ROBINSON, PETER M.: Files, 1983-1988

Speechwriting, White House Office of – Speechwriter

BIOGRAPHY

Peter M. Robinson was born in 1957 and grew up in Vestal, New York.

In 1979, Robinson graduated summa cum laude from Dartmouth College. He majored in English. He went on to study politics, philosophy and economics at Oxford University. Robinson graduated from Oxford in 1982.

Robinson began his service in the White House as the chief speechwriter for Vice President George Bush from 1982-1983. In 1983, he was hired as a Special Assistant to the President and a member of the speechwriting staff. He served on the Speechwriting staff from 1983-1988.

After leaving the White House, Robinson attended the Stanford University Graduate School of Business. He graduated with an MBA in 1990. The journal he kept as a student formed the basis for his best-selling business book, Snapshots from Hell: the Making of an MBA, 1994.

At the conclusion of graduate school Robinson spent a year in New York City with Fox Television, reporting to the owner of the company, Rupert Murdoch. He spent a second year in Washington, D.C., with the Securities and Exchange Commission, where he served as the director of the Office of Public Affairs, Policy Evaluation, and Research.

Peter M. Robinson joined the Hoover Institute as a research fellow in 1993. At the Hoover Institution, he writes about business and politics, edits Hoover's quarterly journal, the Hoover Digest and hosts Hoover's vidcast program, Uncommon Knowledge.

Robinson has also authored two additional books: How Ronald Reagan Changed My Life, Reagan Books, 2003) and It's My Party: A Republican's Messy Love Affair with the GOP, Warner, 2000.

As an author of numerous essays and interviews, Robinson has published in the New York Times, Red Herring, and Forbes ASAP, the Wall Street Journal, and National Review Online. He is the editor of Can Congress Be Fixed?: Five Essays on Congressional Reform (Hoover Institution Press, 1995).

In 2005, Robinson was elected to serve as a Trustee of Dartmouth College.

Robinson lives in northern California with his wife, their children and their dog, Crusoe.

SCOPE & CONTENT

This collection contains five series. While it includes speeches by the Vice President, the material does not appear to be from Robinson's time working for Vice President Bush, 1982-1983.

SERIES I: SPEECH DRAFTS, 1983-1988 (4.2 l.f., Boxes 1-11)

This series consists of material authored by Peter Robinson for remarks, speeches and tapings given by President Reagan and the occasional speech by White House staff members. The majority of folders simply contain the finished product – either the press release version of the remarks or the President's teleprompter copy. For larger "topic" speeches they may contain some edits and various drafts. The material is arranged in chronological order of the remarks, speeches and tapings. It begins with an RNC Luncheon in September 1983 and concludes with an address in June 1988. More detailed drafting of Robinson speeches can be found in the Office of the Speechwriting: Speech Drafts.

SERIES II: SUBJECT FILES, 1983-1988 (2.2 l.f., Boxes 11-17)

This series consists of material related to general subjects. It is mostly dated from 1983-1988, but does include a few pre-1983 items including Reagan's two most used speeches from the 1960s and book excerpts. The material consists of newspaper clippings, magazine articles and publications from the Department of State. It also contains a number of subject review papers and memos from the Office of Public Affairs, the Office of Management and Budget, other White House offices, Congress, the Republican Party and other outside agencies. Included are handwritten notes of Robinson meetings with various staff members including Lyn Nofziger and Don Regan. It also includes quotes and joke files. In only a few instances are included drafts or speech ideas for a particular subject. The material is arranged in alphabetical order by subject.

SERIES III: REFERENCE FILES, 1983-1988 (0.6 l.f., Boxes 17-19)

This series consists of material specific to certain speeches. The folders may contain Peter Robinson handwritten notes regarding a topic or specific speech, copies of some drafts, the final version of the speech and newspaper clippings on the reaction to the speech. It also contains input from outside sources similar to Series II regarding a specific speech. The material is arranged alphabetically.

SERIES IV: CHRONOLOGICAL FILES, 1984-1987 (0.1 l.f., Box 19)

This series consists of outgoing memos and correspondence to White House offices, public citizens and personal contacts. The material was removed from two 3-ring binders and foldered. Binder #1 (03/27/1985-10/28/1985) also contained a few news clippings, and speech drafts. The material is arranged in chronological order.

SERIES V: PERSONAL FILES, 1983-1988 (0.1 l.f., Box 19)

This series consists of personal material relative to Peter Robinson. It includes personal correspondence, notes on personal meetings, and notes on personal Catholic retreats. It also includes folders on possible outside employment in the private sector. The material is arranged alphabetically.
