OGLESBY, M. B. Jr.: Files, 1988

Office of Legislative Affairs, 1981-1986, see separate inventory
Office of the Chief of Staff, 1988

M. B. Oglesby worked in the Office of Legislative Affairs from January 1981 to February 1986. He served as head of the Legislative Affairs office beginning in December 1983.

Oglesby returned to the White House staff in July 1988, as Deputy Chief of Staff, and remained until the end of the Reagan Administration. This collection consists of letters and memoranda primarily concerning the 1988-1989 transition efforts on behalf of President Reagan.
