SUBJECT : USIA/TV Coverage of President Mobutu of Zaire

President Mobutu of Zaire was videotaped by USIA-TV in his suite at the Madison Hotel on Friday afternoon, August 5. The interview was conducted by VOA correspondent, Idrissa Seydou Dia.

Earlier Friday, another brief interview was taped with State Department spokesman Pierre Shostal. His comments, in French, briefly described President Mobutu's visit to Washington.

The two interviews were sent immediately on to the post. The tapes will be used in our Kinshasa cultural center and - in all probability, according to the post - will be aired on TV Zaire. The VOA has audio tracks of the interviews.

Dear Dr. Lunardini:

The White House has asked me to reply to your cable of December 13, 1983 concerning the welfare of Presbyterian missionary Douglas Welch.

We are following the situation closely and our Ambassador in Kinshasa has made clear to the Zairian authorities our interest in seeing the problem is resolved as quickly as possible so that Mr. Welch can continue working in Zaire. We understand that Mr. Welch and the Church in Zaire have presented his case clearly to the authorities, and we hope that the Zairian government will arrive at an early and favorable decision.

If I can be of any further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

ON DECEMBER 13 1983 THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY MISSION BOARD OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF AMERICA RECEIVED A TELEX FROM MISSIONARYS TELLING US THAT DOUG AND RUTH WELCH WERE IN DANGER OF BEING EXPELLED FROM ZAIRE. THE REASON GIVEN IS THEIR POLITICAL ACTIONS. DOUG WELCH VISITED A PARLIAMENTARIAN (IE, A PEOPLES COMMISSIONER OR MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT) THIS COMMISSIONER HAS BEEN RELEGATED TO HIS VILLAGE BECAUSE HE OPPOSED MARSHALL MOBUTU AND ATTEMPTED TO BUILD A SECOND POLITICAL PARTY OPPOSING MOBUTU WHO IS PRESIDENT FOR LIFE. DOUG WELCH HAD GONE TO SEE THE COMMISSIONER TO ENLIST HIS HELP IN BUILDING A BRIDGE WHICH PEOPLE NEED. THE COMMISSIONER IS NOT ALLOW TO LEAVE HIS VILLAGE BUT WE UNDERSTAND THAT HE IS ALLOWED TO RECEIVE VISITORS ONE AT A TIME. DOUG AND RUTH ARE WORKING FOR THE GOOD OF THE PEOPLE OF ZAIRE AND WE BELIEVE THAT HE HAS DONE NOTHING WRONG. ON THE CONTRARY, IT IS HARMFUL TO THE PEOPLE OF ZAIRE TO EXPELL DOUG AND RUTH WELCH. THIS INFORMATION HAS COME TO THE FOREST HILLS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OFFICE THROUGH JOHN PRITCHARD AFRICAN SECRETARY FOR THE DIVISION OF INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY MISSION BOARD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH USA. (TELEPHONE 404-873-1531 EXTENSION 301) DOUG AND RUTH WELCH ARE WORKING FOR THE GOOD OF THE ZAIRIAN PEOPLE AND HAVE NO DESIRE TO BE INTERPRETED IN THEIR ACTIVITIES AS OPPOSING THE

Marshal Mobutu Sese Seko

Dear Mr. President:

I have followed developments in Zaire with particular interest since your visit to Washington this past summer. The statesmanlike policies you are following and the strategic importance of your country make Zaire a major African partner of the United States.

The economic measures recently agreed upon by Zaire and its international partners are important and far-reaching. Approval of the IMF program, the subsequent Paris Club debt rescheduling and the successful Consultative Group meeting are milestones. They demonstrate that, working together, we can build a strong and prosperous Zaire.

The success of your economic program will depend upon continuing your courageous liberalization and stabilization policies. I know that this program requires sacrifice and am aware of what it means for the Zairian people. Economic recovery has also been difficult for the United States. It has required sacrifice and tough economic measures. Our experience shows that staying the course best serves the people. I am confident that Zaire will choose the same path.

Adhering to IMF performance criteria, the Paris Club repayment schedules, the anti-corruption campaign--as well as respect for human rights--will create a solid base of support, particularly in the Congress and with the American people. Such support is essential in our efforts to provide assistance to Zaire.

I value the long-standing friendship between our two countries. We have many common interests, including our desire for regional stability in Central Africa, including Chad. In the budget request for the next fiscal year, which soon will be submitted to Congress, I will be requesting an increase in assistance to your country.

I believe that Zaire is at a crucial point in its history. Your decision to pursue sound economic, social and political policies offers a bright future for your people. The path you have chosen will strengthen the U.S.-Zairian partnership and I look forward to keeping in close contact with you on the important issues which we share.

Dear Mr. President:

It has been just over a year since you and I had an opportunity to talk, and I would like to express my great satisfaction at the excellent state of relations between our two countries. We have consulted closely on issues of common interest, such as the search for peace in southern Africa and Chad. Your strong support for President Habre has been most important in stabilizing the situation there. In our bi-lateral relations, the recent signing of the investment treaty will strengthen our economic ties.

I have been impressed and encouraged by the progress you have made in your economic reform program. Price controls have been lifted, foreign trade has been liberalized, the value of the zaire is now determined by the market, and more foreign exchange is available for imports. In addition, inflation has recently dropped sharply, the budget deficit has been significantly reduced, and more debt payments to creditors are being made on time.

Your nation has shown praiseworthy foresight and discipline in pursuing the economic reform program, and I believe that continued progress will, in large measure, depend on the reliance placed on free markets and the degree to which government enterprises are put on a more businesslike basis. You have my personal good wishes, and those of my government, as you continue your rigorous efforts to restore and strengthen the Zairian economy.

As you know, we have supported your efforts. In December 1983 we responded favorably to Zaire's request for debt rescheduling in the Paris Club.

Our assistance to Zaire has been increased to FOODS-02
$45 million, and we have asked the Congress for another increase next year.

We are also working for broader political understanding of the importance of our relationship. Zaire continues to receive close scrutiny by the Congress and the American public on human rights issues. We were gratified, therefore, by your decision to open Zairian prisons to visits by the International Committee of the Red Cross. Continued progress on human rights can make this issue among Zaire's most important achievements, and will make it possible for my Administration to seek the cooperation of the Congress.

I wish to take the occasion of this letter to introduce Brandon Grove, Jr., as my new ambassador to Zaire. He is a highly experienced diplomat with distinguished service in some of our most important posts. He has my full confidence. I have instructed Ambassador Grove to work for continued strengthening of our bilateral relations, and to consult closely with you and your government on the important issues we both face. It is particularly important that we stay in close touch on the situation in southern Africa, an area where our common interests are at stake.

You have my best wishes.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Dear Mr. President:

Some four months have passed since your last visit to the United States, during which you met with Vice President Bush, Secretary of Defense Weinberger, and Ambassador Walters. I would like to take advantage of Ambassador Grove's consultations in Washington to reaffirm to you my government's and my personal satisfaction with the strong relationship that exists between our two countries, and to make clear my firm wish that our friendship and cooperation continue to develop along these very positive lines.

Zaire's pivotal role in building peace and stability in Africa has never been more important than it is today. Your strong leadership, manifest in so many issues which affect your continent's future, is something which I value greatly. My government looks forward to being able to rely on your continued counsel and support.

As I write to you, events in Angola are unfolding rapidly. We are determined to move the negotiations forward, and in the meantime will give Jonas Savimbi effective support as he continues to resist the Soviet and Cuban presence there. I had a good meeting with Mr. Savimbi here, and am determined that the United States make a difference in Angola by using its influence to work for peace, to reduce Soviet influence, and thereby to reduce the threat to Zaire. It is also important that we stay in close touch on Sudan and Uganda, other neighbors of yours experiencing civil conflict.

I am concerned by recent indications of the threat that Mu'ammarr Qadhafi's Libyan regime holds for your nation and for you personally. My government has made its concern over this matter known to your neighbors and to key European governments. I have asked that we follow this new threat carefully and stay in close touch with you.

Let me assure you that we are acutely aware of the sacrifices Zaire has made over the past three years in implementing its adjustment program. However, there are important opportunities at hand for additional economic assistance to Zaire through the World Bank's Special Facility for Africa, as well as action on Secretary Baker's proposed channeling of IMF Trust Fund reflows to countries such as Zaire which are undertaking serious economic reform efforts. Both of these programs offer the prospect of additional support to Zaire, and have the strong support of the United States.

With great diligence, the United States has assisted Zaire by more than doubling its bilateral economic assistance over this period of economic adjustment, and we hope to continue to augment our aid. In this regard, Ambassador Grove and our USAID mission shortly will begin discussions with your government for the design of a proposed new project under our program to encourage economic reform in Africa. We are also planning, with your government, a new multi-year economic development project in Central Shaba, as well as an important expansion of Peace Corps activities. We believe that combining your continued efforts towards restructuring your economy with such enhanced external assistance will yield our shared goal of an economically strong and growing Zaire.

Study. Mr. President, I am pleased to reaffirm the United States' strong commitment to the Republic of Zaire and to supporting your nation's immensely impressive efforts at establishing a framework for sustained economic growth. I am convinced that as we and your other friends work together with you, Zaire will be able to achieve this important mutual goal.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

Dear Mr. President:

The last few weeks have prompted renewed reflection on the relations between the United States and other governments. Fortunately, there are many with whom we have excellent ties although we cannot expect all of our friends to agree with us all the time. But, I take comfort in the realization that, throughout the period you have served at the helm of Zaire, our two countries have been steady, constructive and even courageous partners in Africa and beyond.

Over the course of those two decades, successive American Presidents have tried in their own fashion to indicate American appreciation for your friendship, some perhaps with greater enthusiasm than others. For my part, we have worked vigorously with the Congress to increase assistance levels and against stiff opposition have doubled the total since 1983. Unfortunately, we have had only modest success in the field of military assistance, where the House of Representatives has persistently rebuffed our efforts to provide funding at a level more consistent with Zaire's needs. Although my Administration will continue to push for an augmentation of U.S. security assistance to Zaire, with the current budgetary crisis it appears doubtful that we will be successful in obtaining our proposed increase to $12.0 million next year.

Secretary Weinberger informs me, however, that his staff has given intensive attention to the kind offer you made last fall concerning the possible utilization of Zairian facilities at Kitona and Kamina. Kamina has indeed a potential utility for training and exercises for U.S. forces that is being further developed. Secretary Weinberger is writing you in more detail presenting a procedure for jointly developing these possibilities.

I have been particularly impressed by Zaire's commitment to economic reform, and recognize the profound but necessary sacrifices which your citizenry has made. We view your continued adherence to the IMF program as crucial to the achievement of sustained economic growth. You have demonstrated this characteristic courage elsewhere, too, by re-establishing relations with Israel, dispatching your troops to resist Libyan aggression in Chad, and making clear your vision of southern African problems. These measures all testify to the similarity of our foreign policy objectives and our support for the free market.

I understand that misunderstandings have arisen which prompted you to move towards curtailment of some cooperative bilateral efforts, specifically our Peace Corps program and military exercises. As Ambassador Walters' visit at my request attests, we believe that urgent consultation is needed to address these misunderstandings. I hope that you and Ambassador Walters will be able to make progress in this regard. I would like to see a harmonious climate restored to our bilateral relationship, free of the public airing of differences and of unilateral actions.

As you know, I value your friendship greatly and am confident that working together we may preserve and expand the ties and interests our countries share in common. I hope it will be possible to see you in Washington later this year.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

SUBJECT: CSIS Roundtable for President Mobutu

Issue

Whether to accept CSIS' invitation to attend a roundtable for President Mobutu on February 23, 1987 (Tab I).

Background

It will essentially be a question and answer session from 10:00 a.m. to noon. The project was suggested by the Zairian Ambassador to help burnish Mobutu's image with American intellectuals, especially those in the academic world who constantly disparage him as an African leader. It is a good idea because Mobutu handles himself well in those situations.

Mobutu would appreciate your coming because your presence would heighten the prestige of the event. However, it is a full two hours and you will be seeing him privately in your office after he sees the Vice President that same afternoon. I have been invited separately and plan to attend, so I could represent you and the NSC. I don't expect that Mobutu would be upset if you do not attend.

Dan DE Howard concurs.

RECOMMENDATION

That you decline the invitation, and indicate that I will be representing you and the NSC staff.

Dear Ambassador Carlucci:

President Mobutu Sese Seko of Zaire will be the guest of the Center's African Studies Program on Monday morning, February 23. I hope that you will be able to accept our invitation to participate in an off-the-record roundtable meeting with one of Africa's most notable heads of state.

The roundtable will be held in the Wadsworth Room on Floor B-1 of the International Club building here at 1800 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. Since we will convene promptly at 10 a.m., please arrive no later than 9:45 to clear security, find your place at the table, and have a cup of coffee. The meeting will end at 12 noon.

We will begin with some brief introductory remarks by President Mobutu (15 or 20 minutes) on the economic and political outlook in Zaire and on the larger African scene. We will then open the session to an exchange between roundtable participants and President Mobutu. Simultaneous translation facilities will be available for guests who do not speak French.

Please telephone my office (202 887-0219 or 202 775-3158) to let us know if you will or will not be able to accept this invitation. Either Ev Barnes, Gary Armstrong, or Gerald Seaman will have the invitation list at hand to take your message. Since places are very limited at a roundtable, we need to have your answer as soon as possible.
