MEMORANDUM FOR FRANK C. CARLUCCI

FROM: HERMAN J. COHEN ahc for

SUBJECT: Mobutu's Change of Plans

We got word today (September 9) that Mobutu has cancelled his planned visit to Washington on September 25th. You had agreed to see him. The official reason is the coup in Burundi, which has created uneasiness in neighboring countries. Mobutu and President Habyarimana of Rwanda will be meeting with Pierre Buyoya, the Burundi coup leader and new head of state.

There may actually be at least two other reasons for the cancellation. One is that it looks bad for Mobutu to come all the way here from Zaire for just a few days after he's just returned from the francophone summit in Quebec. Also, he had hoped for an invitation to attend the Congressional Black Caucus annual meeting here, but Congressman Dymally has told Mobutu he couldn't guarantee that he might not encounter some criticism.
