

GROOMS, SALLY: Files, 1987 - REAGAN LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

Material noted in bold within this collection is currently available for research use. If a folder is available for research use it may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act restrictions. Most frequent withdrawn material is national security classified material, personal privacy, protection of the President, etc. Any non-bolded folder is closed for research.

The non-bolded folders are subject to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

If you are interested in submitting a FOIA request for access to any of the unavailable records or have any questions about these collections or series, please contact our archival staff at 1-800-410-8354, outside the US at 1-805-577-4012, or email reagan.library@nara.gov.

GROOMS, SALLY: Files, 1987

Interagency Public Diplomacy Working Group

Sally Grooms, an employee of USIA in Mexico City, chaired an interagency working group for public diplomacy for the trip of President Reagan to the Venice Economic Summit, Rome, the Vatican, West Berlin, and Bonn, June 3-12, 1987. Members of the group appear to have been from USIA and the Department of State and worked out of the National Security Council offices in the Old Executive Office Building. The following box lists are the working group's working files.
