Ash Wednesday

Dear Mrs Reagan

It was not only an honor and a pleasure to be invited to your dinner for Mrs Thatcher, but a relief to see the East Room freed of its T.V. camera stage, and to observe the beginning of restoration in these beautiful White House rooms.

My lateness in thanking you is due to the inevitable cleaning up after Saturday's dinner for Mrs Thatcher in New York. - She had said she planned to make the Donovan Award evening the occasion for an important speech, and kept her word.

Feel sure that you and the President would have approved of the evening. We had almost 1,000 Veterans of D.S.S., as well as heroes and heroines of the French Resistance, and a number of former agents of British Secret Intelligence and Secret Operations - a fitting audience for that particular speech.

With warmest thanks

and apologies for my tardiness

Very sincerely

Evangeline

Dear Angie —

Thank you so much for your darling note about Anthony Browne.

I have passed the information on to Mrs. Reagan immediately this morning, and I am sure that either she or Clem Conger will contact the miraculous Mr. Browne. How kind of you to share your wonderful secret.

Warmest wishes and hope to see you very soon.

affectionately,
Muffin

Dear ~~Vangie~~: Vangie —

So many thanks for your darling note of Sunday.

I have put out an alert for a wonderful secretary for you, and suggest that you call my former Executive Secretary, Leslie Yerman at 462-4644, and see if she will have any ideas.

I agree with you that the French situation is preoccupied, and I am focusing my attentions right now on the visit of Chancellor Schmidt.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Nancy

Thanks you will be surrounded by friends in London, and of course the Lomis' will have you tightly organized, but if there is anything I can do while you are there. I would love to be told of it. Bill Paley has asked me to give a lunch party for him on July 31st - I wouldn't say that if the lunch could be for you and some of your many London admirers, I would be magnified. - Or any other meal.

It might amuse you, too, to see Albany, built for the Melbourns in the 1780s (like you paid here): many own chambers are made out of lady Melbourn's bedroom and dressing rooms!

With very wish for you and for the President.

Most warmly, yours

Dear Nancy -

The White House looked like fairyland on Sunday - or rather as the White House at Christmas should look.

I felt personally proud of that fact, and suspect that many do of my fellow countrymen did too - and proud and touched by the way in which you and the President greeted and honored the five honorees.

Dear Nancy

Yes, when Marietta and I return at the end of February from our 2 weeks in London, I will bring you news and gossip from there. Of course I quite much more of it without moving from here. Having TWO relatives

MRS DAVID (EVANGELINE) BRUCE

at Court means they better get it all together, and mail it!

Love, to read that you are going to Charlotte's for Easter.

I've just given my boys a raft of F.D.R. letters to read this anniversary week — (my father and he were classmates, roommates, Club mates, and had a wild time together after leaving Harvard & before either acquired a social & political conscience.) — You looked glorious on TV. Love highly to hear from you
