C.

Mr. Max Green The White House

20500

I've been asked by the leadership of the Argentine Jewish community to invite you to a conference: "The Jewish Community of Argentina --Assessing its Role in National Life," which will take place in New York on November 6th and 7th.

Our involvement is due to the fact that I just returned from Buenos Aires together with a group of some 100 major UJA-Federation leaders and contributors who participated in the first UJA-Federation Mission to South America.

Among the participants in this conference are two Jewish Argentine Cabinet Ministers as well as Jacobo Timerman. I'm enclosing a draft outline of the agenda which will give you a pretty good idea as to the content. Guido Guelar, one of the organizers of this conference, a fifth-generation Argentine and leading member of the Argentine Jewish community, is Chairman of this conference.

In case you plan to attend, please call John Dwyer, Executive Director of the Americas Society, at (212) 249-8950. You of course are invited as a guest of the Society which will be pleased to assume any expenses you may incur in this regard.

Warmest regards and all good wishes for a Happy and Healthy New Year.

Cordially,

EWM:ba
