Dear Mr. President,

I want to express my strong support to the leadership that you have given our country in the past four years, and to pledge my prayers and support for the next four years to come. Yours is a noble position that brings with it criticism, opposition, and loneliness. I wanted you to know that in those kinds of moments, people like myself pray for you and the decisions you must make.

I have been watching the confirmation hearings for Mr. Meese, and I have been reminded of how politics and political lines can be falsely drawn and the character of a man be assessed by political persuasions.

I hope our country can once more see that there are people who have a love for their country and a deep desire to serve in the best way possible. I feel you are such a man, and I hope presidents like you, and men like Mr. Meese follow in the years to come.

Our Lord has promised to be with you for all ages. May I please add that the prayer of my family will be there as well.

Cordially, F. M. Mathews

It was with great sadness that I learned of the loss of your husband, Anthony.

Although there is so little that anyone can say at such a time, I hope you will be able to take some comfort in all that Anthony achieved during his lifetime and in remembering the fine person that he was. Anthony was a highly respected law enforcement officer, and you can always be proud of the contributions that he made to his community and country.

Dear Mr. Tehan:

Thank you for your message to the President recommending Attorney General Edwin Meese to be Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. As you know, the President has nominated Judge Robert H. Bork for this position.

President Reagan believes Judge Bork to be a man of the highest integrity and qualifications as well as an eloquent and powerful advocate of judicial restraint, a philosophy whose guiding principle is that it is the legislature's role to enact laws and the court's role to interpret them.

In making the nomination, the President stated, "Judge Bork is recognized as a premier Constitutional authority. His outstanding intellect and unrivaled scholarly credentials are reflected in his thoughtful examination of the broad, fundamental, legal issues of our times. . . . We're fortunate to be able to draw upon such an impressive legal mind; an experienced judge and a man who already has devoted so much of his life to public service. He'll bring credit to the Court and his colleagues, as well as to his country and the Constitution."

The American Bar Association gave Judge Bork its highest rating -- "exceptionally well qualified" -- when he was confirmed by the Senate as an Appellate Judge in 1982. President Reagan is confident that the current Senate confirmation process will be equally successful, and he looks forward to Judge Bork beginning a long and distinguished career as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

We appreciate your taking the time to express your thoughts on this important position.

Sincerely,

Alan Charles Raul

Dear President Reagan:

Thank God you have an opportunity to make another appointment to the Supreme Court. Your previous appointments have been outstanding, and I hope you do as well this time.

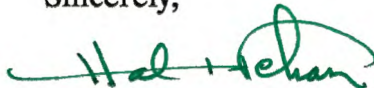

Please do not pay any heed to the people at the Harvard Law School who have absolutely no regard for the United States Constitution.

Your appointee should have uncommon intellect and broad experience with the law -- a person who possesses unquestioned integrity and high principles. The chosen jurist must understand that innovation in public policy is a prerogative of elected officials, not appointed judges.

Here is your chance to undo the harm that has been done to this country by Warren, Brennan and Marshall. The nomination of a Supreme Court Justice is one of the best ways that a man of your caliber can try to influence the fabric of American society long after you have left office.

If I had my way, you would appoint Attorney General Edwin Meese, but I'm sure you would run into a lot of difficulty from the Senate.

Sincerely,

Hal F. Tehan

Dear Mr. Stewart:

Thank you for your message to the President recommending Edwin Meese to be Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. As you know, the President has nominated Judge Anthony M. Kennedy for this position.

In more than a decade of service on the United States Court of Appeals, Judge Kennedy has demonstrated evenhanded and firm-minded application of the law. He shares President Reagan's philosophy of judicial restraint, believing that it is the role of a judge to interpret the law, not to make it.

In announcing his intention to nominate Judge Kennedy for a seat on the Supreme Court, the President stated, "The hallmark of Judge Kennedy's career has been devotion: devotion to his family, devotion to his community and his civic responsibility, and devotion to the law. He's played a major role in keeping our cities and neighborhoods safe from crime. He's that special kind of American who's always been there when we needed leadership. I'm certain he will be a leader on the Supreme Court."

Judge Kennedy is a person of broad experience and unquestioned integrity. The President is confident that the Senate will confirm his selection of this distinguished nominee, and he looks forward to Judge Kennedy's continuing his lengthy and successful career in public service as a member of our nation's highest court.

We appreciate your taking the time to express your thoughts on this important position.

OPPOSES

Dear President Reagan:

I am writing to you on the subject of Attorney General, Ed Meese. Many of your supporters are distressed with the wholesale resignations of the Department of Justice in relation to the questions surrounding the investigation of Mr. Meese. I, along with many others, have spoken with, feel that Mr. Meese should step aside until these allegations are either confirmed or refuted.

Solid, proven, conservative, professionals such as those who have submitted their resignations, indicates a lack of confidence in the leadership of the Justice Department. There is a feeling on the part of many, that your excusing loyalty to a personal friend, Mr. Meese, is setting a significant negative impact on your administration. The average American is not confident of the total integrity of your administration on this issue.

This wide spread feeling could have a substantial effect on the chances of Vice President Busch being elected President in November. This is a basic issue which needs to be addressed objectively. I, along with many others, hope you will take some firm action on the matter.

RE: Attorney General Meese

Dear Mr. President:

I've voted for you in every election in which you ran;
I've supported every policy you've stated. I even stuck with you during the "Iran" problem.

However, I was very disappointed when you appointed Ed Meese to Attorney General, based on his lack of qualifications to be the United States' "top cop."

Now, Meese has to go! Unfortunatley, I don't believe he has enough class to resign, so give him the boot now.
Go out with style, you've done a helluva job.

Dear Mr. President:

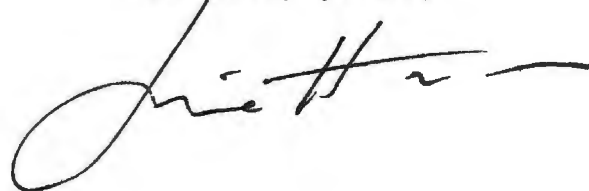

All of us recognize that one of your strongest virtues is your loyalty to the people who have served you well.

However, as a strong conservative, I have reluctantly come to the conclusion that it is time for you to ask Mr. Meese to resign. He, as I am sure you recognize, fumbled the handling of the Iran Contra Affair from the very beginning and gave your enemies the opening to attempt to damage you. He has further compounded his errors by giving a joint appointment to Mr. Walsh so that Mr. Walsh is technically in the Justice Department, but he has exercised no supervision over Mr. Walsh.

Now is the time for you to replace Mr. Meese, but to replace him with a vigorous conservative who will move immediately to assume control of Mr. Walsh and to demand an accounting of what he is accomplishing and move to restrict his activities, i.e., the hiring of Professor Tribe and other actions which are clearly beyond the purview of his investigation.

Warm personal regards.

Dear Ms. Gilbert:

Thank you for your recent letter to President Reagan expressing your concerns regarding Edwin "Ed" Meese III.

Please be assured that all comments with regard to appointees in the Administration are carefully reviewed and kept within the individuals' personnel files.

Sincerely,

Robert H. Tuttle
Director of Presidential Personnel
