LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS, WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF: Records, 1981-1988

For the folders marked “Presidential”: the material in the “Presidential” folders documents letters that were written on President Reagan’s behalf for various members of Congress. Most of these letters were written to accompany the ceremonial signing pens, used to sign bills into law, that were awarded to those who worked on particular pieces of legislation. In addition, the material includes a few Presidential letters to Congressional constituents, and to people leaving the White House Office of Legislative Affairs staff.
