Public Liaison, Office of, 1983-1989

Special Assistant to the President

Biography

Melvin Leroy Bradley was born on January 6, 1938 in Texarkana, Texas. He spent his youth in Texas and graduated from local Dunbar High School in 1955.

After his high school graduation, Mr. Bradley moved with his family to Los Angeles, California. There he worked in a variety of occupations while periodically continuing his education. He worked as a launderer, clerk, postal carrier for the United States Postal Service and as a Deputy Sheriff with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department. During this time he attended college classes at Los Angeles Community College and Compton College. In 1970, he left the Sheriff's Department to attend Pepperdine University in Malibu, California and to work for the Governor of California, Ronald Reagan, as assistant for community affairs. He graduated in 1973 with a B.S. degree. He continued his work for Governor Reagan through the end of 1975.

After leaving the Governor's Office, Bradley worked as director of public relations for the Charles R. Drew Postgraduate Medical School of Los Angeles from 1975-1977. He served as assistant to the vice president and account executive with United Airlines in 1977-1981. Mr. Bradley was a staff member of the Office of the President-Elect serving as special adviser to the director of the office of Presidential personnel.

From the beginning of the administration, Mr. Bradley was a Senior Policy Adviser within the Office of Policy Development staff, focusing on urban affairs and small business. He continued, on an ad hoc basis, as an adviser to Presidential Personnel on minority appointments. Mr. Bradley was promoted in April 1982 to a Special Assistant to the President for Policy Development. At the time, his primary responsibilities were working with the Office of Policy Development staff to assure that policy analyses for the President were sensitive to the needs and priorities of the minority and disadvantaged communities.

In August 1983, Counsellor to the President, Edwin Meese, authorized the transfer of Mr. Bradley to the White House staff working in the Office of Public Liaison. He retained his title of Special Assistant to the President for Policy Development and was to have continued offering policy advice on minority issues via the Cabinet Council system run through the Office of Policy Development. He also continued his advisory role on minority appointments. He remained associated and reporting to the Office of Public Liaison for the rest of the Reagan administration when he resigned in early February 1989.

Mr. Bradley is married to the former Ruth Ann Terry and they have four children.

Scope and Content Note

Our initial survey of the Bradley collection shows a much larger emphasis on public liaison work regarding minority and urban issues. In addition, Mr. Bradley was heavily involved with recruitment, assignment, and vetting of minority candidates for appointments within the Reagan administration. These functions began in his earliest days at the White House and continued until he left. Given this evidence, we have placed the majority of material within the Office of Public Liaison collection for Mr. Bradley, although a good deal of material predates 1983.

The Melvin Bradley collection is divided into four series. They are: Series I: Correspondence; Series II: Subject File; Series III: Minority Appointments; Series IV: Publications.

SERIES I: CORRESPONDENCE, 1983-1987, (6.5 l.ft., 6 OA Boxes)

This series consists of a chronological filing of both outgoing and incoming Bradley correspondence including letters, memos, and notes.

SERIES II: SUBJECT FILE, 1981-1989, (17.5 l.ft., 16 OA Boxes)

This series consists of material regarding various subjects regarding minority and urban issues and groups. In addition, some of the material covers minority appointments in general. We have retained Mr. Bradley's unique filing system which consists of an alpha-numeric code used at the beginning of some of his files. We have tried to interfile all of the other remaining material alphabetically.

SERIES III: MINORITY APPOINTMENTS, 1981-1989, (8.8 l.ft., 7 OA Boxes)

The vast majority of this series consists of minority resumes retained by Mr. Bradley. In addition there are a few subject files dealing with minority appointment strategy, correspondence and name lists. There is no particular arrangement of the subject files, but the resumes are in alphabetical order by the last name of the candidates.

SERIES IV: PUBLICATIONS, 1981-1989 (1 l.ft., 1 OA Box)

This series consists of a small amount of publications retained by Mr. Bradley for use as a White House advisor.
