The Honorable George Bush
 Vice President of the United States

 Washington, D.C. 20501

Dear Mr. Vice President:

In June, Kenneth J. Bialkin will finish his term as National Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith--four splendid years of inspiration and counsel and patient, principled diligence.

The members of ADL's National Commission, our governing body, plan to pay him tribute at a noon luncheon on June 5th in New York City's Grand Hyatt Hotel. It will be a most special occasion, with a country-wide assemblage of hundreds of the League's most prominent leaders, people who have distinguished themselves in virtually every area of American life.

This group, like Kenneth Bialkin, like all of us here at ADL, hold you in deep, abiding respect and admiration. On their behalf--and Kenneth's--I invite you to be guest speaker at our tribute. The opportunity to share your thoughts would surely be one of the most meaningful and memorable events in ADL's 73-year-old history.

I look forward eagerly, hopefully to your reply.

Sincerely,

Nathan Perlmutter

Dear Max,

I appreciate your efforts in helping secure the participation of Vice President Bush at the UJA Young Leadership Conference.

I have enclosed a copy of my letter to Vice President Bush, for your information, which invites him to speak at the closing session on Tuesday morning, March 4th.

As the date of the Conference is getting very close, I again ask that you use your best efforts in securing the Vice President's participation. We greatly appreciate the fine job you have been doing in your new position.

Warmest personal regards and best wishes for a happy and healthy New Year.

Very truly yours,

Michael M. Adler

Dear Mr. Vice President,

As National Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal Young Leadership Cabinet, I am privileged to invite you to address the UJA National Young Leadership Conference scheduled to be held in Washington, DC from March 2 - 4, 1986.

You will remember that this Conference is the largest biennial gathering of young (ages 25-45) Jewish leadership in the entire country. Each participant is a politically astute representative of his/her local community.

We ask your participation in delivering the closing address to the Conference on Tuesday morning March 4, 1986. If, for any reason, your schedule prevents you from addressing the Conference at that time, we will be pleased to have you speak at a more convenient time.

I look forward to welcoming you on March 4th.

Warmest personal regards.

Very truly yours,

Dear Don:

Yesterday's meeting with the President and yourself and with other Administration officials was an important event for us and particularly gratifying for me. I am very grateful to you for making this event possible and I hope it was also worthwhile from your point of view. The membership of the Conference of Presidents was very impressed and on their behalf I am expressing our deep appreciation for the opportunity for such extensive discussions. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Dear Mr. Vice President:

On behalf of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, I would like to extend a most cordial invitation to be the keynote speaker at our 1986 Americanism Award Ball honoring Dr. A. Bartlett Giamatti, President of Yale University. The event will be held Saturday night, April 12, at the university.

The gala, we expect, will draw an overflow audience of 700, including Governor O'Neill, Senators Dodd and Weicker, Yale alumni and Jewish community leaders from the tri-state area.

Those who have spoken on our behalf have been: Donald Regan, President Gerald Ford, Vice President Walter Mondale, Henry Kissinger and Jeane J. Kirkpatrick.

The Anti-Defamation League and Yale University have worked closely over the years on a variety of projects of mutual concern. The ADL is now in its 73rd year as one of the nation's oldest human relations agencies dedicated to combatting anti-Semitism and all forms of discrimination. The League has grown to include 30 regional offices throughout the United States, as well as having affiliates in Europe, Israel, Canada and Latin America.

We would be extremely honored, as would Dr. Giamatti, if you would agree to address us at this auspicious occasion.

Most sincerely,

Kenneth J. Bialkin

Dear Vice President Bush:

As Chairmen of the UJA National Young Leadership Conference scheduled to be held in Washington, D.C. from March 2 - 4, 1986, it is our pleasure to invite you to deliver the closing address to the Conference late in the morning on Tuesday, March 4, 1986. Attending the Conference will be approximately 3,000 young Jewish leaders, ages 25 to 45, from around the country. It is, without question, the largest gathering of young Jews at any event in the United States.

If, for any reason, your schedule prevents you from addressing the Conference on Tuesday morning, March 4, 1986, we will be pleased to have you address the Conference at any other time that is convenient for you. Once again, we sincerely hope that you will honor us with your presence at this Conference. We very much look forward to hearing from you.

On this joyous occasion we salute our Man of the Year, awardees and friends who have distinguished themselves in thought and action by striving to attain the highest levels of Chesed.

They typify the noblest ideals of Ohel Children's Home & Family Services, by enabling us to fulfill our historic commitment to the stability and integrity of the Jewish family.

In honoring these leaders we reaffirm our goal to provide for the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of those who turn to us to find rehabilitation and fulfillment as functioning members of society.

Dear Vice President Bush:

We were pleased to learn that you will be in New York City on Sunday evening, December 15, 1985. As we indicated in letters to you on January 21, 1985 and April 17, 1985, we are holding our Sixteenth Annual Dinner that evening at the Grand Hyatt New York at which we will be honoring Mr. Martin A. Simon, Senior Vice President at Bank Leumi Trust. At this dinner we expect the attendance of about one thousand corporate and Jewish communal and philanthropic leaders. There will also be coverage of the event in the major Jewish media.

We would be most honored if you would be able to address the audience as our Guest Speaker. The formal program at the dinner will begin at about 6:15 p.m. and your speech (approximately 15-20 minutes) could be integrated into the program anytime between then and 8:30 p.m.

Ohel Children's Home & Family Services is the major social service agency in the Orthodox Jewish community providing a wide array of outpatient and residential treatment services

Dear Mr. Vice President:

On behalf of the officers and members of the American Jewish Congress, we have the great pleasure of inviting you to address our National Biennial Convention. The Convention will be at the Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D.C. from March 16-19, 1986. Our national leadership from across the U.S. has requested to hear your views on the challenges before us.

The Convention's theme is "The Jewish Experience in the American Democracy: 200 Years Under the Constitution," and we believe that your insights on this important anniversary would be particularly exciting and important.

The Biennial Convention is the primary policy-making body of the American Jewish Congress, attracting top present and future leadership from across the country. We hope that you will be able to address our banquet on Tuesday, March 18. If you are unable to attend the banquet, a more mutually convenient time can be worked out between our staffs.

Mr. Vice President, your presence would be the highlight of our Convention. We hope your schedule will allow you to join us.
