Dear Mrs. Reagan,

That was one of the very very best parties of our whole lives — mine and Daniels'! It was marvelous! not just the exquisite flowers and food and creative, distinguished list of guests, not just the exciting presence of the attractive young couple visiting us from England, not just Leontine Price's thrilling singing - all worthy to be lifetime memories, as they shall be. —

It was your own charming and welcoming presence, with the President healthy and well beside you, that lent the evening its special happy aura. We all danced joyfully during that magical last hour, didn't we! Because your spirit suffused the room. Thank you!

Admiringly,
Ruth Boorstin
