Dear Ms. Smith:

Thank you for your recent telegram to President Reagan recommending William Young for appointment as the United States Attorney General. I have been asked to respond, as I assist the President with personnel matters.

As you are probably aware, the President has made a tentative decision to appoint Mr. Edwin Meese as the United States Attorney General pending Senate confirmation. We, nonetheless, greatly appreciate your interest in the selection process of individuals for service in this Administration and further appreciate you bringing qualified individuals such as William Young to our attention.

Thank you again for writing.

Sincerely,

Robert C. MacKichan, Jr.
Associate Director
