SPEECHWRITING, WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF: RESEARCH OFFICE : Records, 1981-1989

The White House Office of Speechwriting: Research Office consisted of researchers assisting the speechwriters by compiling background information and fact checking for individual remarks, addresses, tapings, radio speeches and statements. Researchers were assigned to specific speeches and speechwriters. This information can be found in the speech indexes found in the Office of Speechwriting collection. Individual researchers were identified beginning in 1982.

This collection consists of four series: Series I: Speeches. 1981-1989; Series II: General Topic Speech Research File. 1982-1988; Series III: Research Clipping File. 1980-1984; and Series IV: 1980 Campaign File. The 1980 Campaign File consists of three subseries: Subseries A: Campaign and Pre-Presidential Speeches. 1979-1981; Subseries B: Campaign Reference File. 1964-1980; and Subseries C: Reagan Speeches. 1952-1978.

SERIES I: SPEECHES. 1981-1989 (127.1 l.ft.; Boxes 1-410)

This series consists of material providing background information for a specific set of remarks, addresses, tapings, radio speeches and statements. It includes policy information, facts, past remarks on this topic, information about the audience, information about the location of the speech and related events. Material within the folders is usually memos, draft speeches, a “fact-check” copy of the final draft, news clippings, articles, publications, maps, pamphlets and other ephemera. The material is arranged in chronological order by the date of the speech.

SERIES II:GENERAL TOPIC SPEECH RESEARCH FILE, 1982-1988
(1.4 l.ft., Boxes 410-412)

This series consists of bulk material providing background information for a specific location or topic. It is not necessarily related to a specific speech. Material within the folders is usually news clippings, articles, publications, maps, pamphlets and other ephemera. This material is arranged by topic.

SERIES III: RESEARCH CLIPPING FILE, 1980-1984 (1.5 l.ft.; Boxes 412-415)

This series consists of published material used for fact-checking and adding information to speeches. It consists of news clippings, magazine articles, reports, papers, pamphlets, newsletters, and ephemera. It is arranged in alphabetical order by subject.

SERIES IV: 1980 CAMPAIGN FILE, 1964-1981 (4 l.ft., Boxes 416-425)

This series consists of three subseries: Subseries A: Campaign and Pre-Presidential Speeches. 1979-1981; Subseries B: Campaign Reference File. 1964-1980 and Subseries C: Reagan Speeches. 1952-1978.

Subseries A consists of press release copies of speeches, remarks, statements, campaign announcements, endorsements, and other campaign developments. This material is arranged in chronological order.

Subseries B consists of material related to position and policy statements. It includes press releases, policy information, questionnaire responses, news clippings, and fact sheets. This material is arranged alphabetically by topic.

Subseries C consists of press releases and published versions of many pre-1980 Reagan speeches. The speeches are arranged in chronological order.
