Special Assistant to the President, Executive Secretary, Domestic Policy Council, 1985-1988

Biography

A native of Waco, Texas, Ralph C. Bledsoe received a bachelor's degree from Texas A & M College in 1955, a master's degree from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1962, and a masters and Ph. D. from the University of Southern California in Public Administration in 1968 and 1971, respectively. He was with the System Development Corporation between 1958 and 1971. Mr. Bledsoe was a senior faculty member at the Federal Executive Institute in Charlottesville, Virginia from 1973 to 1980, and was director of the Emergency Management Institute in Emmitsburg, Maryland from 1980 to early 1981.

Mr. Bledsoe served as a consultant in the Office of Policy Development in early 1981 before joining the White House staff as Associate Director of the Office of Planning and Evaluation where he helped build the support system along with evaluating various cabinet councils. In 1982 he was appointed Special Assistant to the President and Executive Secretary to the newly-formed Council on Management and Administration responsible for government-wide policies pertaining to Executive Branch management, administrative and personnel issues, and supervising the "Reform 88" Task Force. Also beginning in 1982 until 1985 Mr. Bledsoe served as Assistant Director of the Office of Policy Development for Management and Administration, and from 1984-1985 he was the Executive Director of the Federal Property Review Board. In 1985 became Special Assistant to the President, Executive Secretary, Domestic Policy Council until late 1988 when he left the White House.
