

LOZANO, DIANA: Files, 1981-1983 – REAGAN LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

Material noted in bold within this collection is currently available for research use. If a folder is available for research use it may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act restrictions. Most frequent withdrawn material is national security classified material, personal privacy, protection of the President, etc. Any non-bolded folder is closed for research.

The non-bolded folders are subject to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

If you are interested in submitting a FOIA request for access to any of the unavailable records or have any questions about these collections or series, please contact our archival staff at 1-800-410-8354, outside the US at 1-805-577-4012, or email reagan.library@nara.gov.

LOZANO, DIANA: Files, 1981-1983

Office of Public Liaison (Human Services, Hispanics, Women)

The Office of Public Liaison was originally organized with Elizabeth Dole as the Director, Red Cavaney as her “number two” and with Diana Lozano and Jack Burgess responsible for groupings of staff and reporting to Cavaney. Diana Lozano oversaw the “human service portfolio” staff people in the Office of Public Liaison. This group focused on outreach to interest groups such as African-Americans, the Jewish community, and Hispanics. This chain of command was simplified in mid-1982. Lozano was taken out of her overseer role, and assigned to work with Hispanic and women’s groups.

Diana Lozano came to the White House on a two year leave of absence from IBM.

Some of Lozano’s work product can be found in the Henry Zuniga collection.
