Dear Betsy:

Thanks for asking us about this program. No one on our staff has seen the publication nor heard of it. We tried to reach them but couldn't. We asked them for a copy by mail. This organization is not associated with us.

They appear to target teenagers. Our program addresses primary prevention for elementary and middle school children.

As soon as we get a copy, we will let you know our reaction to it.

Drug Awareness
The Whitehouse, Washington DC 20500

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

I am very lucky, I know the joy of living life without the use of drugs. It amazes me how many people think that I have a problem because I don't "loosen up with a drink."

My six year old son, Ryan, and I believe in saying no to drugs and would like information about drugs to help educate ourselves. We appreciate your efforts to "Day No to Drugs" and hope that we can share the information you send us with Ryan's first grade class this year because Ryan's small private school has no program to date about drug abuse.

Thank you,

Dear Mrs. Reagan,

I wrote you approximately 4 months ago informing you of a drug awareness program we were starting in our community soliciting your ideas, suggestions, ~~etc.~~ We have not received any respond. Since fighting drugs is one of your priorities we felt compelled to let you know we are joining you in that fight. We applied for federal funding, but we did not receive it. We realize the problem is so much greater in other areas. Even though funding was not granted, we are going full force with our project making use of available resources. The Pitt Co. Sheriff Dept. from Greenville, NC has been extremely helpful and has promised us future help in the way of presentations, speakers, pamphlets, slides, etc. Our first session was held last night, August 5, with a great turn-out. Three more sessions are planned.

At our final sessions which tentatively is scheduled approximately 3 months from now, we would like to present our youth with a green and white Tee shirt with "Just Say No." Was this your idea? Could you supply us with approximately 100 (or more) of these in various sizes or could you tell us how to get these printed up at a discount?

As a mother and a teacher in the public school system, I realize the problem is spreading like wild fire.

Do let us hear from you this time.

Gratefully yours,
Joyce Dixon

Dear Mr. Roberts:

We understand that JSN Publishers is claiming to be an authorized representative of The Just Say No Foundation. You are not now and have never been authorized to represent The Just Say No Foundation for any purpose. Nor have you ever been authorized to use the Foundation's logo or name. We demand that you cease claiming to be an authorized representative of the Just Say No Foundation and cease any use of the Foundation's logo or name immediately.

In addition, we direct and demand that you return all money that you have raised through your alleged association with the Foundation to the donors.

The Foundation is a tax-exempt charitable organization whose assets are dedicated exclusively to charitable purposes. The most important of these assets is the good will of the public. The attempt of JSN Publishers to commercialize the "Just Say No" movement and to take advantage of the Foundation's reputation has damaged the Foundation in the eyes of the public.

Unless we receive your prompt assurance that you will comply with these demands, we will be forced to consult our attorneys regarding legal proceedings.

RUBY-THROATED HUMMINGBIRD

Archilochus colubris

The smallest of all birds, the dainty Ruby-throated Hummingbird delights all who may catch a glimpse of its spectacular beauty as it is drawn to sip nectar from red, tubular flowers in gardens and forests as well as in artificial feeders. It is the only bird to have the remarkable abilities to fly backwards and to hover in one spot. Seemingly forever in motion, except for perching briefly on a twig, the Ruby-throated Hummingbird winters in Mexico and Panama and takes flight in the spring to the midwestern and upper United States and Canada to build its tiny nest.

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

I have read much about your work against drugs in America, and I too want to become involved in the "Just say"NO!" to drugs!" Program. My problem is I have no idea who to contact in my area so that I can begin working for a drug free America which I believe so strongly in.

I will be starting my sophomore year in high school this fall and I hope that my age will not prohibit me from active participation in such a worthy organization. I want to volunteer my spare time for any work that can be done to benefit my community and state from the plague of drug use.

I am looking forward to working for this program and that is why I hope that you can help me get in touch with people in my area who are also working towards a drug free America in the "Just say "NO!" to drugs!" Program.

Thank you for your time and again I am looking forward to your response.

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

I would like to help with your campaign against drugs.

The evening reporters on TV inform me the program is rather superficial.

Would the following plan work? One or two volunteers from each state who would travel & speak and enlist others to help. I believe starting in their own church would help & work through the churches & then expand --- I don't think I have seen one poster 'Just Say No' in our whole county.

Think about it, please. The campaign is upon us & there are hundreds of election posters all over the county. Why can't -we- do the same thing? If we all work together, -we- too, may make a difference.

Think about it, please, as I have 4 grandchildren I love dearly - and I know I can get lots of help in my county & surrounding counties. (ST. FRANCOIS)

Sincerely
Marianne Smith

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

My Granddaughter is visiting me from Miami. She saw you on television the other day talking to a group of children and telling them to "Say No to Drugs". She asked me, "Graandpa, what are drugs?". She is 9 years old and is in 4th grade.

I wonder if you could have one of your assistants send a pamphlet which she will be able to understand on "What is a Drug?.

Please reply direct to her as follows:

Dear Nancy Reagan,

My name is Amy Johnson, I am twelve years of age, and I live in Caldwell, Ohio.

I am very interested in your "Say No to Drugs" program. I would like very much to have information on it.

I am concerned about the lives of people who take drugs, and I wonder, why do people take drugs when it means risking their own lives.

Sincerely,

Attn: Drug Awareness

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

I read an article on the "Just Say No" clubs, and was inspired by the youths in the piece. As I read, I thought of my sister's two girls, (3 and 4 years old), and of my wife's aunt's three boys, (3-8 years old), all of whom would be interested in organizing "Just Say No" clubs in their communities.

I am pleased at the efforts our government, and our youngsters, are undertaking to halt the abuse of drugs. I will be happy to share the information sent to me with my family, employees, church, and Rotary Club. I strongly feel these programs can ensure against the abuse of drugs in our communities and improve the quality of life in our country.

Thank you and the President for your concern about the drug problems in our land and for a strong recovery from the lulls of the late 1970's.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas J. Turigliatto

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

As a member of the Jeffersonville-Youngsville Central School(J-Y.C.S.) Sullivan County Chapter of the National Honor Society, I am required to complete a project during my senior year.

For my project, I have chosen to activate a Just Say No campaign in my school. I am very interested in the organization and have been reading about all that it has done.

Congratulations to you on the success of your program. It is an excellent one that people of all ages can relate to. I have been reading about many different programs of this type in order to prepare for my project and particularly like the Just Say No message.

I am writing to you to ask if you could help me in getting this action off the ground at J-Y.C.S. Your firsthand experience and knowledge of the program would be a great asset and help. I would appreciate any information that you could send me. For example, the background of Just Say No, what to do at meetings, what we would do for the program, how to obtain guest speakers, and whom to ask to be a guest speaker. You may write to me at: Cynthia Beth Epstein or call me at: (914) 482-5700.
P.O. Box 477
Jeffersonville, NY 12748

If, per chance, you would be interested in guest speaking, please tell me. It would be an added plus in our campaign and we, at J-Y.C.S., would love to have you.

I am looking forward to hearing from you soon. Thank you very much for your help and cooperation in this matter. I am anticipating your reply either in the mail or via the telephone.

Once again, thank you for your help.

Sincerely,
Cynthia Beth Epstein

Dear Mrs Regan,

I am so concerned about Drugs I am not on drugs and hope never to be faced with them. oh I am hopeing that you can help me PLEASE try to help me I have been under alot of "pure pressure" and I feel like I could help out alot of children & teenagers from my story The big problem is that I have tried beyond anything you could imagine to get on a just say no parade or a panel but From where I live I cannot because we dont have Parades or panels. I know they have them in other places and I read about Kirk Cameron Alyssa Milano etc.. always being on these panels I will be willing to raise the Airfair money myself or anything I have to do if you will get in contact with me please dont just send me a letter telling me your sorry but you just cannot because you dont know about me. If you would like I'll save my money so you could meet me so you'll be able to say you know me so I can be on a panel It is so important I have a huge box full of letters telling me that they are sorry but they cant take the time to track people down so on and so on. PLEASE HELP I know I could do it well and mabey save a life.
