GODSON, ROY: Files, 1982-1988 – REAGAN LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

Material noted in bold within this collection is currently available for research use. If a folder is available for research use it may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act restrictions. Most frequent withdrawn material is national security classified material, personal privacy, protection of the President, etc. Any non-bolded folder is closed for research.

The non-bolded folders are subject to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

If you are interested in submitting a FOIA request for access to any of the unavailable records or have any questions about these collections or series, please contact our archival staff at 1-800-410-8354, outside the US at 1-805-577-4012, or email reagan.library@nara.gov.

GODSON, ROY: Files, 1982-1988

Consultant to the National Security Council and to the President’s Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board, 1982-1988

Roy Godson has been a professor of government at Georgetown University since 1969. He is the author of over 20 books many of which deal with intelligence and security issues. Professor Godson is also president of the National Strategy Information Center, a nongovernmental educational organization devoted to the enhancement and preservation of democracy.

Professor Godson became a consultant to the NSC and to the President’s Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board (PFIAB) in 1982. Prior to becoming a consultant with the Reagan administration, Professor Godson worked with the Reagan-Bush Transition.
