

KAMINSKY, PHYLISS: Files, 1981 – REAGAN LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

Material noted in bold within this collection is currently available for research use. If a folder is available for research use it may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act restrictions. Most frequent withdrawn material is national security classified material, personal privacy, protection of the President, etc. Any non-bolded folder is closed for research.

The non-bolded folders are subject to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

If you are interested in submitting a FOIA request for access to any of the unavailable records or have any questions about these collections or series, please contact our archival staff at 1-800-410-8354, outside the US at 1-805-577-4012, or email reagan.library@nara.gov.

KAMINSKY, PHYLISS: Files, 1981

Press Liaison, NSC 1981

Phyllis Kaminsky served as the Press Liaison to the National Security Council (NSC) for most of 1981. She was detailed to the NSC from the International Communication Agency (ICA) which hired her in February 1981 as Special Assistant to the Associate Director for Programs. Prior to holding her ICA position, Ms. Kaminsky was Richard Allen's press secretary during the Reagan-Bush transition and, during the campaign, she served as the Deputy Director of Communications for the Reagan-Bush Committee, Arlington, VA. Sometime in late 1981, Ms. Kaminsky left her detailed position at the NSC and returned to the ICA where she became the Director of the Office of Public Liaison for the renamed ICA, the United States Information Agency (USIA).
