MEMORANDUM FOR MR. ROBERT C. MCFARLANE
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Announcement of November Visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales

The British Embassy has informed us that HMG would prefer some minor amendments to our suggested press announcements of the November visit to Washington of the Prince and Princess of Wales. The proposed British wording is as follows:

HMG Announcement in London:

> Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales have accepted an invitation from President and Mrs. Reagan to attend a dinner at the White House on Saturday, 9 November. Their Royal Highnesses will be visiting "The Treasure Houses of Britain" exhibition of which they are patrons, at the National Gallery on 10 November. The Prince and Princess of Wales will be in Washington from 8-12 November.

USG Announcement in Washington:

> The President and Mrs. Reagan have invited the Prince and Princess of Wales to attend a dinner at the White House on Saturday, November 9. The Prince and Princess have accepted the invitation. Their Royal Highnesses will be visiting "The Treasure Houses of Britain" exhibition, of which they are patrons, at the National Gallery on November 10. The Prince and Princess of Wales will be in Washington from November 8-12.

The British Embassy also has informed us that HMG would like to release these statements on March 20. The British intend to release their announcement at their regular press briefing at 4:00 p.m. in London and ask that we make our announcement at 11:00 a.m. so that release will be simultaneous in both capitals. This would preclude our making the announcement at the regular noon press briefing. In the past, we have overcome this problem by agreeing to an announcement in London at 4:00 p.m. with a one hour embargo; we suggest that this solution be used again in this instance.

Please advise as to the acceptability of the above.

This memo confirms Peter Sommer's conversation with the UK desk.

We agree to making the subject announcement on March 21 vice March 20. We have no objection to an announcement in London at 4:00 p.m. The White House announcement will be the same as that suggested by the British, except we will not include the last sentence addressing the total length of the Prince and Princess of Wales' stay in Washington. We, of course, do not object to the British including this in their announcement.

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Proposed Gift of Deed for the Prince and Princess of Wales

I have reviewed your memoranda to John Hilboldt and James Rosebush concerning the referenced gift. The White House does not have gift acceptance authority, so it could not accept the offer from Dr. Gatliff. Dr. Gatliff could, however, donate the gift to the State Department via the Secretary of State, as State has authority to accept gifts, even "conditional" gifts. 22 U.S.C. § 2697. The Secretary could then make the deed available for presentation to the Prince by the President, if all those concerned agree that such a gift would be appropriate.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: DINNER WITH PRINCE CHARLES
AND PRINCESS DIANA
STATE DINNER TOAST
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1985

Your Royal Highnesses, Sir Oliver and Lady Wright, ladies and gentlemen: Mrs. Reagan and I are deeply honored to welcome the Prince and Princess of Wales to this grand old American home, the White House. By the way, quite recently portions of the White House were repainted -- and I'm afraid that when we removed the old paint, we found scorch marks from the British burning of the house back in 1814. Now you've returned, and all Washington is once again ablaze.

You may recall that in his 1941 address before a joint session of the Congress, Prime Minister Churchill remarked, "I cannot help thinking that if my father had been American and my mother British, instead of the other way around, I might have got here on my own." Your Royal Highnesses, the reception you have been accorded by my countrymen has made it quite clear that, if you had been American, you might well have made it to this house on your own.

Your Royal Highnesses, your kingdom and our Republic are bound together by innumerable ties of ancient history and present friendship. Our language, our law, our democratic system of Government, our fierce belief in the God-given right of men to be free -- all these the United States owes to your island. We have traded with each other, to our mutual benefit, in all the decades since ~~my country~~ the United States was founded. We have stood together through two great world conflicts. Today, we go on shoulder-to-shoulder in an alliance formed to protect the democracies which, just 40 years ago, so many gave their lives on the beaches of Normandy to defend.

This evening we have gathered on a happy occasion -- a celebration of "The Treasure Houses of Britain," perhaps the most magnificent exhibition ever mounted. The exhibition presents five centuries of British achievement -- five centuries of elegance, beauty, and charm. I should add wit. When Nancy and I saw the exhibition the other day, we learned to our surprise that one enormous silver wine cooler had regularly been used by its owners to give their dog its baths.

"The Treasure Houses of Britain" richly details the cultural life of your kingdom, the land which in turn provided the foundations of our own cultural life. Truly, it is a great gift -- a gift from the houses' owners, from the British people, and from you, the exhibition's patrons. I speak on behalf of the American people when I extend to you our gratitude.

Your Royal Highnesses, in the eyes of my countrymen, you and your family hold a place of high honor. By setting an unfailing model of dignity and grace, you serve the American people as surely as you serve your own. Your devotion to duty commands our esteem. Your self-evident love for your kingdom and ~~im~~ the commonwealth inspires us. Certainly the American people join the British in looking upon you with affection and respect.

In his 1941 address, Prime Minister Churchill looked forward to our times. "It is not given to us," he said, "to peer into the future. Still I avow my hope and faith, sure and inviolate, that in the days to come the British and American people will for their own safety and for the good of all walk together in majesty, in justice, and in peace."

Today that noble hope remains a glorious reality.

Please join me in a toast: Her Majesty the Queen.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: DINNER WITH PRINCE CHARLES
AND PRINCESS DIANA
ENTERTAINMENT THANK YOU

Leontyne Price, for more than three decades your glorious voice has enriched the artistic life of our Nation. Born in a small town in Mississippi, you rose to perform the great roles in the capitals of the world. But you proudly retained your distinctly American character, and you have always included in your repertoire not just Verdi, Puccini, and Strauss, but Stephen Foster, Aaron Copland, and the gospel songs and spirituals that you heard and performed as a child. (Possible mention of music Leontyne will be singing at the dinner).

Never have you performed more beautifully than you have tonight, and on behalf of everyone here, Leotyne, I thank you.
