Re: State Justice Institute Act

Dear Mr. Meese:

The Board of Directors of The National Judicial College asked me to send you a copy of a resolution transmitted today to President Reagan. We are most hopeful that the President will choose to sign the legislation so that the efforts of so many people will finally come to fruition.

Many of the nearly 1,400 judges who attended the Judicial College during this year have been in touch with their congressmen concerning the legislation and we have been so pleased with the strong bi-partisan approach that the Congress has shown. Through the combined efforts of many individuals and organizations, our mutual goals of court improvement may soon be realized.

Yours very truly,

RE: John S. Carroll, Applicant for Appointment
as District Judge, District of Hawaii

Dear Mr. Herrington,

John Carroll has asked me to send you a letter of support on his behalf. I'm more than happy to do it.

I've known John for more than ten years. He and I both served in the Hawaii State House of Representatives. John can be described as a "man for all seasons". He is an extremely talented man. He has accomplished much in his life. He is not only an extremely competent attorney but an accomplished pilot as well. He also has served as a colonel in the Hawaii National Guard. As a legislator he had the courage of his convictions. There were many times when he took the minority position and stood by it. When he gave his word, you could always depend on John not to waver. He is also a dedicated husband and father.

As the United States Marshal for the District of Hawaii, I believe I have a good perspective of the kind of person who is needed on the bench. John's personal and professional reputation would only serve to further enhance the excellent image of our federal judiciary in Hawaii.

John Carroll has a well-grounded understanding of the law. Further, I have always been impressed with his down-to-earth attitude, his fairness and his sense of humor. I believe these are attributes which are essential to a judge.

Thank you for the opportunity to express my wholehearted support for John S. Carroll.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Faith P. Evans". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large loop at the beginning and a long, sweeping tail.

She received a B.A. degree in 1951 from the University of Washington and a LL.B. degree in 1953 from the University of Washington, School of Law. She was admitted to the Washington State Bar in 1953.

From 1981 until January 14, 1985, Justice Dimmick served on the Washington State Supreme Court. Prior to assuming her duties on the Supreme Court, she served as a Judge, King County Superior Court, 1976-1980; a Judge, King County District Court, 1965-1975; a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney, King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, 1960-1962 and 1955-1959; and as an Assistant Attorney General, Washington State Attorney General's Office, 1953-1954. In addition, she was in the private practice of law, 1962-1965 and 1959-1960.

The Standing Committee on Federal Judiciary of the American Bar Association has submitted an informal report which states the Committee's opinion that Justice Dimmick is well qualified for appointment to this position. She has an excellent reputation as to character and integrity, has judicial temperament and is, I believe, worthy of appointment as a United States District Judge.

I recommend the nomination.
