WHITE HOUSE

November 12, 1985

Dear Ms. Byrd:

There is much to be thankful for in this world, but I am especially grateful to you for your many efforts in making the visit of The Princess of Wales so successful. My advance staff said you had been a "tremendous" help in "making things go well". Your interest and concern for this very special event is greatly appreciated. I felt that all of those participating enjoyed a special few hours of positive exchange and that made the event a happy one.

Thank you very much for your considerable contribution. As always, I enjoyed being with the group.

Sincerely,

Nancy Reagan

Dear Major duBose:

Many thanks to you and the members of the Strolling Strings for your performance during the dinner honoring Their Royal Highnesses The Prince and Princess of Wales.

Your performance during dessert was wonderful, as usual, and the 20-minute program that you put together for the last-minute change in scenario was excellent. I appreciate your extra hard work that helped make this dinner so magical.

Warmest wishes,

Nancy Reagan

Dear John:

The U.S. Marine Band is always wonderful during our dinners at the White House, but I want to thank you and all of the band members particularly for the music played during the dinner honoring Their Royal Highnesses The Prince and Princess of Wales.

The selections reflected a great deal of thought on your part, and the mix of British and American pieces provided the lovely background that contributed toward making that evening so magical.

You have done it again!

Fondest regards,

Nancy Reagan

Dear Sergeant Burian:

Many thanks to you and the rest of the members of the Dance Band for your excellent playing during the dinner honoring Their Royal Highnesses The Prince and Princess of Wales.

I know that you went to extra trouble to prepare all of the special pieces played during the evening, such as the Neil Diamond songs and the "Saturday Night Fever" medley. These "extras" contributed a great deal toward making that evening so magical.

Warmest wishes,

Nancy Reagan

Dear John:

This is just a personal thank you for all your hard work regarding the music produced during the dinner honoring Their Royal Highnesses The Prince and Princess of Wales.

It is always such a pleasure to work with you. I have such confidence in the wealth of your knowledge and in the predictably beautiful sounds that ever emanate from the U.S. Marine Band.

I look forward to working with you on all future dinners, and I am particularly grateful for your thoughtful handling of this last one.

Dear Denny:

Many thanks to you and the members of the band for all of your hard work and cooperation regarding the dinner honoring Their Royal Highnesses The Prince and Princess of Wales.

I can't thank all of you enough for the extra rehearsals that went into making that evening so special; Neil Diamond never sounded so good, and I could hardly stop from dancing to "Saturday Night Fever" myself!

We don't thank you enough, but we never take you for granted. I am always amazed at what you can "whip together" at the drop of a hat. We all thank you!

Dear Mr. Ambassador and Lady Wright:

Enclosed are photographs the First Lady thought you might enjoy, which were taken during the reception honoring the lenders to the Treasure Houses of Great Britain exhibit.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your hospitality during the visit of Their Royal Highnesses, The Prince and Princess of Wales. Meeting the Prince and Princess at your embassy was something I shall never forget.

Nigel Sheinwald and Sarah Gillette were delightful to work with throughout, and you must all be pleased with an extraordinarily successful royal visit.

Dear Andrew,

Just wanted to drop you a brief note to let you know how well we thought everything went on the visit of Her Royal Highness and Mrs. Reagan to Straight, Inc.

It certainly appeared that we stayed to our schedule and got what we desired accomplished. I wish we had some more time however to get more of the flavor of the program.

In any event, I believe it was one of the most enjoyable events I have been a part of, largely due to your participation and the concientious contribution of Sarah Gillett.

Enclosed is a small token of our appreciation for your help. I look forward to working with you again in the future.

Thank you very much for your letter suggesting that I meet with Brian Griffiths. We attach great importance to our relations with the British, but I am afraid that my schedule will not permit a meeting with Mr. Griffiths.

I have asked my staff to talk to yours about the possibility of Mr. Griffiths meeting with someone on the domestic side of the White House. Thank you again for thinking of me.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. McFARLANE

FROM: PETER SOMMER Peter

SUBJECT: Reply to Dean Overman

Dean Overman has written proposing that you meet on September 23 or 24 with Brian Griffiths, who is soon to be appointed as domestic policy advisor to Mrs. Thatcher (Tab II). Griffiths is a prominent British economist. The stated purpose for meeting with you is "to have the advantage of your experience in structuring staff, etc., in making policy".

Besides the normal scheduling problems, neither I nor the British Embassy see any burning need for you to meet with Griffiths. He has not yet been appointed. Moreover, he apparently will not have any special responsibility in structuring staff.

Subsequent to drafting the above, I have seen your note and will work with Paul Thompson on suggesting that Overman's office contact Jack Svahn. I thought you still might wish to send Overman a polite reply.

Dear Bud:

Brian Griffiths, a long time friend, is about to be appointed as a special adviser to Margaret Thatcher. He will be in charge of all domestic policy at 10 North Downing Street. This should take place about the end of November.

Recently the Times had an article on Brian speculating about this appointment, and although it is not official, it has been confirmed by the Prime Minister to Brian.

Brian will be in Washington on Sunday, September 22-24, and staying at my house. He would like to have some discussions with you to have the advantage of your experience in structuring staff, etc., in making policy.

Brian will resign his present position as Director of the Bank of England. (He is the only academic in this century other than John Maynard Keynes to be appointed as a director of the Bank.) He will also resign his directorship of the London School of Economics and the City University of London.

If you could spare even a few minutes to meet with him, I know it would be helpful for him.

I will give you a call to see if you have any time available.

With best wishes.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. McFARLANE RC

FROM: VINCENT M. CANNISTRARO

SUBJECT: Proposed Meeting with Sir Percy Cradock

Sir Percy Cradock, the British Chairman of the Joint Intelligence Committee (JIC), has requested the opportunity to visit you during the period October 7 through 9. Sir Percy's request was transmitted through the British Embassy here to Peter Sommer.

The JIC is the senior-most intelligence unit in the United Kingdom and Sir Percy reports directly to Thatcher.

Sir Percy is close to Margaret Thatcher and was the chief British negotiator to the recently completed Hong Kong negotiations. He will be in Washington on consultations, and both Ken deGraffenreid and I recommend that you receive him for a brief courtesy call.

Peter Sommer recognizes the value of such meetings, but is concerned about over-loading your schedule.

FROM: PETER R. SOMMER

SUBJECT: Appointment Request: David Nicholls

The British Embassy has suggested that you meet with David Nicholls from the MOD. He is roughly Richard Perle's equivalent. Nicholls, who previously served as NATO's Assistant Secretary General for Defense Planning, will be in Washington for consultations on January 15 and 16. The Embassy hopes you can see him on Thursday, January 16.

The discussions would focus on European policy issues, especially NATO and nuclear questions. I believe Nicholls spends most of his time on European questions but he may have some knowledge of the Middle East and Gulf. I would put this British request in the "nice to do, but not essential category."

Schedule permitting, that you agree to meet with Nicholls for 20-minutes on January 16.
