YOUR MEETING WITH FRENCH STATUE OF LIBERTY DELEGATION

DATE: Thursday, February 6, 1986

TIME: 10:00 a.m. - 10:05 a.m.

LOCATION: The Roosevelt Room

FROM: JOHN M. POINDEXTER DP to JMB

PURPOSE: To meet with French delegation to initiate activities commemorating the 100th anniversary of the presentation of the Statue of Liberty to the United States.

BACKGROUND: France's participation in the Statue of Liberty centennial celebration formally begins with French Ambassador de Margerie's presentation to you of a crystal replica of the statue, a gift of French President Francois Mitterrand. The replica is an exact model of French sculptor Auguste Bartholdi's original statue. You may recall that in your historic speech at Strasbourg you noted that Bartholdi used his mother's face as the model for the statue -- "a daughter of Alsace."

You have agreed to attend the Statue of Liberty commemoration in New York on July 4 and have invited President Mitterrand to join you. Mitterrand also received a crystal statue replica, and in his remarks stressed the important symbolic role of the statue in demonstrating the fundamental attachment to liberty shared by our two countries.

De Margerie will be accompanied by former Ambassador de Laboulaye, and the acclaimed French actress, Catherine Deneuve.

- De Margerie is one of France's most senior career diplomats. He has served as Ambassador to the U.K. and Spain, and earlier served as National Director of the French Museum system.
- De Laboulaye is the President of the French Statue of Liberty Centennial Commission -- Lee Iaccoca's counterpart. His great-grandfather is credited with conceiving the idea of presenting a gift to the United States for our centennial, and founded an association to fund the project and support the efforts of the sculptor, Bartholdi.

- Catherine Deneuve is one of France's foremost international film stars. She has been chosen as the new model for "Marianne," the symbolic embodiment of the French Republic whose image appears on French coins, in official art, and as statuary gracing public buildings throughout France.
- Jean-Louis Beffa is the Chairman of the company (Saint-Gobain) that created the crystal replica.
