

MELOY, MARY ANN: Files, 1983-1985 – REAGAN LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

Material noted in bold within this collection is currently available for research use. If a folder is available for research use it may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act restrictions. Most frequent withdrawn material is national security classified material, personal privacy, protection of the President, etc. Any non-bolded folder is closed for research.

The non-bolded folders are subject to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

If you are interested in submitting a FOIA request for access to any of the unavailable records or have any questions about these collections or series, please contact our archival staff at 1-800-410-8354, outside the US at 1-805-577-4012, or email reagan.library@nara.gov.

MELOY, MARY ANN: Files, 1983-1985

Public Liaison, White House Office of

Mary Ann Meloy began work in the Office of Public Liaison in June 1983 as an Assistant for Communications working directly for Faith Whittlesey. Meloy and Whittlesey had a previous working relationship and had known each other for about ten years prior to her Meloy's joining the White House staff. In this position Meloy ran meetings, assisted in speechwriting and article writing for Whittlesey. In November 1983 she was promoted to Associate Director and became responsible for the agriculture constituency, replacing John M. Rousselot.
