PN called

Dear Senatorasten,

My husband & I are in our early thirties and trying very hard to make a living as farmers.

But we are very worried about our future and the future of our three children.

After listening to news reports, farm reports, & reading farm magazines, we don't see anything promising coming our way in the near future.

I grew up in Dickeyville, Wisc., and didn't know much about life on a farm until I married and my husband started to run his Dad's farm. Then I found how great life in the country could be.

We started to farm in 1977-1978 and managed to get all our bills paid and even managed to put a small amount in the bank each month.

But we never spent our money extravagantly. Even though people say farmers brought on their money worries themselves by buying all new equipment that is not true for us or for many of our neighbors.

We did not want to sink deeply into debt. My husband went to sales & bought good used equipment and even then the one large tractor we own cost $11,000.00. All our other tractors are older type John Deere's. Such as No 20, a J.D. 70, J.D. B. etc. But my husband is a great mechanic & takes very good care of the machinery so it will keep running a few more years.

We do not have a large dairy herd (we milk around 60 cows) but always before we had our bills paid. No one had to wait to get paid when we did business with them.

Until the last couple of years.

Then we were charged an advertising fee, a milk tax, and now our milk price is dropping drastically. Also the price we receive for our Choice steers has dropped.

When we have corn to sell we receive a lower price than ~~than~~ my Aunt did when she was farming 30 years ago.

How does the President, who I'm sure doesn't know what its like to really need money, think a farm family can possibly make ends meet when no one else's prices are dropped lower except the farmers.

The price of all the feed we buy, machinery parts, tractor fuel, farm supplies, electricity, veterinary expenses, and the list go on, — they just keep going up or stay the same.

Please explain how we can make it?

How can someone in the government who never steps foot on a farmers land, know what its like to have sleepless nights wondering how the bills in the cupboard will ever get paid? Depression sets in easily.

I'm sorry my letter was so long, but we, the farmers

need someone to help us.

Besides all the other problems
we have, now our main worry is how long we will be able to run this farm
before its taken away from us. This is our living — this is where we want to raise our children.

Why doesn't the government
understand how hard we work (from 5:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. at night & sometimes later in summer) but how very useless it seems?

Thank you for your time!

Sincerely,

(Name) Mrs. Joan Fogel

Thanks for the consideration.

Dear Fred:

I noticed last week that you will be leaving your position as White House Counsel returning to the private sector. I enjoyed your quip about what it costs to eat at the White House Mess!

Before you leave I simply wanted to reiterate my thanks for all your assistance to me. So far I am really enjoying my work on the Tenth Circuit.

I wonder if I could get you to do me just one more favor! I would like very much to have a signed picture of the President to hang with my commission. Do you think you could work that out?

You have done a superb job at the White House. It has been a great pleasure for me to get acquainted with you. I hope our paths will cross in the future. Thanks again.

Yours very truly,

Deanell Reece Tacha

Dear Don:

I have had a request from Robert E. A copy of his letter is attached for your convenience.

Mr. Azar is a member of the U.S. International Sports Committee, a USIA private sector committee chaired by David A. "Sonny" Werblin. Sonny agrees with me that this is an important good will opportunity and, if it is possible, the President should sign the balls.

If you agree, we will arrange for immediate delivery of the balls to the White House and for their return to Mr. Azar. In the interest of time, I would appreciate your immediate attention to this request.

Dear Don:

I have received a request from Robert E. Azar, Executive Director of the International Collegiate Soccer Cup, for the President to sign six soccer balls. The signature of the President of the Republic of Mexico will be added through the Mexican Consulate office. The balls will be presented at the Third Annual International Collegiate Soccer Championship to be held Sunday, April 6, 1986 in Las Cruces, New Mexico.

Two of the balls will be presented to the University Presidents at the banquet (UCLA and the Universidad de Tamaulipas, Victoria, Mexico.) The others will be presented to the winning coach, the largest financial supporter, the ball manufacturer, and to the office of International Collegiate Soccer Cup.

Mr. Azar is a member of the U.S. International Sports Committee, a USIA private sector committee chaired by David A. "Sonny" Werblin. Sonny agrees with me that this is an excellent opportunity to reinforce the goodwill between the United States and the Republic of Mexico and, if it is possible, the President should sign the balls.

If you agree that it would be beneficial, we will arrange for delivery of the balls to the White House and for their return to Mr. Azar. In the interest of time, I would appreciate your immediate attention to this request.

Dear Ronald Reagan,

I am writing you a letter for a very special friend of yours. My son Tony Lynn Ogle (slightly retarded) is a special friend of yours although you don't know him.

His birthday is Feb. 5th will be 24, not many days apart from yours.

He celebrates your birthday with you and looks forward to seeing your cake and your celebration on T.V.

He was in the hospital last year in Jan. had surgery for blockage for 3rd time and then took infection and come apart and had to back for surgery on February 6th so he was real sick last year and he didn't get to share it with you. (We almost lost him). He has to go back soon for more surgery. March is scheduled as of now. When you was in the hospital last year for your surgery. He worried about you. A person like you that has always been a famous person in movies and our great President this may not mean anything to you. But my very special child thinks so much of you that I thought I would share this with you.

He has dark hair and he combs his hair like you. Say's he looks like Ronald Reagan. When you have your T.V. specials he usually listens to you. He will tell us Ronald Reagan is coming on. Sometimes if we start talking he will tell us to be quiet and listen.

He is a very special child (my angel on earth) I call him.

We all admire you. I believe you are a good person.

May God bless you and Nancy in everything you do.

Tony is alltime talking about going to California. I told him that you had a ranch out there and he was real pleased.

Inclosed is a picture of him.

Thank you for taking time to read this.

like you. Say's he looks like Ronald Reagan when you have your TV specials he usually listens to you. He will tell us Ronald Reagan is coming on. Sometimes

He is a very special child (my Angel on earth)

We all admire you. I believe you are a good person.

May God bless you & Mary in everything

Dear President Reagan:

I am writing this letter in regards to your recent support of the American Red Cross Disaster Relief Campaign. As a Disaster Worker I wish to thank you for your support. In your recent radio address on November 16, 1985 your remarks struck very close to home. It was very nice to get a thank you from you. I have worked a few of the disasters that you mentioned. I worked in Puerto Rico for a month and in West Virginia and Pennsylvania for another five weeks. It was a very busy year as you stated. I worked on seven major disaster operations in 1985. I work as a Mass Care Supervisor or Officer. I am one of the many supervisory personnel that supervise the feeding and sheltering aspects. As our Honorary Chairman, Mr. Reagan I find it a honor to work with you. I thank you for taking the time in your busy life and duties to lend your aid. I hope this letter finds your way, and you may read this simple thank you. May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely,

Brian J. Dietz

Dear Mr. President-

A.H. 199^{ms} I was so touched and moved yesterday when you quoted my brother's poem "High Flight" to the nation yesterday. I thought you might like to have a copy of this poem.

My brother, Pilot-officer John Gillaspie Magee, Jr. was an American citizen who volunteered for service in the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1940. Three months before his death in 1941 at age 19, he wrote this now famous poem. He died in his Spitfire just few days after Pearl Harbor.

My family and I join you in your prayers for the families of these brave men and women.

Sincerely yours,
David B. Magee

Dear Mr. President,

I sat teary-eyed tonight when you spoke about Americans "living from pay to pay." Living in West Virginia and having relatives who are still unemployed from steel mills and coal mines, your message certainly hit home too well.

But why with tears? Because it is too difficult to be an optimist any more. It seems as if I become cheerful and optimistic...all the hopes fall out of sight again. My own dear husband was laid-off from the Ohio Valley coal fields in 1981. He does not "sit tight" very well, and found a job at nearly half the pay...only to be unexpectedly laid-off December the next year. After two years of meager holidays and no call-back to the mines, he changed his panel and was called to work here, in the Monongahela Valley, in another mine. After six months of travelling over 150-miles each day to work and hardly ever seeing our two boys, we decided to sell our new home and move closer to work.

We found a small farm with a 50-year old home and, after several months of maneuvering, financed the property. There were higher bills and lots of farm work, but we were never stopped from dreaming of a time when our "hobby farm" might someday provide a homestead for our boys and a better life for us all. It was beautiful! (I even fought a round with cancer and won!) Optimism grew as well as our abundant vegetable garden!

Then two years ago, an unexpected lay-off clouded our lives again with pessimism and fear. Six months later, at the end of our savings and out of possibilities, the mine called him back. Yes, we made it, but the fears it created have made it nearly impossible to look too far ahead again. Then the flood came in November and the mines could not move coal because of the debris on the river...and the work was stopped for a month. Another scare. Again, so close to Christmas that I am beginning to get paranoid about my favorite holiday!

I suppose we are "well off" compared to most folks who have experienced work stoppages, but I am becoming resigned to the fact that we cannot make the needed improvements to our home or plan to help our sons through college because the future is too uncertain. We always seem to be forced to live from pay-to-pay with no dreams or plans to keep us going. There is no place for "wants" because they become "can'ts" too quickly.

I feel so badly that I have lost sight of our dreams and have started living from day-to-day instead of for tomorrow. But, I feel even more regret that we have relatives who can only see one day at a time. Without a dream, there is no future. If, indeed, hope springs eternal...our gushing stream is going dry. For someone who has always met challenges head-on and encouraged others that they could always take the challenge and make the changes, I have become so cautiously pessimistic that I scare even me.

After your message, I had the opportunity to get furious when the opposition implied that your administration was to blame for the plight of America's farmers. Hogwash! Easy credit and too many "wants" have put our farmers in debt beyond their dreams! Farming, more than any other occupation, is a speculation. My husband wants to expand our property holdings. The bank has agreed to finance the added property on the basis of what he can make from his investment of last year's tax refund into several head of cattle. Optimism is dulling the senses. It is wrong. It is a speculation and not my idea of what sound finances are based.

So it has been with the large-scale farmers. If everyone does well with soybeans and the prices drop out and the one farmer who depended on a substantial price doesn't make enough to meet his farm or machinery mortgage, he and his banker are the ones to blame for over-speculation...not you and your administration.

So how can any of us dream any more? Must the fear of debt and bankruptcy hold us from assuaging the future. Or...is this the kind of restraint that brought so many folks through the years after the Great Depression? Is this the rein that will eventually help us corral our spending and make us all wiser?

We have tightened our purse strings and watched with admiration as you have done the same with government spending. But when is it time to quit tying knots in the strings to "get by" and feel good and not guilty about getting a new set of strings?

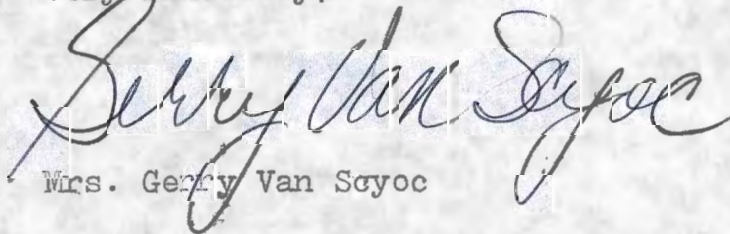

I know you don't have all the answers. And I don't expect you to answer this. I just wanted to share my thoughts with you.

You have spoken from my own feelings and you will someday be known as the most effective chief executives our country has ever had.

Thank you, Mr. President, for being an example and a wonderful leader.

Very sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Gerry Van Seyoc". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.
